29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Aaron and Hur support the arms of Moses: Unknown

Reflection on the Feast of St. Luke—OCTOBER 18

To be a Christian for Luke means to follow Jesus on the path that he takes. It is Jesus himself who takes the initiative and calls us to follow him, and he does it decisively, unmistakably, thus showing his extraordinary identity, his mystery of being the Son who knows the Father and reveals him (cf. Lk 10: 22). . . If we have not been attracted by the face of Christ, it is impossible to follow him with fidelity and constancy. This is also because Jesus walks a difficult road; he lays down extremely demanding conditions and heads for a paradoxical destiny, that of the Cross. Luke emphasizes that Jesus does not like compromises and requires a commitment of the whole person, a decisive detachment from any nostalgia for the past, from family demands, from material possessions (cf. Lk 9: 57-62; 14: 26-33).

We must abandon ourselves to the power of the Spirit, who is able to infuse light and especially love for Christ; we must open ourselves to the inner fascination that Jesus works in the hearts of those who aspire to authenticity, while fleeing from half measures. This is certainly difficult for human beings, but it becomes possible with the grace of God. On the other hand, if following Christ means carrying the Cross each day, the latter in turn is the tree of life leading to the resurrection. Luke, who emphasizes the radical requirements for following Christ, is also the Evangelist who describes the joy of those who become Christ's disciples...”

- ST. JOHN PAUL II—18 OCT, 2000

YOUNG LADIES INSTITUTE

Did you know that YLI, Young Ladies Institute, was formed by young mothers who wanted to help a young woman who had contracted tuberculosis in 1887?

Mary Richardson, Emily Coogan and Annie Sweeney's friend had no family, was quickly becoming bedridden, and unable to work. And so, this 'society of Catholic young women for beneficial [aid, meals, clothing] and social [visiting, cleaning] purposes' started.

Learn more about the Young Ladies Institute by contacting Cindy Large or Mary Anderson, at MbAnderson82@gmail.com

THE SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE

That Our Prayers May Find the Heart of Every Priest and Bishop.

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop—a “holy wasting” (cf. Mt. 26:10) or lavishing of prayer for his deeper conformity to Christ.

Please consider joining this beautiful apostolate!

- 1 hr of Adoration/week dedicated to our pastor’s spiritual needs!
- Choose a set day. Set aside 1 hour (This can also include your Eucharistic Adoration hour!)
- Be open to The Holy Spirit to guide your prayer.

Contact Suzie Vendetti if interested or for questions:

Lives of the Saints

STS. ISAAC JOGUES, JEAN DE BRÉBEUF AND COMPANIONS

Feast Day: October 19

Isaac Jogues and his companions were the first martyrs of the North American continent officially recognized by the Church. As a young Jesuit, Isaac Jogues, a man of learning and culture, taught literature in France. He gave up that career to work among the Huron Indians in the New World, and in 1636, he and his companions, under the leadership of Jean de Brébeuf, arrived in Quebec. The Hurons were constantly warred upon by the Iroquois, and in a few years Father Jogues was captured by the Iroquois and imprisoned for 13 months. His letters and journals tell how he and his companions were led from village to village, how they were beaten, tortured, and forced to watch as their Huron converts were mangled and killed.

An unexpected chance for escape came to Isaac Jogues through the Dutch, and he returned to France, bearing the marks of his sufferings. Several fingers had been cut, chewed, or burnt off. Pope Urban VIII gave him permission to offer Mass with his mutilated hands: "It would be shameful that a martyr of Christ not be allowed to drink the Blood of Christ."

Welcomed home as a hero, Father Jogues might have sat back, thanked God for his safe return, and died peacefully in his homeland. But his zeal led him back once more to the fulfillment of his dreams. In a few months he sailed for his missions among the Hurons.

In 1646, he and Jean de Lalande, set out for Iroquois country in the belief that a recently signed peace treaty would be observed. They, along with René Goupil, were captured by a Mohawk war party and killed.

Jean de Brébeuf was a French Jesuit who came to Canada at the age of 32 and labored there for 24 years. He went back to France when the English captured Quebec in 1629 and expelled the Jesuits, but returned to his missions four years later. Although medicine men blamed the Jesuits for a smallpox epidemic among the Hurons, Jean remained with them. He composed catechisms and a dictionary in Huron, and saw 7,000 converted before his death in 1649. Having been captured by the Iroquois at Sainte Marie, near Georgian Bay, Canada, Father Brébeuf died after four hours of extreme torture.

Father Anthony Daniel, Gabriel Lalemant, Father Charles Garnier and Father Noel Chabanel were also tortured and killed during this time period.

These eight Jesuit martyrs of North America were canonized in 1930.
