32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Martyrdom of the Maccabees: Jean-Baptiste de Vignaly

The Seven Brothers

The seven brothers who bravely approach their martyrdom in the second book of Maccabees have a better sense of life after death than the Sadducees with their absurd hypothesis about seven deceased brothers. One martyred brother, filled with conviction, declares, “The King of the world will raise us up to live again forever.” Jesus verifies this: “Those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age no longer die; they are like angels.” God is not the God of the dead, “but of the living, for to him all are alive.” And until we reach the place of eternal life, “May our Lord Jesus Christ encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.”

- MAGNIFICAT VOL.24, NO.9

SPIRITUAL WORKS OF MERCY

Since November is dedicated to the Holy Soul's in Purgatory, Star students (K-8th) are being taught the importance of praying for deceased family members throughout this month. Each student was given a prayer card to add one or two names to remind them to recite the given prayer often for him or her. These are being displayed on our main level for students to witness the call for Spiritual Works of Mercy.

*Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen.*

Honoring All Who Served

VETERAN'S DAY ASSEMBLY - NOVEMBER 10th @ 2PM IN CAMERMAN HALL

Please join our school community as we honor all veterans and current service members for their dedication and love for our country. The afternoon will consist of a guest speaker, 8th grade play, and a reception to follow the activities.

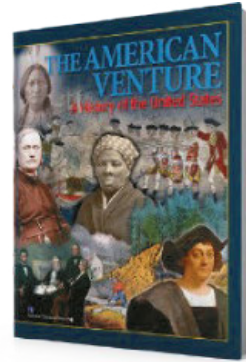

POINTILLISM

First grade students learned about "pointillism" which is a painting technique where small painted dots are used to create areas of color that together form a pattern or picture. Students used magnifying glasses to study images of paintings by Georges Seurat and Camille Pissarro.

After studying Pissarro's 1888 painting "Apple Harvest", students went to work with their brushes and q-tips to create an image of a tree standing in a field.

NEW ARRIVAL!

Sr. Maria Sophia and her Eighth Grade students recently received the newest edition of history books from the Catholic Textbook Project.

Covering the history of the United States from the first settlements to the mid-20th century, this volume integrates the story of the Catholic Church in America together with standard historical themes. This book combines the lavish use of color photos, drawings, and maps with excellent writing, thumbnail biographies, and the lives of saints. Told in a narrative format to engage student interest and invite them into the story of history, this new volume was met with great pleasure by our students.

Our 6th and 7th graders use an alternative version of this wonderful series.

The PARISH FAMILY Hour

Wednesdays

6:00 - 7:30pm in Camerman Hall

Our Parish Family Hour runs at the same time as Faithworks, Fraternus and Fidelis – making it easy for the whole family to be involved!

Starting November 9th we will begin working together through the book:

RAISING CATHOLIC KIDS FOR THEIR VOCATIONS BY JOHN AND CLAIRE GRABOWSKI

The book is a practical guide for parents who want to form their children in the faith.

From the Description:

The mission of every married couple is to generously welcome children as gifts from God...then what?

As any parent knows, raising children is beautiful, exhausting, and often bewildering. And then we have their vocations to think about. It's the job of parents to raise children who are able to cultivate the gift of Faith and really listen to what God is calling them to do with their lives.

As parents, we need to make our homes a community of prayer, of service, and of witness within the larger Body of Christ. Making these regular and ongoing practices within the life of their family is the most effective way for parents to form their children in the faith.

Of course, this is not always easy, that's why Claire and John Grabowski have made this practical guide. This is not high philosophy or deep theology (though it's rooted firmly in Church teaching) but real advice, from real parents who have raised five children.

Please join us in Camerman Hall – Starting Wednesday November 9th at 6pm for some formation and encouragement in raising your kids to be holy!

Mary's Little Tots Shop

LOVE in Action

Call to Action. We need you! ♥

Our ministry is currently experiencing a shortage of volunteers to meet our growing demand.

Mary's Little Tots Shop provides donated items to babies, children and moms.

If you're the kind of person who wants to help support children, this ministry is for you. Their parents have given them the gift of life. Our mission is to help those precious lives to not only survive, but thrive. With your help, we are making a big impact in our community serving struggling, single parents and our parishioner families. The need is real! Please join us to continue God's work. We are his instruments called to serve.

Can you spare a couple hours a month to help us fulfill this mission?

Lives of the Saints

SAINT LEO THE GREAT

Feast Day: November 10

With apparent strong conviction of the importance of the Bishop of Rome in the Church, and of the Church as the ongoing sign of Christ's presence in the world, Leo the Great displayed endless dedication as pope. Elected in 440, he worked tirelessly as "Peter's successor," guiding his fellow bishops as "equals in the episcopacy and infirmities."

Leo is known as one of the best administrative popes of the ancient Church. His work branched into four main areas, indicative of his notion of the pope's total responsibility for the flock of Christ. He worked at length to control the heresies of Pelagianism—overemphasizing human freedom, and Manichaeism—seeing everything material as evil—and others, placing demands on their followers so as to secure true Christian beliefs.

A second major area of his concern was doctrinal controversy in the Church in the East, to which he responded with a classic letter setting down the Church's teaching on the two natures of Christ. With strong faith, he also led the defense of Rome against barbarian attack, taking the role of peacemaker.

In these three areas, Leo's work has been highly regarded. His growth to sainthood has its basis in the spiritual depth with which he approached the pastoral care of his people, which was the fourth focus of his work. He is known for his spiritually profound sermons. An instrument of the call to holiness, well-versed in Scripture and ecclesiastical awareness, Leo had the ability to reach the everyday needs and interests of his people. One of his sermons is used in the Office of Readings on Christmas.

It is said of Leo that his true significance rests in his doctrinal insistence on the mysteries of Christ and the Church and in the supernatural charisms of the spiritual life given to humanity in Christ and in his Body, the Church. Thus Leo held firmly that everything he did and said as pope for the administration of the Church represented Christ, the head of the Mystical Body, and Saint Peter, in whose place Leo acted.
