NOVEMBER 13, 2022

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Vale of Tears: Gustave Dore

Not a hair on your head will perish

The terrible persecutions that Christ tells us his followers should expect will lead to one great thing: “to your giving testimony.” The ability to speak a word of wisdom that we do not prepare beforehand—that Jesus himself will give us and that leaves our adversaries powerless to resist—is an irrefutable sign of the authority and majesty of Christ. “The day is coming when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble.” The words of wisdom of Jesus are what turn the wicked to stubble. But for those who fear God’s name, “there will arise a sun of justice with its healing rays.” Christ calls us to be confident in his provident care of us: “Not a hair on your head will be destroyed.”

- MAGNIFICAT VOL.24, NO.9

Mary's Little Tots Shop

LOVE in Action

Call to Action. We need you! ♥

Our ministry is currently experiencing a shortage of volunteers to meet our growing demand.

Mary's Little Tots Shop provides donated items to babies, children and moms.

If you're the kind of person who wants to help support children, this ministry is for you. Their parents have given them the gift of life. Our mission is to help those precious lives to not only survive, but thrive. With your help, we are making a big impact in our community serving struggling, single parents and our parishioner families. The need is real! Please join us to continue God's work. We are his instruments called to serve. Can you spare a couple hours a month to help us fulfill this mission?

Thanks to all our parents and students for making our Saints' Museum a wonderful annual event for both school and parish communities to enjoy. Father Lappe's interview of each grade-level saint during the Mass is always informative and memorable.

CATHOLIC LIBERAL ARTS IN ACTION

After studying the Rule of St. Benedict and its impact on medieval Christendom, the 7th grade literature class studied the intricate steps of parchment making and book binding in the Middle Ages. As a closing project, they used watercolors to paint an illuminated manuscript page highlighting excerpts from the Rule that personally spoke to them.

DOMINICAN SISTERS OF Saint Cecilia

Founded in 1860—Nashville

OLSOS was blessed to have Mother Anna Grace, Prioress General, and Sister John Mary, Director of Education, on campus recently visiting classrooms and spending time with our current four Sisters. The school looks forward to their visit every three years and the wonderful support they provide us all.

OLSOS SERVICE PROJECT

Star parents delivered Thanksgiving Baskets to St. Vincent de Paul this past week. For years, this has been a tradition for each grade to provide a Thanksgiving meal and more to a selected family.

We are grateful to all parents and students for making this collection a success and fulfilling the call for Corporal Works of Mercy.

CHRISTMAS GIFT DRIVE

Once again our Star Seniors group is sponsoring a parish-wide Christmas project for residents of local Nursing Homes. In addition to bringing Catholic residents Holy Communion every Sunday, we want to bring all the residents a little touch of Christmas. This will be our fifth year of adopting a care facility, and it has become one of our favorite things to do.

We will be collecting new items in the gym after morning Masses on Nov. 26/27 and Dec. 3/4. You can also drop gifts off at the parish office, making sure to mark the item(s) 'STAR SENIORS'. A few of our senior elves will help gift wrap your donations before delivery.

SOME GIFT IDEAS:

knitted hats, gloves, lap robes, colorful scarves, stationery and pens, toiletries, all occasion greeting cards and stamps, calendars, books, magazines, simple (but not child's) puzzles, and a visitor's login book with a place for comments.

Cash donations are welcome too, and we'll do the shopping for you! If you'd prefer to shop for specific items for a special person, you can pick up their "wish list" at our vestibule table.

If you want more ideas, have a suggestion or a question, call Kathy at the office or Diane at 360-620-4810.

The PARISH FAMILY Hour

Wednesdays

6:00 - 7:30pm in Camerman Hall

Our Parish Family Hour runs at the same time as Faithworks, Fraternus and Fidelis – making it easy for the whole family to be involved!

Starting November 9th we will begin working together through the book:

RAISING CATHOLIC KIDS FOR THEIR VOCATIONS BY JOHN AND CLAIRE GRABOWSKI

The book is a practical guide for parents who want to form their children in the faith.

From the Description:

The mission of every married couple is to generously welcome children as gifts from God...then what?

As any parent knows, raising children is beautiful, exhausting, and often bewildering. And then we have their vocations to think about. It's the job of parents to raise children who are able to cultivate the gift of Faith and really listen to what God is calling them to do with their lives.

As parents, we need to make our homes a community of prayer, of service, and of witness within the larger Body of Christ. Making these regular and ongoing practices within the life of their family is the most effective way for parents to form their children in the faith.

Of course, this is not always easy, that's why Claire and John Grabowski have made this practical guide. This is not high philosophy or deep theology (though it's rooted firmly in Church teaching) but real advice, from real parents who have raised five children.

Please join us in Camerman Hall – Starting Wednesday November 9th at 6pm for some formation and encouragement in raising your kids to be holy!

Lives of the Saints

SAINT ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY

Feast Day: November 17

In her short life, Elizabeth manifested such great love for the poor and suffering that she has become the patroness of Catholic charities and of the Secular Franciscan Order. The daughter of the King of Hungary, Elizabeth chose a life of penance and asceticism when a life of leisure and luxury could easily have been hers. This choice endeared her in the hearts of the common people throughout Europe.

When she was just 6 years old, Elizabeth's mother, Gertrude, was murdered. According to history, the murder was carried out by Hungarian noblemen due to the conflict between Germans and the Hungarian nobles. From this point on, Elizabeth's perspective on life and death dramatically changed and she sought peace with prayer.

At the age of 14, Elizabeth was married to Louis of Thuringia, whom she deeply loved. She bore three children. Under the spiritual direction of a Franciscan friar, she led a life of prayer, sacrifice, and service to the poor and sick. Seeking to become one with the poor, she wore simple clothing and chose to live her life mirroring Saint Francis of Assisi. Daily she would take bread to hundreds of the poorest in the land who came to her gate.

One of her greatest known miracles occurred when she was still alive—the miracle of roses. It is said that during one of her many trips delivering bread to the poor in secret, Ludwig met with her and asked her questions to erase everyone's suspicions that she was stealing treasures from the castle. He asked her to reveal the contents under her cloak, and as she did a vision of white and red roses was seen. To Ludwig, this meant God's protection was evident.

After six years of marriage, her husband died in the Crusades, and Elizabeth was grief-stricken. Her husband's family looked upon her as squandering the royal purse, and mistreated her, finally throwing her out of the palace. The return of her husband's allies from the Crusades resulted in her being reinstated, since her son was legal heir to the throne.

In 1228, Elizabeth joined the Secular Franciscan Order, spending the remaining few years of her life caring for the poor in a hospital which she founded in honor of Saint Francis. Elizabeth's health declined, and she died before her 24th birthday in 1231. After her death, miraculous healings began to occur at her graveside near her hospital. The investigations, along with testimony from Elizabeth's companions and the immense popularity surrounding her, provided enough reason for her canonization four years later.
