NOVEMBER 27, 2022 1ST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

The Light of the World: William Holman Hunt

So too, you also must be prepared.

As the first word of Advent, Christ tell us, “Stay awake! You must be prepared.” The unprepared people “in the days of Noah” were distracted by their “eating and drinking,” oblivious to the imminent flood. In what does Advent preparation consist? Putting on the Lord Jesus Christ through faith.

“Encountering Christ, letting (ourselves) be caught up in and guided by his love, enlarges the horizons of existence, gives it a firm hope which will not disappoint. Faith is no refuge for the fainthearted, but something which enhances our lives. It makes us aware of a magnificent calling, the vocation of love... Faith is a lamp that guides our steps in the night and suffices for the journey” (Lumen Fidei, 53) “Let us walk in the light of the Lord!”

OLSOS FACULTY RETREAT

Coming next month, faculty will partake in its annual "Christ in the Classroom" catechetical retreat that allows them to extend the faith within their instruction—whether teaching science or history. Please keep these teachers in your prayers on this day.

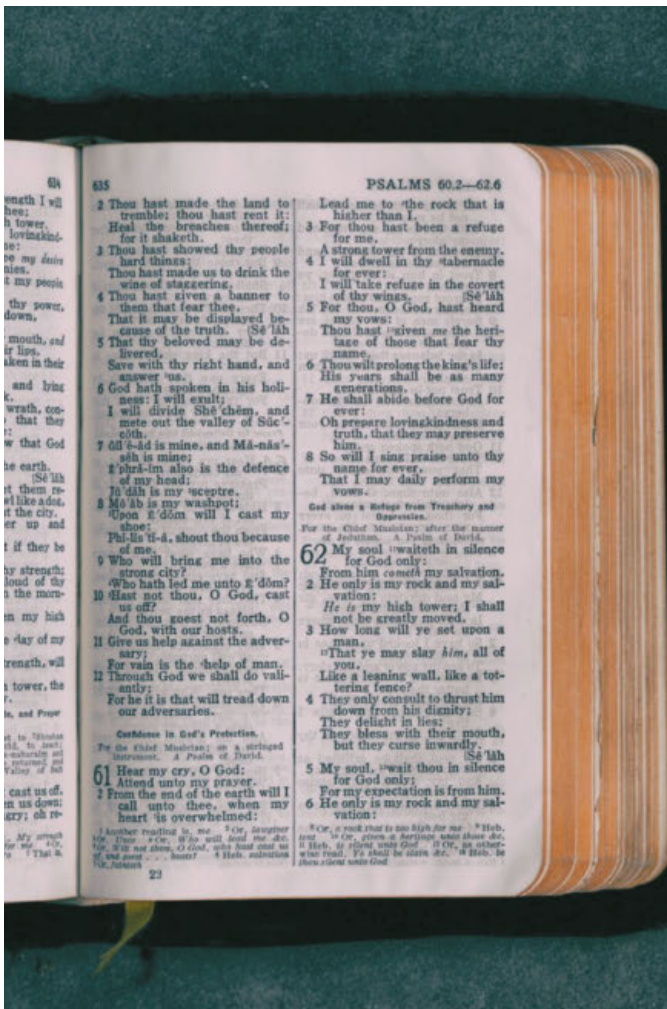

The 4 Ways to Read Scripture Every Catholic Should Know

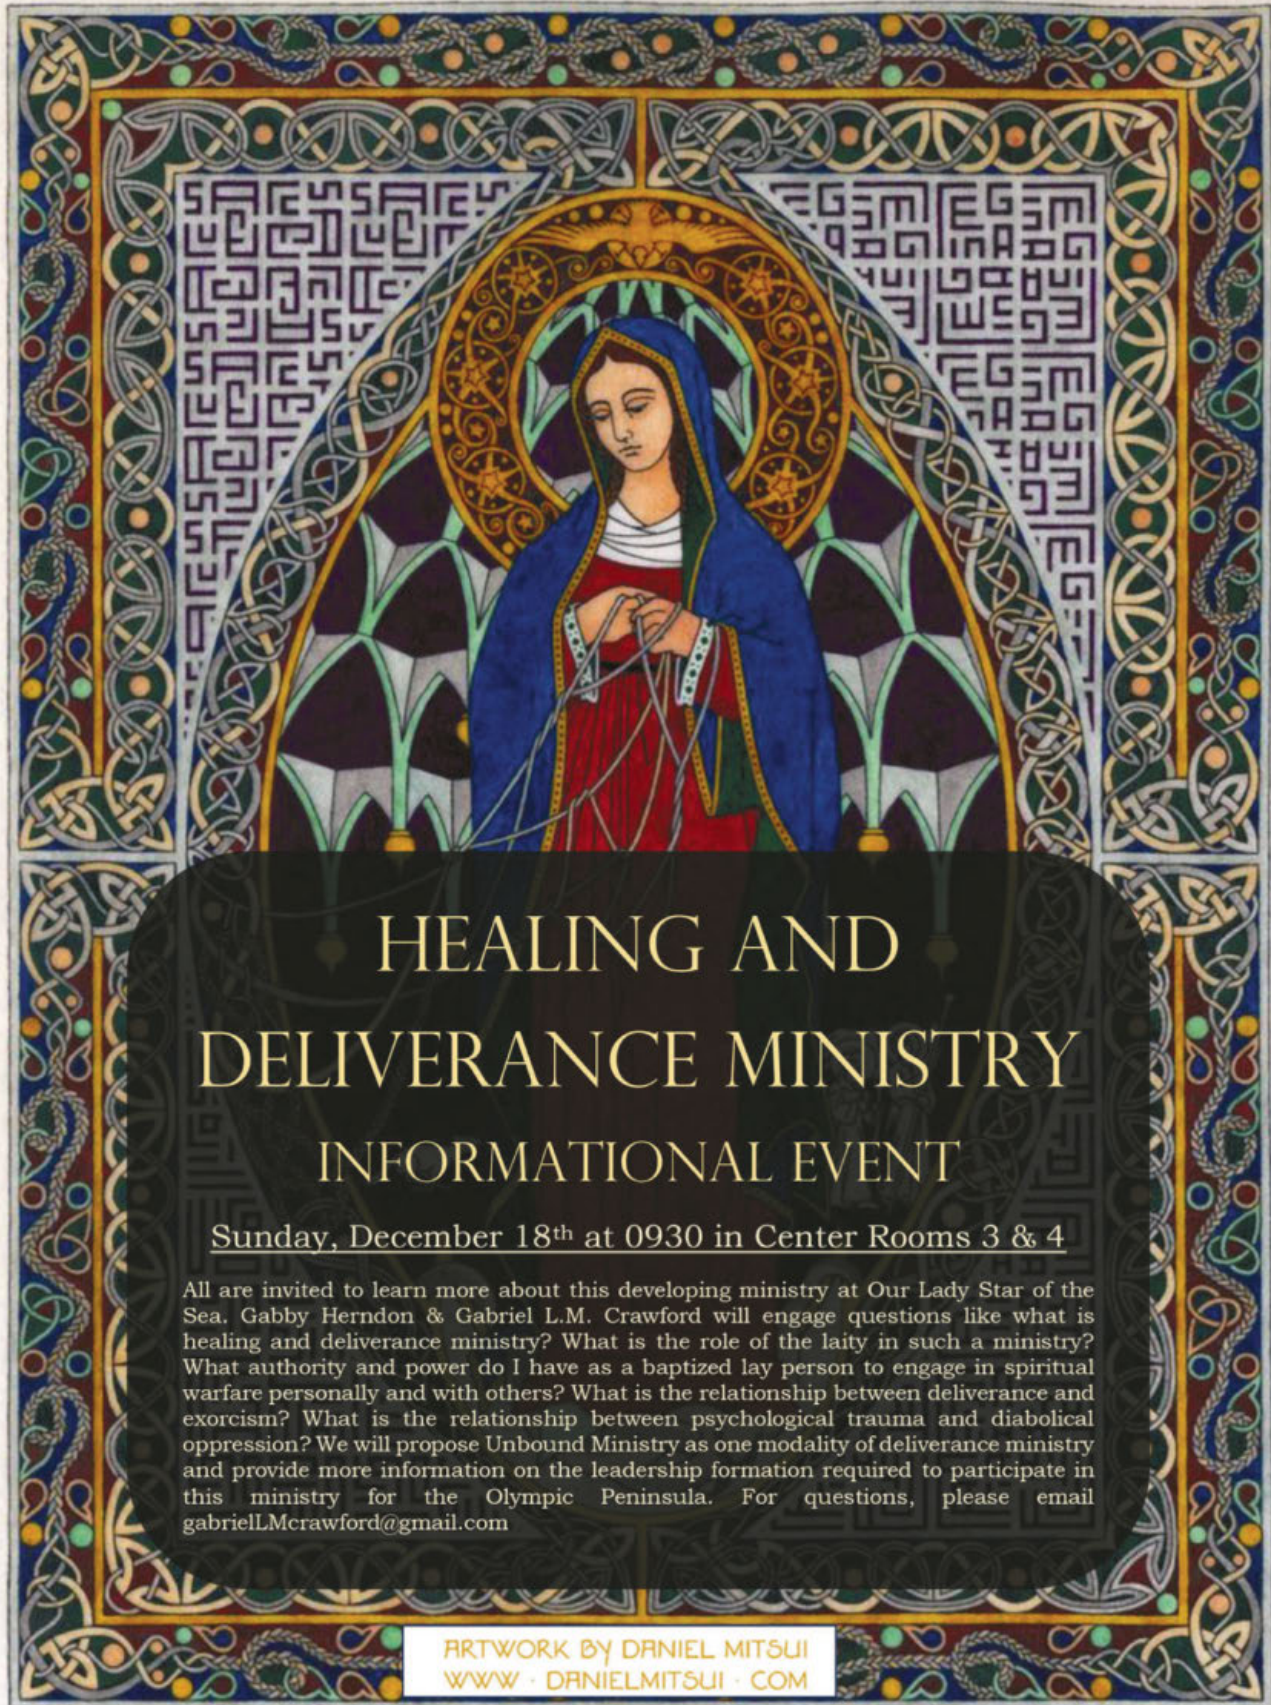

At a recent School Mass, Father Lappe's homily instructed the children on how to interpret scripture by explaining it well enough to reach multiple grade levels. Students are still being reminded of this homily and practicing these four ways in their religion classrooms. OLSOS students are blessed to have a shepherd who guides them so well.

HEALING AND DELIVERANCE MINISTRY INFORMATIONAL EVENT

Sunday, December 18th at 0930 in Center Rooms 3 & 4

All are invited to learn more about this developing ministry at Our Lady Star of the Sea. Gabby Herndon & Gabriel L.M. Crawford will engage questions like what is healing and deliverance ministry? What is the role of the laity in such a ministry? What authority and power do I have as a baptized lay person to engage in spiritual warfare personally and with others? What is the relationship between deliverance and exorcism? What is the relationship between psychological trauma and diabolical oppression? We will propose Unbound Ministry as one modality of deliverance ministry and provide more information on the leadership formation required to participate in this ministry for the Olympic Peninsula. For questions, please email gabriellmcford@gmail.com

Lives of the Saints

SAINT ANDREW

Feast Day: November 30

Andrew was Saint Peter's brother, and was called with him. In the Gospel of Matthew Chapter 4, we read "As [Jesus] was walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is now called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, 'Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.' At once they left their nets and followed him".

John the Evangelist presents Andrew as a disciple of John the Baptist. When Jesus walked by one day, John said, "Behold, the Lamb of God." Andrew and another disciple followed Jesus. "Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?' They said to him, 'Rabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are you staying?' He said to them, 'Come, and you will see.' So they went and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day" (John 1:38-39a).

Little else is said about Andrew in the Gospels. Before the multiplication of the loaves, it was Andrew who spoke up about the boy who had the barley loaves and fishes. When the Gentiles went to see Jesus, they came to Philip, but Philip then had recourse to Andrew.

Legend has it that Andrew preached the Good News in what is now modern Greece and Turkey and was crucified at Patras on an X-shaped cross or a "saltire." Today this is commonly referred to as "St. Andrew's Cross." It is believed Andrew requested to be crucified this way, because he deemed himself unworthy to be crucified on the same type of cross as Jesus.

Andrew's remains were originally preserved at Patras. However, some believe St. Regulus, who was a monk at Patras, received a vision telling him to hide some of Andrew's bones. Shortly after Regulus' dream, many of Andrew's relics were transferred to Constantinople by order of Roman emperor Constantius II around 357. Regulus later received orders in a second dream telling him to take the bones "to the ends of the earth." He was to build a shrine for them wherever he shipwrecked. He landed on the coast of Fife, Scotland.

In September 1964, Pope Paul VI had all of St. Andrew's relics that ended up in Vatican City sent back to Patras. Now, many of Andrew's relics and the cross on which he was martyred are kept in the Church of St. Andrew in Patras.
