JANUARY 15, 2023
2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Sacrifice a lamb without blemish” commanded Moses “and sprinkle its blood on your doors”. If we were to ask him what he meant, and how the blood of an irrational beast could possibly save men endowed with reason, his answer would be that the saving power lies not in the blood itself, but in the fact that it is a sign of the Lord’s blood. In those days, when the destroying angel saw the blood on the doors he did not dare to enter, so how much less will the devil approach now when he sees, not that figurative blood on the doors, but the true blood on the lips of believers, the doors of the temple of Christ...

The gospel records that when Christ was dead, but still hung on the cross, a soldier came and pierced his side with a lance and immediately there poured out water and blood. Now the water was a symbol of baptism and the blood, of the holy eucharist. The soldier pierced the Lord’s side, he breached the wall of the sacred temple, and I have found the treasure and made it my own. So also with the lamb: the Jews sacrificed the victim and I have been saved by it.

-ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

John 1:29

Teacher Highlight

Dr. Lucy Clemen converted 30 years ago and still loves learning more about the Catholic faith. She earned her PhD in Physics from the University of Pittsburgh in 1994. After completing two postdoctoral positions, she happily became a stay-at-home mom. When her youngest was in kindergarten, she took a position teaching physics at Olympic College where she remained for 10 years. Since coming to Star, she has volunteered as a teacher for Adult Education, RCIA, Bible Study, Marriage Prep, and Teen Confirmation; she has also been a daily Mass sacristan and a homebound minister. All four of her kids attended OLSOS and as a school parent, she volunteered in the library, taught art and music, and was Parents' Club President and Auction Chair. Her family ran the religious goods store for several years. Dr. Clemen has always loved teaching and is excited to have her dream job – teaching middle school science at a Classical Catholic school.

Lives of the Saints

SAINT SEBASTIAN

Feast Day: January 20

Almost nothing is historically certain about Sebastian except that he was a Roman martyr, was venerated in Milan even in the time of Saint Ambrose and was buried on the Appian Way, probably near the present Basilica of St. Sebastian. Devotion to him spread rapidly, and he is mentioned in several martyrologies as early as 350.

The legend of Saint Sebastian is important in art, and there is a vast iconography. Scholars now agree that a pious fable has Sebastian entering the Roman army because only there could he assist the martyrs without arousing suspicion. Finally he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. His body was pierced with arrows, and he was left for dead. But he was found still alive by those who came to bury him. He recovered, but refused to flee.

One day he took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He accosted the emperor, denouncing him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. He was buried on the Appian Way, close to the catacombs that bear his name.
