3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Christ Calling Peter & Andrew: James T. Harwood

The Gaze and the Call of Jesus

Jesus always looks at us with infinite kindness. He watches over us. He never tires of knocking at the door of our hearts. Nor does he tire of waiting for us to open to him, because he loves us. He will take our mortal life into his own divine hands so that he might give us eternal life. He will close our eyes here on earth, that he might open them to the true light. He will always be our consolation and our happiness. He will not allow us to weep like those who have no hope.

The Father looks with a glance that gives. By means of that eternal and infinite gaze, the Father communicated his essence to the divine Word. That gaze is life-giving, since it is the gaze of God himself. Let us ask Jesus to look at us...with this life-giving gaze that produces saints. Let us beg for those divine glances that open the soul to holy expansiveness. And let us allow ourselves to be bathed in those most holy glances that purify, sanctify, unite, and intimately bind the divine heart of our own. Jesus wishes that his eternal gaze at his Father pass on through our souls and our eyes. His is a gaze of purity, tenderness, and adoration. Let us always keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, that we may know him, discern his desires, better understand his teachings, and penetrate into his heart.

JANUARY DEDICATION—HOLY NAME OF JESUS

PRAYER TO THE HOLY NAME

ST. BERNARDINE OF SIENA

Jesus, Name full of glory, grace, love and strength!
You are the refuge of those who repent, our banner of warfare in this life,
the medicine of souls, the comfort of those who mourn,
the delight of those who believe, the light of those who preach the true faith,
the wages of those who toil, the healing of the sick.

To You our devotion aspires;
by You our prayers are received; we delight in contemplating You.

O Name of Jesus,
You are the glory of all the saints for eternity.

Amen.

Saint Bernadine had a special devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus, devising the Greek symbol, IHS, on a blazing sun.

Lives of the Saints

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES

Feast Day: January 24

Francis was destined by his father to be a lawyer and was sent to Padua to study law. After receiving his doctorate, he returned home and, in due time, told his parents he wished to enter the priesthood. His father strongly opposed Francis in this, and only after much patient persuasiveness on the part of the gentle Francis did his father finally consent. Francis was ordained and elected provost of the Diocese of Geneva, then a center for the Calvinists. Francis set out to convert them. By preaching and distributing the little pamphlets he wrote to explain true Catholic doctrine, he had remarkable success. At 35, he became bishop of Geneva. While administering his diocese he continued to preach, hear confessions, and catechize the children. His gentle character was a great asset in winning souls. He practiced his own axiom, "A spoonful of honey attracts more flies than a barrelful of vinegar."

Besides his two well-known books, the Introduction to the Devout Life and A Treatise on the Love of God, he wrote many pamphlets and carried on a vast correspondence. For his writings, he has been named patron of the Catholic Press. His writings, filled with his characteristic gentle spirit, are addressed to lay people. He wants to make them understand that they too are called to be saints. As he wrote in The Introduction to the Devout Life: "It is an error, or rather a heresy, to say devotion is incompatible with the life of a soldier, a tradesman, a prince, or a married woman.... It has happened that many have lost perfection in the desert who had preserved it in the world."
