5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Five of Them Were Wise: Walter Rane

You Are the Light of the World.

It is our nature to seek the Absolute, the meaning and fullness of life. Do not be content with anything less than the highest ideals! You are right to be disappointed with hollow entertainment and passing fads, and with aiming at too little in life. If you have an ardent desire for the Lord, you will steer clear of the mediocrity and conformism so widespread in our society.

You are the light of the world (Mt 5:14). The light which Jesus speaks of in the Gospel is the light of faith, God's free gift, which enlightens the heart and clarifies the mind. That is why the words of Jesus explaining his identity and his mission are so important: I am the light of the world; whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life (John 8:12).

Our personal encounter with Christ bathes life in new light, sets us on the right path, and sends us out to be his witnesses. This new way of looking at the world and at people, leads us more deeply into the mystery of faith, which is not just a collection of theoretical assertions to be accepted and approved by the mind, but an experience to be had, a truth to be lived, the salt and light of all reality (cf. Veritatis Splendor, 88)

-POPE ST. JOHN PAUL II

Light shines through the darkness for the upright.

Psalm 112:4

SAVE THE DATE—May 20-21, 2023

We offer our women's WELCOME retreat twice a year – during fall and spring. If you let it, this program can change your life forever. If you want to be the best person you can be – the best wife, the best mother, the best Catholic, the best individual, then you need to treat yourself to a retreat weekend and make it happen. Are you looking for more holiness in your life? Are you worried that past mistakes, a too busy life, or being too invested in the secular world makes holiness impossible? If so, think again. God wants you to be your best self, and so do we. For more information, or to sign up for the next weekend, please contact Diane:

CAN YOU SAY "PROGYMNASMATA"?

This is a goal of our middle schoolers.

The word progymnasmata is Greek for "preliminary exercises." These exercises were taught in ancient Greece and Rome to educate boys in the art of speech writing. To the ancient Greeks the progymnasmata were foundational for the education of a free citizen, who was expected to participate in the public debate in the assembly. Free men were also expected to make speeches to defend themselves in court. Public speaking was thus held in extremely high regard in ancient Greece, and mastery of language, mastery of speech making, was the thrust of ancient Greek education.

NOVENA TO ST. THOMAS AQUINAS

Staff at OLSOS Catholic School just completed a nine-day novena to St. Thomas Aquinas (feast day- January 28th) as he is recognized as the patron of students and Catholic schools. Teachers met each morning in the school chapel (or at home on days off) petitioning for the same virtues of humility and charity that marked his life.

St. Thomas is very important to Star and all who promote the liberal arts education which seeks to form the intellect and will.

Lives of the Saints

SAINT PAUL MIKI AND COMPANIONS

Feast Day: February 6

In 1597, 26 martyrs of Japan were crucified on a hill, now known as the Holy Mountain, overlooking Nagasaki. Among them were priests, brothers, and laymen, Franciscans, Jesuits, and members of the Secular Franciscan Order; there were catechists, doctors, simple artisans, and servants, old men and innocent children—all united in a common faith and love for Jesus and his Church.

Brother Paul Miki, a Jesuit and a native of Japan, has become the best known among the martyrs of Japan. While hanging upon a cross, Paul Miki preached to the people gathered for the execution: "The sentence of judgment says these men came to Japan from the Philippines, but I did not come from any other country. I am a true Japanese. The only reason for my being killed is that I have taught the doctrine of Christ. I certainly did teach the doctrine of Christ. I thank God it is for this reason I die. I believe that I am telling only the truth before I die. I know you believe me and I want to say to you all once again: Ask Christ to help you to become happy. I obey Christ. After Christ's example I forgive my persecutors. I do not hate them. I ask God to have pity on all, and I hope my blood will fall on my fellow men as a fruitful rain."

When missionaries returned to Japan in the 1860s, at first they found no trace of Christianity. But after establishing themselves they found that thousands of Christians lived around Nagasaki and that they had secretly preserved the faith. Beatified in 1627, the martyrs of Japan were finally canonized in 1862.
