6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus Healing the Blind Man: Brian Jekel

Trust in the Lord

Through Sirach, the Lord says: If you choose you can keep the commandments. If you trust in God, you too shall live. To whichever you choose, fire or water, stretch forth your hand! God's grace enables us to "observe his law and keep it with all our heart." We stretch forth our hand to the fire of the Holy Spirit, to the water of our baptism, letting our Yes mean Yes. Those who refuse to let lust master them, who are quick to reconcile with their brother or sister, and who obey and teach the commandments will enter the kingdom of heaven. God prepares those who love him to be willing to sacrifice their own comfort and pleasure for the sake of perfection. This is the righteousness that "surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees."

-MAGNIFICAT VOL. 24, NO.12

No ear has ever heard, no eye ever seen, any God but you working such deeds for those who wait for Him.

Isaiah 64:3

HISTORY OF THE YOUNG LADIES INSTITUTE

Msgr. Camerman, Christmas 1926

News of good works being accomplished by the Young Ladies' Institute in San Francisco spread to Kitsap County. In 1919, many young women saw a great need to serve the greater community of Kitsap County as World War I had come to an end. Under the guidance of Monsignor Camerman, they formed a new institute which continues today, Camerman #86.

In memory of the Monsignor, every year a donation is made to Our Lady Star of the Sea School.

To find out more about the Young Ladies' Institute, please contact Cindy Large or Mary Anderson, at MbAnderson82@gmail.com

FEBRUARY DEDICATION—THE HOLY FAMILY

Honoring the Holy Family is a major way to restore the family to its truly God-given place.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY FAMILY:

Most loving Jesus, by Your sublime and beautiful virtues of humility, obedience, poverty, modesty, charity, patience, and gentleness, You blessed with peace and happiness the family which You chose on earth. In Your mercy look upon my family. We belong to You, for we have received Your many blessings over many years and we entrust ourselves to Your loving care.

Look upon my family in Your loving kindness, preserve us from danger, give us help in time of need, and grant us the grace to persevere to the end in imitation of Your Holy Family, so that having revered You and loved You faithfully on earth, we may praise You eternally in heaven.

Mary, dearest Mother, to your intercession we have recourse, knowing that your Divine Son will hear your prayers. Glorious patriarch, Saint Joseph, help us by your powerful prayers and offer our prayers to Jesus through Mary's hands. Amen.

The path of a saint is to relinquish, all of our pain, our suffering, our hurt, our idea of healing, our sins, our temptations, and the trials we may have gone through, into the hands of God the Father. How can we do that? How do we choose to let our hearts dwell in the arms of Christ even in the midst of these things?

Join young women on a journey to discovering our call in to submitting ourselves to the will of the Father.

Lives of the Saints

SAINTS CYRIL AND METHODIUS

Feast Day: February 14

Because their father was an officer in a part of Greece inhabited by many Slavs, these two Greek brothers ultimately became missionaries, teachers, and patrons of the Slavic peoples.

When the Duke of Moravia asked the Eastern Emperor Michael for political independence from German rule and ecclesiastical autonomy (having their own clergy and liturgy), Cyril and Methodius undertook the missionary task.

Cyril's first work was to invent an alphabet, still used in some Eastern liturgies. His followers probably formed the Cyrillic alphabet. Together they translated the Gospels, the psalter, Paul's letters and the liturgical books into Slavonic, and composed a Slavonic liturgy, highly irregular then.

That and their free use of the vernacular in preaching led to opposition from the German clergy. The bishop refused to consecrate Slavic bishops and priests, and Cyril was forced to appeal to Rome. On the visit to Rome, he and Methodius had the joy of seeing their new liturgy approved by Pope Adrian II. Cyril, long an invalid, died in Rome 50 days after taking the monastic habit.

Methodius continued mission work for 16 more years. Legend has it that in a feverish period of activity, he translated the whole Bible into Slavonic in eight months. German opposition continued after his death, and the work of the brothers in Moravia was brought to an end and their disciples scattered. Despite expulsions, the spiritual, liturgical, and cultural work of the brothers spread to Bulgaria, Bohemia and southern Poland. Patrons of Moravia, and specially venerated by Catholic Czechs, Slovaks, Croatians, Orthodox Serbians and Bulgarians, Cyril and Methodius are eminently fitted to guard the long-desired unity of East and West. In 1980, Pope John Paul II named them additional co-patrons of Europe.
