7TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

'My hatred of him seemed suddenly to have taken to itself wings' (A Wounded Enemy): Howard Pyle

Love Your Enemies and Pray for those who Persecute You

“In this passage our Lord reaches the culmination of imperative commands that must appear sheer madness or subversive politics to the ears of his contemporaries...(but) the expediency and real possibility of man putting on the mind and habits of God are presented by the Son as if nothing else in the world were more natural, desirable, possible, or necessary... “You must be perfect like God, because such is the nature of the human vocation in God’s mind, and therefore you will be perfect. The One manifesting your deepest identity to you at this moment is, by so doing, communicating to you the power to undergo such a transformation.”

It is crucial, however, that the categorical imperative to love everyone at all times does not come from a blindness that refuses to see the existence of evil in the world. We are not to love others without exception on the grounds that everyone is so good and love-worthy, or especially because we are so good and loving in any spontaneous, natural sense. No: this would be illusory daydreaming of the first order! We are to love without qualification because the Son of the Father has, through the power of his word, made us children of this same Father. It is by the power of God in Christ that we are enabled to love without exception...”

-ERASMO LEVIA-MERIKAKIS

You shall love your neighbor as yourself. I am the Lord.

Leviticus 19:18

FEBRUARY DEDICATION—THE HOLY FAMILY

Honoring the Holy Family is a major way to restore the family to its truly God-given place.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY FAMILY:

Most loving Jesus, by Your sublime and beautiful virtues of humility, obedience, poverty, modesty, charity, patience, and gentleness, You blessed with peace and happiness the family which You chose on earth. In Your mercy look upon my family. We belong to You, for we have received Your many blessings over many years and we entrust ourselves to Your loving care.

Look upon my family in Your loving kindness, preserve us from danger, give us help in time of need, and grant us the grace to persevere to the end in imitation of Your Holy Family, so that having revered You and loved You faithfully on earth, we may praise You eternally in heaven.

Mary, dearest Mother, to your intercession we have recourse, knowing that your Divine Son will hear your prayers. Glorious patriarch, Saint Joseph, help us by your powerful prayers and offer our prayers to Jesus through Mary's hands.

Amen.

The path of a saint is to relinquish, all of our pain, our suffering, our hurt, our idea of healing, our sins, our temptations, and the trials we may have gone through, into the hands of God the Father. How can we do that? How do we choose to let our hearts dwell in the arms of Christ even in the midst of these things?

Join young women on a journey to discovering our call in to submitting ourselves to the will of the Father.

Lives of the Saints

SAINT POLYCARP

Feast Day: February 23

Polycarp, bishop of Smyrna, disciple of Saint John the Apostle and friend of Saint Ignatius of Antioch, was a revered Christian leader during the first half of the second century.

Saint Ignatius, on his way to Rome to be martyred, visited Polycarp at Smyrna, and later at Troas wrote him a personal letter. The Asia Minor Churches recognized Polycarp's leadership by choosing him as a representative to discuss with Pope Anicetus the date of the Easter celebration in Rome—a major controversy in the early Church.

Only one of the many letters written by Polycarp has been preserved, the one he wrote to the Church of Philippi in Macedonia.

At 86, Polycarp was led into the crowded Smyrna stadium to be burned alive. The flames did not harm him and he was finally killed by a dagger. The centurion ordered the saint's body burned. The "Acts" of Polycarp's martyrdom are the earliest preserved, fully reliable account of a Christian martyr's death. He died in 155.
