1ST SUNDAY OF LENT

The Temptation in the Wilderness: Briton Rivière

Conquering the Tempter

“O the incomparable endurance of the Lord and the example of admirable humility! The Lord endures temptation from the devil, he who a long time ago in the desert struck those who test him with the deadly bites of serpents. Likewise, the one who fasted for us in the desert and who grew hungry is he who a long time ago over a period of 40 years refreshed with heavenly food his own hungering people in the wilderness. And though God cannot become hungry according to the incorruptible and blessed eternal nature, nevertheless for the sake of our salvation, in accordance with his taking on a body, he deems it fitting in both to be tempted and to grow hungry, in order to demonstrate in himself the reality of the flesh he assumed. Therefore the devil incites in order to tempt, and the Lord follows in order to conquer...”

The Lord has given especially to us an example of combat and conquest against the adversary. For in the fact that the Lord allowed himself to be tempted by the enemy after his baptism and his fast, it is shown that the tempter approaches each one of us immediately...in order to turn us aside from our religious resolution...But the Lord has shown us how we ought to conquer temptation of this sort, that is, how not to comply with his desire. We should immediately set forth examples for ourselves from the divine law in opposition to the temptation, so that we would always desire to be satiated instead by the food of the divine word, overcoming the hunger of the body and the desires of the flesh. For this is what the Lord answered to the devil when he said, “It is written, not by bread alone does man live, but by every word of God...”

-ST. CHROMATIUS OF AQUILEIA

*A clean heart create for me, O
God, and a steadfast spirit renew within me.*

Psalm 51:10

PRAYER REQUESTS

CATHOLIC LIBERAL ARTS IN ACTION

During Danny Flynn's recent visit, he shared questioning of his middle-schoolers about what they had learned this year. He was seeking real life lessons versus academic concepts. In the same fashion, Mrs. Tina Powell asked our Star of the Sea middle-schoolers these questions during lunch, and the following responses were given:

- Don't be a follower
- Don't see the glass half empty
- Don't bite off more than you can chew
- Speak loud and clear to be understood
- Stand up for yourself, but others first
- With great power, comes great responsibility
- Grow in virtue for God calls you to do so
- Don't let anger control you
- You get out what you put in
- Don't hold grudges
- If you aren't involved, don't get involved
- Grow from your mistakes
- Early is on-time, on-time is late, and late is unacceptable

~ FEED THEM ~

MIND, BODY, AND SPIRIT

When we started Mary's Place nine years ago, we knew we needed to feed those in need in more than just a physical sense. We wanted to feed them in every way possible. With some, filling their stomachs is all they want or will accept - with others, they're open to more. Our Mary's Place volunteers meet each person where they're at and go from there. This has been an incredible ministry from the beginning, as our parish embraced wholeheartedly the call to be our brother's keeper. We have been blessed to have more than enough funds to provide healthy and satisfying meals to the community the entire time. If we encounter someone in need, we will feed them, for that is our mission.

We now have an urgent call from Fr. Justus to provide food for those in his care – children, quite a few.

He has asked if we could feed them for two months, which will bring them to the end of their school term. The cost to Mary's Place would be $15,000 to fill their stomachs. It is only with a full stomach that Father can then feed their mind and spirit. If we did this, it would not take anything away from the nutritious meals we serve and will continue to serve in Camerman Hall. It would be taken only from our excess, not our substance. Mary's Place will be answering this call, and we wanted our parish family to know we will be feeding Father Justus' children.

We sincerely appreciate whatever donation you have made or are making now. Whether it be financial donations, prayers, and/or volunteering, thank you again and again. Mary's Place is always accepting donations for our on-site Monday night dinners. If you want to make a donation directly to Fr. Justus, please indicate that, and we will forward them to him.

ARE YOU GRIEVING THE LOSS OF A LOVED ONE?

You don't have to do this alone.

We offer a Grief Support Group, with a new session beginning Tuesday, March 21, from 10:00 to 11:30am in the Parish Center. The group meets for 10 monthly sessions, the third Tuesday each month.

To find out if the group is a good fit for you, contact Kathy at the parish office:
(360) 627-8916 | kathy@starofthesea.net.

The group is offered free of charge, but you'll need to pre-register so we'll supply enough materials for everyone.

Lives of the Saints

SAINT KATHARINE DREXEL

Feast Day: March 3

Born in Philadelphia in 1858, Katharine Drexel had an excellent education and traveled widely. With her family's wealth, her mother opened their home to the poor three days each week and her father spent half an hour each evening in prayer. But when she nursed her stepmother through a three-year terminal illness, she saw that all the Drexel money could not buy safety from pain or death, and her life took a profound turn.

Katharine had always been interested in the plight of the Indians and when she met Pope Leo XIII and asked him to send more missionaries to Wyoming for her friend Bishop James O'Connor. The pope replied, "Why don't you become a missionary?" His answer shocked her into considering new possibilities.

Back home, Katharine visited the Dakotas, met the Sioux leader Red Cloud and began her systematic aid to Indian missions. After much discussion with Bishop

O'Connor, she wrote in 1889, "The feast of Saint Joseph brought me the grace to give the remainder of my life to the Indians and the Colored." Newspaper headlines screamed "Gives Up Seven Million!"

After three and a half years of training, Mother Drexel and her first band of nuns—Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament for Indians and Colored—opened a boarding school in Santa Fe. A string of foundations followed. By 1942, she had a system of black Catholic schools in 13 states, plus 40 mission centers and 23 rural schools. Segregationists harassed her work, even burning a school in Pennsylvania. In all, she established 50 missions for Indians in 16 states.

Her crowning achievement was the founding of Xavier University in New Orleans, the first Catholic university in the United States for African Americans.

At 77, Mother Drexel suffered a heart attack and was forced to retire. She spent almost 20 years of quiet, intense prayer from a small room overlooking the sanctuary. Small notebooks and slips of paper record her various prayers, ceaseless aspirations, and meditations. She died at 96 and was canonized in 2000.
