APRIL 23, 2023
3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Road to Emmaus: Daniel Bonnell

“THESE THINGS I HAVE SPOKEN TO YOU, THAT MY JOY MAY BE IN YOU, AND THAT YOUR JOY MAY BE FULL”

The disciples on the road to Emmaus hear the Scriptures interpreted in a way that had never occurred to them before. It causes their hearts to burn within them; it is what they have been waiting to hear all their lives. It moves them to beg Jesus, “Stay with us”. Our hearts burn as we hear Peter interpret Psalm 16 with the same striking authority. The words that speak of Christ’s Resurrection—“You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence” - have totally revived Peter’s own life. The Eucharist is the enduring proof that we have been “ransomed from all our futile conduct by the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb.”

-MAGNIFICAT VOL. 25, NO. 1

*I set the Lord ever before me;
with him at my right hand
I shall not be disturbed.*

PSALM 16:8

SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS—APRIL 2023

The Vital Need for Beauty in Our Schools

"This world in which we live needs beauty in order not to sink into despair. Beauty, like truth, brings joy to the human heart, and is that precious fruit which resists the erosion of time, which unites generations and enables them to be one in admiration. And all this through the work of your hands...Remember that you are the custodians of beauty in the world."

- POPE PAUL VI

LIBERAL ARTS IN ACTION—6TH GRADE STUDIES ANCIENT HISTORY

MUSIC

Because 6th grade is the year dedicated to ancient history, students learned a Jewish hymn called Hine Ma Tov to gain an understanding of an ancient culture still alive today. They are singing the text (from Psalm 133) in the Hebrew language which translates to "Behold, how good and pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in peace."

LITERATURE

As the 6th graders begin the study of ancient Rome, they are integrating literature class (reading the Aeneid) and Greek and Roman mythology, including Homer's works, and the foundation of Rome from Aeneas to Romulus and the first kings of Rome.

Women's Welcome Retreat

May 20-21, 2023

Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, Bremerton

If you've been wanting a deeper faith and spiritual growth, more connection to your parish family, and just a bit of time for yourself to pray and think about how to enrich your life, then this weekend retreat is for you. You will hear talks by women who have experienced a deep growth in faith and an awareness of how God has been moving their lives. You and other women on the retreat will have an opportunity to experience that same growth and awareness, and you will have the opportunity to continue that journey.

The retreat starts on Saturday morning in Star's Parish Center. You will spend Saturday night at a local hotel and return Sunday for the remainder of the retreat, ending with Mass and a reception afterwards. You won't just recognize some of the other women in the pews, you will know them. This faith-filled weekend will be your opportunity to be your best self.

Lives of the Saints

SAINT FIDELIS OF SIGMARINGEN

Feast Day: April 24

If a poor man needed some clothing, Fidelis would often give the man the clothes right off his back. Complete generosity to others characterized this saint's life. Born in 1577, Mark Rey became a lawyer who constantly upheld the causes of the poor and oppressed people. Nicknamed "the poor man's lawyer," Rey soon grew disgusted with the corruption and injustice he saw among his colleagues. He left his law career to become a priest, joining his brother George as a member of the Capuchin Order. Fidelis was his religious name. His wealth was divided between needy seminarians and the poor.

As a follower of Saint Francis of Assisi, Fidelis continued his devotion to the weak and needy. During a severe epidemic in a city where he was guardian of a friary, Fidelis cared for and cured many sick soldiers.

He was appointed head of a group of Capuchins sent to preach against the Calvinists and Zwinglians in Switzerland. Almost certain violence threatened. Those who observed the mission felt that success was more attributable to the prayer of Fidelis during the night than to his sermons and instructions.

He was accused of opposing the peasants' national aspirations for independence from Austria. While he was preaching at Seewis, to which he had gone against the advice of his friends, a gun was fired at him, but he escaped unharmed. A Protestant offered to shelter Fidelis, but he declined, saying his life was in God's hands. On the road back, he was set upon by a group of armed men and killed.

Fidelis was canonized in 1746. Fifteen years later he was recognized as a martyr.
