4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Christ the Good Shepherd: Bartolomé Esteban Murillo

THE SHEPHERD'S VOICE

Lord, in a mysterious way, what you are saying to us rings true with what we feel within. We know when it is your voice we hear and when it is not.

Thank you for having compared us to sheep as they are so good and docile. You are like a mother who never fails to recognize the innocent child in her son gone astray. You give us courage, because you believe in our goodness. For this we thank you.

Our whole life is an adventure of love. You believe in our love, and we should and want to believe in yours. You lead us, Jesus. You guide those who already know and follow you as well as those who don't yet, but one day will.

Jesus, you are the world's only great leader. No one deserves this title but you, the Good Shepherd who lays down his life for his own. But how conscious of this are we? We can't fathom it completely. Often our eyes are blinded, we are concerned only with matters of this world, and we forget to be thankful to you.

Jesus, you are with us, making us hear your voice. Your voice awakens us: We want to follow you.

- SERVANT OF GOD CHIARA LUBICH

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for years to come.

PSALM 23:6

St. Joseph,

*by the work of your hands and the sweat of your brow, you supported Jesus and Mary, and had the Son of God as your fellow worker.
Teach me to work as you did, with patience and perseverance, for God and for those whom God has given me to support.*

Teach me to see in my fellow workers the Christ who desires to be in them, that I may always be charitable and forbearing towards all. Grant me to look upon work with the eyes of faith, so that I shall recognize in it my share in God's own creative activity and in Christ's work of our redemption, and so take pride in it.

*When it is pleasant and productive, remind me to give thanks to God for it.
And when it is burdensome, teach me to offer it to God, in reparation for my sins and the sins of the world.
O good father St. Joseph!*

Amen.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS—APRIL 2023

OLSOS's 5th-8th graders had the pleasure of observing Tolton: From Slave to Priest in a private school showing. In addition, students were given a study guide and resources to learn more about the first black priest in the United States whose cause for canonization is underway.

A big thank you to Saint Luke Productions who has been inspiring live dramas and media productions for more than 40 years. You can visit their website (StLukeProductions.com) to access their video and audio content for free on various platforms including Formed.org

LIBERAL ARTS IN ACTION—2ND GRADE BOTANY

As a part of a botany unit, the second grade students received mystery plant bulbs which they had to identify using images of common bulbs. The students first rendered the bulbs from all sides in their notebooks. After a close detailed examination, the students identified their bulbs as gladiolus. Over the next several months, the students will plant and record the growth and changes during the life cycle of a gladiolus plant. At the end of the unit, the gladiolus will go home for the families to enjoy in their gardens.

Women's Welcome Retreat

May 20-21, 2023

If you've been wanting a deeper faith and spiritual growth, more connection to your parish family, and just a bit of time for yourself to pray and think about how to enrich your life, then this weekend retreat is for you. You will hear talks by women who have experienced a deep growth in faith and an awareness of how God has been moving their lives. You and other women on the retreat will have an opportunity to experience that same growth and awareness, and you will have the opportunity to continue that journey.

The retreat starts on Saturday morning in Star's Parish Center. You will spend Saturday night at a local hotel and return Sunday for the remainder of the retreat, ending with Mass and a reception afterwards. You won't just recognize some of the other women in the pews, you will know them. This faith-filled weekend will be your opportunity to be your best self.

Lives of the Saints

SAINT JOSEPH THE WORKER

Feast Day: May 1

To foster deep devotion to Saint Joseph among Catholics, and in response to the "May Day" celebrations for workers sponsored by Communists, Pope Pius XII instituted the feast of Saint Joseph the Worker in 1955. This feast extends the long relationship between Joseph and the cause of workers in both Catholic faith and devotion. Beginning in the Book of Genesis, the dignity of human work has long been celebrated as a participation in the creative work of God. By work, humankind both fulfills the command found in Genesis to care for the earth (Gn 2:15) and to be productive in their labors. Saint Joseph, the carpenter and foster father of Jesus, is but one example of the holiness of human labor.

Jesus, too, was a carpenter. He learned the trade from Saint Joseph and spent his early adult years working side-by-side in Joseph's carpentry shop before leaving to pursue his ministry as preacher and healer. In his encyclical Laborem Exercens, Pope John Paul II stated: "the Church considers it her task always to call attention to the dignity and rights of those who work, to condemn situations in which that dignity and those rights are violated, and to help to guide [social] changes so as to ensure authentic progress by man and society."

Saint Joseph is held up as a model of such work. Pius XII emphasized this when he said, "The spirit flows to you and to all men from the heart of the God-man, Savior of the world, but certainly, no worker was ever more completely and profoundly penetrated by it than the foster father of Jesus, who lived with Him in closest intimacy and community of family life and work."
