5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Head of Christ: Rembrandt

I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE

The Lord Jesus has “called us out of darkness into his wonderful light.” We hear him do that very concretely in the Gospel today. He reassures us with these words: “Do not let your hearts be troubled. Have faith in God and faith in me. Where I am you will be. I am the way, the truth, and the life. Whoever believes in me will do the works I do.” This is the Word of God that “continued to spread” so that the number of disciples “increased daily.” And this increase is what the risen Christ continues to offer the Church through the ministry of priests and deacons. “Come to him; let yourselves be built into a spiritual house.”

- MAGNIFICAT VOL.25, NO.3

They chose seven men filled with the Spirit.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS—MAY 2023

Reading Suggestion for Parents

Raising Upright Kids in an Upside-down World by Dr. Ray Guarendi shares Dr. Ray's years of knowledge from decades of clinical practice and his own experience raising ten children.

Parents at Star can request a free copy from the school office and grow in wisdom in their parental skills as well as earn volunteer hours for reading Dr. Guarendi's book.

LIBERAL ARTS IN ACTION—5TH GRADE LITERATURE

At the conclusion of their 5th grade novel study on Farmer Boy by Laura Ingalls Wilder, Sister Amata Christi made the students a home-made batch of the Wilder family's old-fashioned doughnuts as a special treat for St. Joseph's solemnity.

Through the novel, the students enjoyed learning about life in the 1800s, crop and animal science, and the impact of farming on the development of 19th century America.

Lives of the Saints

SAINT DAMIEN DE VEUSTER

Feast Day: May 10

When Joseph de Veuster was born in Tremelo, Belgium, in 1840, few people in Europe had any firsthand knowledge of leprosy, Hansen's disease. By the time he died at the age of 49, people all over the world knew about this disease because of him. They knew that human compassion could soften the ravages of this disease.

Forced to quit school at age 13 to work on the family farm, Joseph entered the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary six years later, taking the name of a fourth-century physician and martyr. When his brother Pamphile, a priest in the same congregation, fell ill and was unable to go to the Hawaiian Islands as assigned, Damien quickly volunteered in his place. In May 1864, two months after arriving in his new mission, Damien was ordained a priest in Honolulu and assigned to the island of Hawaii.

In 1873, he went to the Hawaiian government's leper colony on the island of Moloka'i, set up seven years earlier. Part of a team of four chaplains taking that assignment for three months each year, Damien soon volunteered to remain permanently, caring for the people's physical, medical, and spiritual needs. In time, he became their most effective advocate to obtain promised government support.

Soon the settlement had new houses and a new church, school and orphanage. Morale improved considerably. A few years later, he succeeded in getting the Franciscan Sisters of Syracuse, led by Mother Marianne Cope, to help staff this colony in Kalaupapa.

Damien contracted Hansen's disease and died of its complications. As requested, he was buried in Kalaupapa, but in 1936 the Belgian government succeeded in having his body moved to Belgium. Part of Damien's body was returned to his beloved Hawaiian brothers and sisters after his beatification in 1995. Damien was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI on October 11, 2009.
