SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Christi Himmelfahrt: Gebhard Fugel

HE REMAINS WITH US

On the day of the Ascension...like the Apostles, we remain partly perplexed and partly saddened at his departure. I am moved when I think that, in an excess of love, he has remained with us, even when he has gone away. He has gone to heaven, and at the same time he gives himself to us as our nourishment in the Sacred Host...If we have learned to contemplate the mystery of Christ, if we make an effort to see him clearly, we will realize that now we can come very near Jesus too, in body and soul. We can be with him in the Bread and in the Word, receiving the nourishment of the Eucharist and knowing and fulfilling all that he came to teach us, as we meet and deal with him in our prayer. . .

. . . Christ knew that he had to go away because, in a mysterious way that we cannot fully understand, after the Ascension a new outpouring of God's love would bring the presence of the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity...He sends us the Holy Spirit, who directs and sanctifies our souls. The action of the Paraclete within us confirms what Christ has announced—that we are children of God, that we have not received a spirit of bondage so as to be again in fear, but a spirit of adoption as sons, by virtue of which we cry: Abba! Father! This is the action of the Blessed Trinity in our souls. A Christian always has access to God, who dwells in the innermost part of his being.

- SAINT JOSEMARÍA ESCRIVÁ

Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.

MATTHEW 28:20

PRAYER REQUESTS

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS—MAY 2023

Congrats

Congratulations to all our students who ordered Rice and Beans each Friday during Lent and supported our Sister Parish in Uganda!!!

Together, with the help of our parent
volunteers, we raised funds totaling $1200 to send to Father Justus in Uganda.

LIBERAL ARTS IN ACTION—1ST GRADE NATURE STUDIES

Students in the First Grade have been studying the life cycle of insects and insect characteristics. The class took a field trip to the Bremerton Bug & Reptile Museum. During class, students were able to observe the metamorphosis of caterpillars.

Once the butterflies emerged from their chrysalis, the students were able to release them at the park.

Saint Nicholas of Myra is famous for his love and care for children. During his life there was a widower with three daughters whose family had fallen into poverty. Since the man could not provide dowries for the girls, they were to be sold into slavery. St. Nicholas secretly provided for the dowries of the girls so that they might be married.

A number of people have asked about the possibility of providing tuition for a family in need at the school and so we have set up the St. Nicholas Holy Helper program to give people the opportunity to share in the charitable spirit and good work of Saint Nicholas.

This coming year, Our Lady Star of the Sea School is working to raise money to provide full and partial scholarships for students in need. We currently have 45 children in need of these scholarships.

If you can help, please consider donating the amount indicated on the Giving Levels Chart* to the right.

**The Scholarship levels reflect family discounts the school provides to those who have more than one child attending Star of the Sea School. These amounts are also based on the fact that many families also receive scholarships from the Fulcrum Foundation.*

Lives of the Saints

SAINT PHILIP NERI

Feast Day: May 26

Philip Neri was a sign of contradiction, combining popularity with piety against the background of a corrupt Rome and a disinterested clergy. At an early age, Philip abandoned the chance to become a businessman, moved to Rome from Florence, and devoted his life and individuality to God. After three years of philosophy and theology studies, he gave up any thought of ordination. The next 13 years were spent in a vocation unusual at the time—that of a layperson actively engaged in prayer and the apostolate.

As the Council of Trent (1545-63) was reforming the Church on a doctrinal level, Philip's appealing personality was winning him friends from all levels of society, from beggars to cardinals. He rapidly gathered around himself a group of laypersons won over by his audacious spirituality. Initially, they met as an informal prayer and discussion group, and also served poor people in Rome.

At the urging of his confessor, Philip was ordained a priest and soon became an outstanding confessor himself, gifted with the knack of piercing the pretenses and illusions of others, though always in a charitable manner and often with a joke. He arranged talks, discussions, and prayers for his penitents in a room above the church. He sometimes led "excursions" to other churches, often with music and a picnic on the way.

Some of Philip's followers became priests and lived together in community. This was the beginning of the Oratory, the religious institute he founded. A feature of their life was a daily afternoon service of four informal talks, with vernacular hymns and prayers. Giovanni Palestrina was one of Philip's followers, and composed music for the services. The Oratory was finally approved after suffering through a period of accusations of being an assembly of heretics, where laypersons preached and sang vernacular hymns!

Philip's advice was sought by many of the prominent figures of his day. He is one of the influential figures of the Counter-Reformation, mainly for converting to personal holiness many of the influential people within the Church itself. His characteristic virtues were humility and gaiety. After spending a day hearing confessions and receiving visitors, Philip Neri suffered a hemorrhage and died on the feast of Corpus Christi in 1595. He was beatified in 1615 and canonized in 1622.
