SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

The Holy Trinity: Antonio de Pereda

HOLY TRINITY, WHOM I ADORE

O my God, Trinity whom I adore, let me entirely forget myself that I may abide in you, still and peaceful as if my soul were already in eternity; let nothing disturb my peace nor separate me from you, O my unchanging God, but that each moment may take me further into the depths of your mystery! O my beloved Christ, crucified for love, would that I might be for you a spouse of your heart! I would anoint you with glory, I would love you - even unto death! Yet I sense my frailty and ask you to adorn me with yourself; identify my soul with all the movements of your soul, submerge me, overwhelm me, substitute yourself in me that my life may become but a reflection of your life. Come into me as Adorer, Redeemer and Savior. O Eternal Word, Word of my God, would that I might spend my life listening to you, would that I might be fully receptive to learn all from you; in all darkness, all loneliness, all weakness, may I ever keep my eyes fixed on you and abide under your great light; O my Beloved Star, fascinate me so that I may never be able to leave your radiance. O Consuming Fire, Spirit of Love, descend into my soul and make all in me as an incarnation of the Word, that I may be to him a super-added humanity wherein he renews his mystery; and you O Father, bestow yourself and bend down to your little creature, seeing in her only your beloved Son in whom you are well pleased.

O my 'Three', my All, my Beatitude, infinite Solitude, Immensity in whom I lose myself, I give myself to you as a prey to be consumed; enclose yourself in me that I may be absorbed in you so as to contemplate in your light the abyss of your Splendor!

- SAINT ELIZABETH OF THE TRINITY

Blessed are you, now and through endless ages, O holy Creator and Ruler of all, most blessed and undivided Trinity!

TRADITIONAL ANTIPHON

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

Corpus Christi Procession

ON THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

SUNDAY, JUNE 11

Schedule

- 12:30 PM "Faith Prevails: The Miracle of Bolsena" Film Showing in Camerman Hall.
- 1:30 PM Corpus Christi Procession, begins in the front of church
- 2:30 PM BBQ potluck in Camerman Hall

The Corpus Christi Procession gives the Catholic believer a unique opportunity to proclaim their Eucharistic faith to the world! We believe that Jesus Christ is truly present among us in the Blessed Sacrament, and this procession shares that faith to the world.

Before the procession begins, all are invited to view the showing of "Faith Prevails: The Miracle of Bolsena" in Camerman Hall, a film created by Solenne Santiago.

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT

Altar Society

The Our Lady Star of the Sea Altar Society was founded in 1902 to assist in maintaining the parish altars and church sanctuary. The Altar Society is a fellowship of parishioners that seeks to educate members in spirituality and service. It is also the oldest parish ministry.

Funds are generated by our annual bake sale, occasionally hosting Sunday hospitality, and financial donations by parishioners.

Membership

Membership is open to all women of the parish. Annual dues are $10, but your first year is free. Men may join as associate members. They do not vote, nor do they pay dues, but they are most welcome at our meetings.

Altar Society members are also often involved in other parish ministries.

You can see them attending First Friday Mass as a group, at Young Ladies Institute and Legion of Mary meetings, serving on the funeral lunch committee, volunteering at Mary's Place, counting Sunday collections, volunteering at the St. Vincent de Paul Society, participating in Perpetual Adoration, helping with the Senior Mass and luncheon, and cleaning the church.

Seminarian & Transitional Deacon Aid

The Altar Society “adopts” seminarians and Transitional Deacons by providing letters of support, gifts during their journey to the priesthood and, of course, prayers.

For more information about or to help support the Altar Society, please contact:

Lives of the Saints

SAINT BONIFACE

Feast Day: June 5

Boniface, known as the apostle of the Germans, was an English Benedictine monk who gave up being elected abbot to devote his life to the conversion of the Germanic tribes. Two characteristics stand out: his Christian orthodoxy and his fidelity to the pope of Rome.

How absolutely necessary this orthodoxy and fidelity were is borne out by the conditions Boniface found on his first missionary journey in 719 at the request of Pope Gregory II. Paganism was a way of life. What Christianity he did find had either lapsed into paganism or was mixed with error. The clergy were mainly responsible for these latter conditions since they were in many instances uneducated, lax and questionably obedient to their bishops. In particular instances their very ordinations were questionable.

These are the conditions that Boniface was to report in 722 on his first return visit to Rome. The Holy Father instructed him to reform the German Church. The pope sent letters of recommendation to religious and civil leaders. Boniface would have been unsuccessful, from a human viewpoint, Without a letter of safe-conduct from Charles Martel, the powerful Frankish ruler, grandfather of Charlemagne. Boniface was finally made a regional bishop and authorized to organize the whole German Church. He was eminently successful.

In the Frankish kingdom, he met great problems because of lay interference in bishops' elections, the worldliness of the clergy and lack of papal control. During a final mission to the Frisians, Boniface and 53 companions were massacred while he was preparing converts for confirmation.

In order to restore the Germanic Church to its fidelity to Rome and to convert the pagans, Boniface had been guided by two principles. The first was to restore the obedience of the clergy to their bishops in union with the pope of Rome. The second was the establishment of many houses of prayer which took the form of Benedictine monasteries. A great number of Anglo-Saxon monks and nuns followed him to the continent, where he introduced the Benedictine nuns to the active apostolate of education.
