19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus and Peter on the Water: Gustave Brion

SEEN WITH THE EYES OF FAITH

When the disciples see Jesus walking on the water, he summons them to faith—a way of approaching reality that entails leaving behind our old way of measuring things and learning to see all in the light of the One who calls to us. Yet we should not be surprised that Christ often comes in ways that “underwhelm” us, as Elijah found out in the tiny whispering sound of God’s presence. For Jesus comes to us in simple ways, seen only with eyes of faith: the pouring of water over an infant’s head; a whispered conversation within a confessional; bread and wine consecrated in the middle of the day as the world rushes on. But when such faith takes hold of us, we want everyone to share in it, as Saint Paul testifies.

The Assumption

*Father in heaven,
all creation rightly gives you praise,
for all life and all holiness come from you.
In the plan of your wisdom
she who bore the Christ in her womb was raised body and soul in glory to be with him in heaven.
May we follow her example in reflecting your holiness and join in her hymn of endless love and praise.*

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

HOW IS A CATHOLIC LIBERAL EDUCATION DIFFERENT?

LIFE OF VIRTUE IS PRIORITY

- ◇ Teachers understand that the prime focus of an education is to nurture virtue and wisdom within all subjects to form students to have discerning ears toward what the world presents to them.

TO KNOW HISTORY IS TO KNOW WHO YOU ARE & WHERE YOU ARE GOING

- ◇ Students are heavily steeped in studying all eras of history, discovering man's human nature throughout the ages and God's presence within these times.

GOOD LITERATURE MAKES ALL THE DIFFERENCE

- ◇ Great books are used in hope of diving into the lives, worldviews, and mindsets of people we've never met.
- ◇ Wisdom of great books do not die with their generation but say something about our own age.

REPETITION MAKES LEARNING PERMANENT

- ◇ Teachers require students to rephrase, summarize, and explain the most important concepts in written or oral form using mimetic practices & recitation.

WONDER AND CURIOSITY ARE THE FOREFRONT OF INSTRUCTION

- ◇ Teachers understand that learning should be stimulated and motivated by a student's natural wonder allowing them to discover truths for greater interest and buy-in.

FEWER THINGS ARE LEARNED, BUT LEARNED WELL

- ◇ We believe it is better to master a few things rather than rapidly teach too many concepts to be forgotten.

CALM & JOYFUL LEARNING ENVIRONMENT IS FOSTERED

- ◇ Teachers strive to maintain a classroom atmosphere that is peaceful while encouraging active engagement.
- ◇ Teachers intentionally foster a feeling that learning is not to be dreaded or painful but rather valued and appreciated.

“How can I know what God wants me to do?”
“Where is the Lord leading me?”

Around the Archdiocese of Seattle, discernment groups led by priests are forming for young men to address these questions. Using True Heart from the Sacred Story Institute these young men will be engaging spiritual exercises to help them grow closer to the Lord, consider their vocation more deeply, and grow in openness to following God's will in their lives.

GROUPS ARE FORMING NOW TO START IN SEPTEMBER

Lives of the Saints

ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

Feast Day: August 14

Maximilian entered the minor seminary of the Conventual Franciscans in Lviv—then Poland, now Ukraine—near his birthplace, and at 16 became a novice. Though he later achieved doctorates in philosophy and theology, he was deeply interested in science, even drawing plans for rocket ships.

Ordained at 24, Maximilian saw religious indifference as the deadliest poison of the day. His mission was to combat it. He had already founded the Militia of the Immaculata, whose aim was to fight evil with the witness of the good life, prayer, work, and suffering. He dreamed of and then founded Knight of the Immaculata, a religious magazine under Mary's protection to preach the Good News to all nations. For the work of publication he established a "City of the Immaculata"—Niepokalanow—which housed 700 of his Franciscan brothers. He later founded another one in Nagasaki, Japan. Both the Militia and the magazine ultimately reached the one-million mark in members and subscribers. His love of God was daily filtered through devotion to Mary.

In 1939, the Nazi panzers overran Poland with deadly speed. Niepokalanow was severely bombed. Kolbe and his friars were arrested, then released in less than three months, on the feast of the Immaculate Conception.

In 1941, Fr. Kolbe was arrested again. The Nazis' purpose was to liquidate the select ones, the leaders. The end came quickly, three months later in Auschwitz, after terrible beatings and humiliations.

A prisoner had escaped. The commandant announced that 10 men would die. He relished walking along the ranks. "This one. That one." As they were being marched away to the starvation bunkers, Number 16670 dared to step from the line.

"I would like to take that man's place. He has a wife and children."

"Who are you?"

"A priest."

No name, no mention of fame. Silence. The commandant, dumbfounded, perhaps with a fleeting thought of history, kicked Sergeant Francis Gajowniczek out of line and ordered Fr. Kolbe to go with the nine. In the "block of death" they were ordered to strip naked, and their slow starvation began in darkness. But there was no screaming—the prisoners sang. By the eve of the Assumption, four were left alive. The jailer came to finish Kolbe off as he sat in a corner praying. He lifted his fleshless arm to receive the bite of the hypodermic needle. It was filled with carbolic acid. They burned his body with all the others. Fr. Kolbe was beatified in 1971 and canonized in 1982.
