20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Christ and the Woman of Canaan: Pieter Lastman

O WOMAN, GREAT IS YOUR FAITH!

The Canaanite woman whose daughter was tormented by a devil came to Christ begging his help. Most urgently she cried out: “Lord, have pity on me. My daughter is grievously tormented by a devil.” Notice that the woman was a foreigner, a gentile, a person from outside the Jewish community. What was she then but a dog, unworthy to obtain her request? “It is not fair,” said the Lord, “to take the children’s bread and give it to the dogs.”

Do you see the woman's wisdom, how she did not venture so much as to say a word against it, nor was stung by other men's praises, nor was indignant at the reproach? Do you see her constancy? He said, It is not fair, and she said, Truth, Lord; He called them children, but she masters; He used the name of a dog, but she added also the dog's act. Do you see this woman's humility? Yea, therefore did He put her off, that He might proclaim aloud this saying, that He might crown the woman.... When the disciples entreated him the Lord put them off, but when the woman herself cried out begging for this favor he granted it. And at the beginning, when she first made her request, he did not answer, but after she had come to him a third time, he gave her what she desired. By this he was teaching us that he had withheld the gift not to drive her away, but to make that woman's patience an example for all of us.... So great a thing is assiduity in prayer.

- SAINT JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

BOOK RECOMMENDATION

TIME FOR JESUS?

OLSOS encourages school families to take advantage of these last days of summer by making a visit with Our Lord in Adoration.

Consider taking one child at a time or going as a whole family sitting before the Blessed Sacrament, the source of all love.

To assist and guide your child through Adoration, we recommend this newly released book for children ages 7-12.

“Jesus and Me provides children with eighty prayer options that offer sweet, simple, and reassuring guidance for learning how to pray. It helps them understand how and why they should pray to their divine friend, Jesus.”

St. Nicholas HOLY HELPERS

Saint Nicholas of Myra is famous for his love and care for children. During his life there was a widower with three daughters whose family had fallen into poverty. Since the man could not provide dowries for the girls, they were to be sold into slavery. St. Nicholas secretly provided for the dowries of the girls so that they might be married.

A number of people have asked about the possibility of providing tuition for a family in need at the school and so we have set up the St. Nicholas Holy Helper program to give people the opportunity to share in the charitable spirit and good work of Saint Nicholas.

This coming year, Our Lady Star of the Sea School is working to raise money to provide full and partial scholarships for students in need. We currently have 45 children in need of these scholarships.

If you can help, please consider donating the amount indicated on the Giving Levels Chart* to the right.

MARY'S CALL TO ACTION

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: Are you willing to serve families and children in need? Can you give just 3 hours of your time once a month? If you are an OLSOS school parent, you can volunteer here too. We are in need of more volunteers to help our ministry.

Do you speak Spanish? Please consider joining us. Many of our families don't speak English. We need you!

DONATIONS NEEDED: Fall is coming fast and warm wear is needed for babies and children heading back to school. Coats of all sizes are greatly appreciated. Please note, we have a TON of 0-24 month old clothing, as well as sleepwear for all sizes. What we need are gently used or new clothing for both boys and girls ages 3-6 years old.

Are you looking for a new home for that highchair, stroller, baby bassinet or playpen? If its in good shape, we'll pass that along to a family who could use it.

How about clearing out some toys that aren't getting played with and passing them along for another child to enjoy? Our toy and book supply is getting low. Get your children involved. This is a great opportunity for your kids to learn about the virtue of charity and sharing with others less fortunate.

NEW HOURS OF OPERATION: Beginning Sept. 12th we will be open every second and fourth Tuesday of the month from 10:00-12:00. We look forward to serving you!

“How do I pray?”
“How can I know what God wants me to do?”
“Where is the Lord leading me?”

Around the Archdiocese of Seattle, discernment groups led by priests are forming for young men to address these questions. Using True Heart from the Sacred Story Institute these young men will be engaging spiritual exercises to help them grow closer to the Lord, consider their vocation more deeply, and grow in openness to following God's will in their lives.

GROUPS ARE FORMING NOW TO START IN SEPTEMBER

WHICH PATH WILL YOU TAKE?

Lives of the Saints

ST. ROSE OF LIMA

Feast Day: August 23

The first canonized saint of the New World has one characteristic of all saints—the suffering of opposition—and another characteristic which is more for admiration than for imitation—excessive practice of mortification.

She was born to parents of Spanish descent in Lima, Peru, at a time when South America was in its first century of evangelization. She seems to have taken Catherine of Siena as a model, in spite of the objections and ridicule of parents and friends.

The saints have so great a love of God that what seems bizarre to us, and is indeed sometimes imprudent, is simply a logical carrying out of a conviction that anything that might endanger a loving relationship with God must be rooted out. So, because her beauty was so often admired, Rose used to rub her face with pepper to produce disfiguring blotches. Later, she wore a thick circlet of silver on her head, studded on the inside, like a crown of thorns.

When her parents fell into financial trouble, she worked in the garden all day and sewed at night. Ten years of struggle against her parents began when they tried to make Rose marry. They refused to let her enter a convent, and out of obedience she continued her life of penance and solitude at home as a member of the Third Order of Saint Dominic. So deep was her desire to live the life of Christ that she spent most of her time at home in solitude.

During the last few years of her life, Rose set up a room in the house where she cared for homeless children, the elderly, and the sick. This was a beginning of social services in Peru. Though secluded in life and activity, she was brought to the attention of Inquisition interrogators, who could only say that she was influenced by grace.

What might have been a merely eccentric life was transfigured from the inside. If we remember some unusual penances, we should also remember the greatest thing about Rose: a love of God so ardent that it withstood ridicule from without, violent temptation, and lengthy periods of sickness. When she died at 31, the city turned out for her funeral. Prominent men took turns carrying her coffin.
