22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Carrying of the Cross: Jusepe de Ribera

THE DUTY OF SELF-DENIAL

Self-denial of some kind or other is involved, as is evident, in the very notion of renewal and holy obedience. To change our hearts is to learn to love things which we do not naturally love—to unlearn the love of this world; but this involves, of course, a thwarting of our natural wishes and tastes. To be righteous and obedient implies self-command; but to possess power we must have gained it; nor can we gain it without a vigorous struggle, a persevering warfare against ourselves....Far be it from us, soldiers of Christ, thus to perplex ourselves with this world, who are making our way towards the world to come. "No soldier on service gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to satisfy the one who enlisted him. An athlete is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules." This is St. Paul's rule...he bears witness of himself that he "died daily." Day by day he got more and more dead to this world; he had fewer ties to earth, a larger treasure in heaven. Nor let us think that it is too difficult to imitate him, though we be not Apostles, nor are called to any extraordinary work, nor are enriched with any miraculous gifts: he would have all men like himself, and all may be like him, according to their place and measure of grace. If we would be followers of the great Apostle, first let us with him fix our eyes upon Christ our Saviour; consider the splendor and glory of His holiness, and try to love it. Let us strive and pray that the love of holiness may be created within our hearts; and then acts will follow, such as befit us and our circumstances, in due time, without our distressing ourselves to find what they should be.

- ST. JOHN HENRY NEWMAN

*Do not conform yourselves to this age
but be transformed by the renewal of your mind*

ROMANS 12:2

INVITATION TO JOIN THE ALTAR SOCIETY

Our Lady Star of the Sea Altar Society, Star's longest running parish ministry, is open to all women in the parish. Men are welcome to attend as auxiliary members.

You are cordially invited to our next meeting on September 7 at 11:30am in Rooms 1 and 2 of the Parish Center.

We start with the rosary, eat a sack lunch each of us brings, have dessert provided by our monthly hostesses, and move on to our meeting. The Altar Society, as its name implies, provides funds twice a year for liturgical items needed for our various parish altars. We also donate to St. Vincent de Paul on Christmas and Easter, and we sponsor seminarians and temporary deacons on their way to the priesthood by providing gift cards, socks and similar items, cards, stamps, etc. Do yourself a favor - meet your parish sisters and enjoy fellowship and friendship.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

TEACHER FEATURE

Meet our new 3rd Grade Teacher, Sr. Mary Imelda

SISTER MARY IMELDA OHOTNICKY, OP was born in Texas. Her dad served in the Air Force for her entire childhood, so she lived in 6 states and 9 houses before going off to college. Sister is the oldest of 7 children, one of whom is her twin sister, and her parents now live in South Bend, Indiana. While discerning a call to religious life, she studied at Benedictine College in Kansas and subsequently entered the Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia in 2015. She earned a degree in Interdisciplinary Studies: Elementary Education from Aquinas College in Nashville, and was most recently teaching 2nd grade in Denver, Colorado before coming to OLSOS to be the new 3rd grade teacher.

NEW TEEN PROGRAM:

Discipleship Groups

For Youth Grades 9-12

The aim of discipleship groups is to build a Christ centered community in order to encourage each other on our journeys, to challenge each other to be saints, and to have fun while doing it.

HOW IT WORKS:

Teens will be split into small groups comprised of a maximum of eight people led by an adult. The groups will be having deeper conversations about the faith as well as building fellowship with each other and having fun. The discipleship groups will meet with each other on a regular basis (weekly or bi-weekly) with bigger monthly events that are open to all the discipleship groups plus anyone else who would like to attend.

Lives of the Saints

ST. PETER CLAVER

Feast Day: September 9

A native of Spain, young Jesuit Peter Claver left his homeland forever in 1610 to be a missionary in the colonies of the New World. He sailed into Cartagena, a rich port city washed by the Caribbean. He was ordained there in 1615.

By this time the slave trade had been established in the Americas for nearly 100 years, and Cartagena was a chief center for it. Ten thousand slaves poured into the port each year after crossing the Atlantic from West Africa under conditions so foul and inhuman that an estimated one-third of the passengers died in transit. Although the practice of slave-trading was condemned by Pope Paul III and later labeled "supreme villainy" by Pope Pius IX, it continued to flourish.

As soon as a slave ship entered the port, Peter Claver moved into its infested hold to minister to the ill-treated and exhausted passengers. After the slaves were herded out of the ship like chained animals and shut up in nearby yards to be gazed at by the crowds, Claver plunged in among them with medicines, food, bread, brandy, lemons, and tobacco. With the help of interpreters he gave basic instructions and assured his brothers and sisters of their human dignity and God's love. During the 40 years of his ministry, Claver instructed and baptized an estimated 300,000 slaves.

Fr. Claver's apostolate extended beyond his care for slaves. He became a moral force, indeed, the apostle of Cartagena. He preached in the city square, gave missions to sailors and traders as well as country missions, during which he avoided, when possible, the hospitality of the planters and owners and lodged in the slave quarters instead.

After four years of sickness, which forced the saint to remain inactive and largely neglected, Claver died on September 8, 1654. The city magistrates, who had previously frowned at his solicitude for the black outcasts, ordered that he should be buried at public expense and with great pomp.

Peter Claver was canonized in 1888, and Pope Leo XIII declared him the worldwide patron of missionary work among black slaves.
