23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Two or Three Gathered in my Name: James Tissot

UNITED IN LOVE

The biblical readings of Mass this Sunday converge on the theme of brotherly love in the community of believers whose source lies in the communion of the Trinity. The Apostle Paul says that the whole Law of God finds fullness in love, so that in our relationships with others the Ten Commandments and every other precept are summed up in these words: Love your neighbor as yourself.

The Gospel text on the life of the Christian community tells us that brotherly love also involves a sense of mutual responsibility. For this reason if my brother commits a sin against me I must treat him charitably and, first of all, speak to him privately, pointing out that what he has said or done is wrong. This approach is known as, “fraternal correction”: it is not a reaction to the offense suffered but is motivated by love for one’s brethren. Saint Augustine comments: “Whoever has offended you, in offending you, has inflicted a serious injury upon himself; and would you not care for a brother’s injury?...You must forget the offense you have received but not the injury of one of your brethren.”...All this demonstrates that we are responsible for each other in the journey of Christian life; each person, aware of his own limitations and shortcomings, is called to accept fraternal correction and to help others with this specific service.

- POPE BENEDICT XVI

Love is the fulfillment of the law.
ROMANS 13:10

BLESSINGS FOR THE NEW SCHOOL YEAR

On Tuesday, August 29, students in grades 1-8 were excited to start their first day of school. After celebrating the Mass, FR. LAPPE & DEACON HAMLIN visited the school and proceeded to bless each classroom and its students. Please pray for our school teachers, staff, and students to have another successful year filled with blessings and joy!

Back to School Prayer

Heavenly Father,
Thank you for the gift of my child/children that You have entrusted to my care.

Please watch over them as they begin a new school year. Bless their teachers, school administrators, school support staff, friends and classmates. Keep them safe every day as they are in the care of others.

I pray that they may feel Your presence and know that You are always with them. Give them wisdom to make good choices, and an openness to learn new things. Fill them with knowledge and positive thinking. Help them overcome obstacles with virtue and shield them from negativity.

Surround my child/children with good friends who also know and love You. Help them to treat each other with kindness, fairness, and respect. Grant them the Grace to desire a deep relationship with You while all their studies point to You and the lifelong plan You have for them.

Amen.

Lives of the Saints

ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

Feast Day: September 13

Brought to Constantinople after a dozen years of priestly service in Syria, John found himself the reluctant victim of an imperial ruse to make him bishop in the greatest city of the empire. Ascetic, unimposing but dignified, and troubled by stomach ailments from his desert days as a monk, John became a bishop under the cloud of imperial politics. If his body was weak, his tongue was powerful. The content of his sermons, his exegesis of Scripture, were never without a point. Sometimes the point stung the high and mighty. Some sermons lasted up to two hours.

His lifestyle at the imperial court was not appreciated by many courtiers. He offered a modest table to episcopal sycophants hanging around for imperial and ecclesiastical favors. John deplored the court protocol that accorded him precedence before the highest state officials. He would not be a kept man.

His zeal led him to decisive action. Bishops who bribed their way into office were deposed. Many of his sermons called for concrete steps to share wealth with the poor. The rich did not appreciate hearing from John that private property existed because of Adam's fall from grace any more than married men liked to hear that they were bound to marital fidelity just as much as their wives were. When it came to justice and charity, John acknowledged no double standards.

Aloof, energetic, outspoken, especially when he became excited in the pulpit, John was a sure target for criticism and personal trouble. He was accused of gorging himself secretly on rich wines and fine foods. His faithfulness as spiritual director to the rich widow, Olympia, provoked much gossip attempting to prove him a hypocrite where wealth and chastity were concerned. His actions taken against unworthy bishops in Asia Minor were viewed by other ecclesiastics as a greedy, uncanonical extension of his authority. John died in exile in 407.
