SEPTEMBER 24, 2023
25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard: Johann Christian Brand

THE BOUNTY OF THE LANDOWNER

The apparent arbitrariness of the landowner is only a worldly decoy containing the mystery of God's freedom, which is the very opposite of arbitrariness. God must give (the one and same wage) to all because the one thing he has to give is his Son—single, whole, undivided, all-sufficient....He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, will he not also give us all things with him? (Rom 8:32)....(the point) is precisely that infinitely bountiful mercy of Christ, impossible for any of us to merit, that puts itself lovingly in the place of the sinner in order to justify him before the holiness of God and make him worthy of participating in God's own holy life...Jesus pays our wages in his own blood—enough to nourish us throughout eternity—before he has received anything from us.

The whole exhausting process of hiring at different times during the day, the accomplishment of the work itself, and then the climax at sunset at the moment of paying out the wages—all of this has been a drama set up by the landowner/Lord in order to provoke a conversion of heart in us all through an illumination of the true nature of the kingdom. The parable is a catechesis meant to transform the natural man and his pagan values and mentality into a Christian with the generous mind and redeeming heart of Christ, that is, into a being capable of bearing the full joy and glory of a kingdom where every breath is an act of love.

- FR. SIMEON (ERASMO LEIVA-MERIKAKIS)

WE'RE LISTENING

We want to hear from you!

Join a Partners in the Gospel input session.

As part of Partners in the Gospel, the proposed list of parish families has been released by the Archdiocese of Seattle.

We invite you to join us for an input session to discern our proposed parish family, discuss and provide feedback.

Thursday, September 28
1-3PM OR 7-8:30PM
In Camerman Hall

What is Partners in the Gospel?

- Partners in the Gospel is a strategic pastoral planning process to help us better achieve our mission of growing in our faith, and helping others know Jesus Christ.
- Partners in the Gospel will restructure parishes into parish families, in most cases with 2 or more parishes. Each parish family will be served by one pastor and one or more parochial vicars.
- The pastor along with staff, consultative leaders, and with input from members of the parish communities, will develop a plan for how it comes together as one canonical parish - one community of faith.
- Partners in the Gospel is an opportunity for us to re-envision parish life and how we carry out the mission of the Church.
- Our goal is to re-invigorate and renew our local Catholic Church.

Why are we doing this?

- Because we have a vision for vibrant parishes with full Masses, active youth groups, welcoming hospitality, engaging outreach efforts - and much more.
- New parish families will benefit from the shared gifts, talents, finances, resources and more from each of the joining parishes.
- We must address many challenging realities including declines in parish engagement (Mass attendance, sacraments, giving, etc.), fewer priests, aging buildings, and more - in order to bring our vision to life.

LIBERAL ARTS IN ACTION

In Mrs. Shetler's First Grade class, students learned about the Creation story as they studied seeds and growing conditions of seeds. The students planted Kale, Chard, Mustard Greens, and Bok Choy seeds in compostable seedling pots. As the seeds germinate, the students will have the opportunity to observe the seedlings. Once the seedlings mature, the students will transfer the pots to the 1st grade raised garden bed outside of the classroom. They will continue to observe and care for the plants until late fall when the leaves are harvested and used for an art project.

Lives of the Saints

ST. JEROME

Feast Day: September 30

Most of the saints are remembered for some outstanding virtue or devotion which they practiced, but Jerome is frequently remembered for his bad temper! It is true that he had a very bad temper and could use a vitriolic pen, but his love for God and his son Jesus Christ was extraordinarily intense; anyone who taught error was an enemy of God and truth, and Saint Jerome went after him or her with his mighty and sometimes sarcastic pen. He was above all a Scripture scholar, translating most of the Old Testament from the Hebrew. Jerome also wrote commentaries which are a great source of scriptural inspiration for us today. He was an avid student, a thorough scholar, a prodigious letter-writer and a consultant to monk, bishop, and pope. Saint Augustine said of him, "What Jerome is ignorant of, no mortal has ever known."

Saint Jerome is particularly important for having made a translation of the Bible which came to be called the Vulgate. It is not the most critical edition of the Bible, but its acceptance by the Church was fortunate. As a modern scholar says, "No man before Jerome or among his contemporaries and very few men for many centuries afterwards were so well qualified to do the work." The Council of Trent called for a new and corrected edition of the Vulgate, and declared it the authentic text to be used in the Church.

In order to be able to do such work, Jerome prepared himself well. He was a master of Latin, Greek, Hebrew, and Chaldaic. He began his studies at his birthplace, Stridon in Dalmatia. After his preliminary education, he went to Rome, the center of learning at that time, and thence to Trier, Germany, where the scholar was very much in evidence. He spent several years in each place, always trying to find the very best teachers. He once served as private secretary to Pope Damasus.

After these preparatory studies, he traveled extensively in Palestine, marking each spot of Christ's life with an outpouring of devotion. Mystic that he was, he spent five years in the desert of Chalcis so that he might give himself up to prayer, penance, and study. Finally, he settled in Bethlehem, where he lived in the cave believed to have been the birthplace of Christ. Jerome died in Bethlehem in 420, and the remains of his body now lie buried in the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome. He is a Doctor of the Church.
