OCTOBER 15, 2023
28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Great Banquet; Brunswick Monogrammist

CHANGED BY THE MERCY OF JESUS

O Jesus, how happy I would be if I had been faithful, but alas, often in the evening I am sad because I feel I could have corresponded better with your graces. If I were more united to you, more charitable with my sisters, more humble and more mortified, I would feel less sorrow when I talk with you in prayer. And yet, O my God, very far from becoming discouraged at the sight of my miseries, I come to you with confidence, recalling that those who are well do not need a doctor but the sick do. I beg you, then, to cure me and to pardon me. I will keep in mind, Lord, that the soul to whom you have forgiven more should also love you more than the others! I offer you every beat of my heart as so many acts of love and reparation and I unite them to your infinite merits. I beg you, O my divine bridegroom, to be my resistance; and lastly, I wish to have no other will but yours. Tomorrow, with the help of your grace, I will begin a new life in which each moment will be an act of love and renunciation.

Thus, after coming each evening to the foot of your altar, I will finally reach the last evening of my life. Then will begin for me the unending day of eternity when I will place in your divine heart the struggles of exile! Amen.

- ST. THÉRÈSE OF LISIEUX

I can do all things in him who strengthens me.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

SCHOOL NEWSLETTER—OCTOBER 2023

THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

DEDICATED TO THE HOLY ROSARY

According to an account by fifteenth-century Dominican, Alan de la Roch, Mary appeared to St. Dominic in 1206 after he had been praying and doing severe penances because of his lack of success in combating the Albigensian heresy. Mary praised him for his valiant fight against the heretics and then gave him the Rosary as a mighty weapon, explained its uses and efficacy, and told him to preach it to others.

NO HOMEWORK WEDNESDAYS AT OLSOS CATHOLIC SCHOOL!

OLSOS families are highly encouraged to participate in Children and Youth Programs on Wednesday Nights, 6 - 7:30pm. To accommodate this desire, teachers want all students to be free from any academic responsibilities on Wednesday nights.

Faith Works, Fraternus, Fidelis, Adult Formation and Childcare are available so all family members can attend. A potluck dinner is also provided each Wednesday starting at 5:45pm.

SR. MARY IMELDA'S HABITS OF MIND

During our recent Curriculum Night, each teacher shared their room, pedagogy, and curriculum. OLSOS' newest Dominican Sister, Sr. Mary Imelda, presented her Habits of Mind to her group of parents during her power point. Sister will often reference these throughout her week so they become ingrained and regularly practiced. Hopefully, all parents will be able to implement these habits at home as well.

- Taking ownership of personal learning: One does not really learn unless they make that learning their own.
- Serving the common good: Learning happens in the context of community.
- Academic stamina: Good lessons take time.
- Accountability: Responsibility is a crucial virtue for students.
- Mental skills: Deep learning requires dedication to deep thinking, not just rapid responding.
- Virtue: Students must practice studiousness and diligence above all.

These are wonderful habits for all grade level students to aspire toward. Thank you, Sister, for your dedication to your Third Graders!

Lives of the Saints

ST. MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE

Feast Day: October 16

Margaret Mary was chosen by Christ to arouse the Church to a realization of the love of God symbolized by the heart of Jesus. Her early years were marked by sickness and a painful home situation. "The heaviest of my crosses was that I could do nothing to lighten the cross my mother was suffering." After considering marriage for some time, Margaret Mary entered the Order of the Visitation nuns at the age of 24.

A Visitation nun was "not to be extraordinary except by being ordinary," but the young nun was not to enjoy this anonymity. A fellow novice termed Margaret Mary humble, simple, and frank, but above all, kind and patient under sharp criticism and correction. She could not meditate in the formal way expected, though she tried her best to give up her "prayer of simplicity." Slow, quiet, and clumsy, she was assigned to help an infirmarian who was a bundle of energy.

On December 21, 1674, three years a nun, she received the first of her revelations. She felt "invested" with the presence of God, though always afraid of deceiving herself in such matters. The request of Christ was that his love for humankind be made evident through her.

During the next 13 months, Christ appeared to her at intervals. His human heart was to be the symbol of his divine-human love. By her own love Margaret Mary was to make up for the coldness and ingratitude of the world—by frequent and loving Holy Communion, especially on the first Friday of each month, and by an hour's vigil of prayer every Thursday night in memory of his agony and isolation in Gethsemane. He also asked that a feast of reparation be instituted.

Like all saints, Margaret Mary had to pay for her gift of holiness. Some of her own sisters were hostile. Theologians who were called in declared her visions delusions and suggested that she eat more heartily. A new confessor, the Jesuit Claude de la Colombière, recognized her genuineness and supported her. Against her great resistance, Christ called her to be a sacrificial victim for the shortcomings of her own sisters, and to make this known.

After serving as novice mistress and assistant superior, Margaret Mary died at the age of 43, while being anointed. She said: "I need nothing but God, and to lose myself in the heart of Jesus."
