THE MISSION TO RENDER TO GOD WHAT BELONGS TO GOD

Since they are members of the Church by virtue of their baptism, all Christians share responsibility for missionary activity. Missionary cooperation is rooted and lived, above all, in personal union with Christ. Only if we are united to him as the branches to the vine can we produce good fruit. Through holiness of life every Christian can become a fruitful part of the Church's mission...Sharing in the universal mission therefore is not limited to certain specific activities, but is the sign of maturity in faith and of a Christian life that bears fruit. In this way, individual believers extend the reach of their charity and show concern for those both far and near. They pray for the missions and missionary vocations. They help missionaries return, they welcome them with the same joy with which the first Christian communities heard from the apostles the marvelous things God had wrought through their preaching (Acts 14:27)

Among the forms of sharing, first place goes to spiritual cooperation through prayer, sacrifice, and the witness of Christian life. Prayer should accompany the journey of missionaries so that the proclamation of the Word will be effective through God's grace. In his letters, Saint Paul often asks the faithful to pray for him so that he might proclaim the Gospel with confidence and conviction. Prayer needs to be accompanied by sacrifice. The redemptive value of suffering, accepted and offered to God with love, derives from the sacrifice of Christ himself, who calls the members of his Mystical Body to share in his sufferings, to complete them in their own flesh (Col 1:24). The sacrifice of missionaries should be shared and accompanied by the sacrifices of all the faithful.

- ST. JOHN PAUL II

*If we live, we live for the Lord,
and if we die, we die for the Lord;
so then, whether we live or die,
we are the Lord's.*

ROMANS 14:8

SCHOOL NEWSLETTER—OCTOBER 2023

Welcoming Our New ART TEACHERS

MRS. SARAH KINDLE

is our newest addition to our art program. She instructs lessons weekly to grades 1st -4th. She has been a Star of the Sea School parent for 10 years now and has been involved with numerous auction art projects during that time. She is looking forward to this new opportunity to help students discover and grow in love for art and their own creative abilities.

MRS. GINA SWITZER

is our 5th-8th grade art teacher providing weekly instruction. She studied fine art in college but received her undergraduate in Theology. She studied traditional iconography and Portrait/Figure drawing. Additionally, she designs Paschal candles for parishes around the country.

IGNATIUS BOOK FAIRS

Introducing Ignatius Book Fairs, where young minds experience the joy of selecting captivating books that will truly feed their imaginations and nourish their minds.

This new partnership of Ave Maria University and Ignatius Press will be coming to OLSOS School this year! Dates for the book fair TBA.

MOM'S Q & A AND GAME NIGHT

Thanks to all the moms who came out for our first Mom's Night of the year. We had an engaged and active group discussion on family practices. Guest parents shared their years of experience raising all aged children while living out the faith.

We look forward to our next event with a new topic and planned activity.

Journey

A DISCERNMENT RETREAT

Discover, Grow & Respond

Saturday, November 11, 2023

Old River Pastoral Center
West Linn, Oregon

Journey is an annual retreat hosted by the Society of Mary for young, unmarried women, ages 18-28, who are seeking to discern the Lord's call for their lives. This one-day retreat provides a place for women to spend the day with Jesus, listening to him and deepening in his vision and desires for their vocation. The formation talks, small group sharing, time with the Sisters, and deep prayer moments enable participants to connect heart to heart with the Lord, discover his call more clearly, and grow in their desire to follow him. Women will be strengthened by sharing the journey with others and receive tools for their discernment that enable them to take concrete steps in responding to the Lord's voice.

Lives of the Saints

ST. JOHN OF CAPISTRANO

Feast Day: October 23

It has been said the Christian saints are the world's greatest optimists. Not blind to the existence and consequences of evil, they base their confidence on the power of Christ's redemption. The power of conversion through Christ extends not only to sinful people but also to calamitous events.

Imagine being born in the 14th century. One-third of the population and nearly 40 percent of the clergy were wiped out by the bubonic plague. The Western Schism split the Church with two or three claimants to the Holy See at one time. England and France were at war. The city-states of Italy were constantly in conflict. No wonder that gloom dominated the spirit of the culture and the times.

John Capistrano was born in 1386. His education was thorough. His talents and success were great. When he was 26 he was made governor of Perugia. Imprisoned after a battle against the Malatestas, he resolved to change his way of life completely. At the age of 30 he entered the Franciscan novitiate and was ordained a priest four years later.

John's preaching attracted great throngs at a time of religious apathy and confusion. He and 12 Franciscan brethren were received in the countries of central Europe as angels of God. They were instrumental in reviving a dying faith and devotion.

The Franciscan Order itself was in turmoil over the interpretation and observance of the Rule of St. Francis. Through John's tireless efforts and his expertise in law, the heretical Fraticelli were suppressed and the "Spirituals" were freed from interference in their stricter observance.

John of Capistrano helped bring about a brief reunion with the Greek and Armenian Churches.

When the Turks captured Constantinople in 1453, John was commissioned to preach a crusade for the defense of Europe. Gaining little response in Bavaria and Austria, he decided to concentrate his efforts in Hungary. He led the army to Belgrade. Under the great General John Hunyadi, they gained an overwhelming victory, and the siege of Belgrade was lifted. Worn out by his superhuman efforts, Capistrano was an easy prey to an infection after the battle. He died on October 23, 1456.
