OCTOBER 29, 2023
30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Host of Saints: from the Book of Hours, Louis de Laval

THE GREATEST AND FIRST COMMANDMENT

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.” The reason we can heed these otherwise overwhelming words is that God does not want anything from us that he has not first given to us. In the great commandment, Jesus cuts through all the devil’s lies and reveals to us that it is actually possible for us to love him with our whole being. The generosity of our charity towards others flows from our mindfulness that we “were once aliens,” but then God’s love came and claimed us. That is why we truly can become “imitators of the Lord.”

- MAGNIFICAT VOL. 25, NO. 8

*I love you, O Lord, my strength,
O Lord, my rock, my fortress,
My deliverer.*

PSALM 18:2-3

PRAYER REQUESTS

In your kindness and charity towards others, please pray for the sick, homeless, homebound, the imprisoned, the unemployed, all our military overseas, and all who are held in our hearts:

Linda McDaniel, Arthur Lente, Nathan Dixon, Cole Eckert, Walt Brown, Felix Fabellano, Andras Ordog, Lacsamana family, Ray & Patrick Costello, Michael Childs, Sharon Christodoulou, Glenda Isbell, Kim Marbais, Linda B, Joan Halmrast, Iva M Lehmann, Sharona Belles, Ross Smith, Benny Castro, Anthony Lente, Steven & Sonia Pickering, Cheryl Browne, Phil Bawden, Teresa Aragon, Antonio Charles, Leo Fuentes, Sandra Pick, Hugh Black, Dianne Huebert, Randall family, Elsa Gragasin, Steve & Brenda Walke, John Lange, Dominique Neidig, Teri Conklin, Kris Ceithamer, Johnthony Acosta, Joseph Materne, Mona Pick, Ori Hoallander family, James Lee, Joyce O’Hara and Myrna Acosta.

For the repose of all the souls who have died. May God grant them the joy of eternal life and peace for their families.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

SCHOOL NEWSLETTER—OCTOBER 2023

MR. GILL & HIS TALENTS

MR. GILL is excited to share his love of music and of the liturgy with the students this year. Mr. Gill began his music career as a classical cellist, playing in the Tacoma Youth Symphony and competing in solo and small ensemble events. Faced with a choice between symphonic music and involvement in Church during college – he chose to keep cello as a pastime to devote more time to the Church. He switched to singing as his primary area of musical study and served as the Newman Center's music lead for four years. There, he studied liturgical music under the Dominican friars, learning liturgical theology and its effect on the integration of music in the liturgy. Students are enjoying his talented nature in both Math and Music. ☥

All Saints Day

Join our large line-up of Saints from Kindergarten through Eighth Grade on November 1st following the 9:00am Mass. Father Lappe will present and ask questions from selected classroom saints.

GARDEN MAINTENANCE CONTINUED

Grades 5-8 spent this past week providing maintenance support within the garden. Students usually attend the garden to be instructed on a specific lesson. However, they are also learning the importance of laboring through the sometime monotonous chores involved with gardening such as picking weeds and moving bark around. ☥

Journey

A DISCERNMENT RETREAT

Discover, Grow & Respond

Saturday,
November 11, 2023

Old River Pastoral Center
West Linn, Oregon

Journey is an annual retreat hosted by the Society of Mary for young, unmarried women, ages 18-28, who are seeking to discern the Lord's call for their lives. This one-day retreat provides a place for women to spend the day with Jesus, listening to him and deepening in his vision and desires for their vocation. The formation talks, small group sharing, time with the Sisters, and deep prayer moments enable participants to connect heart to heart with the Lord, discover his call more clearly, and grow in their desire to follow him. Women will be strengthened by sharing the journey with others and receive tools for their discernment that enable them to take concrete steps in responding to the Lord's voice.

Lives of the Saints

ST. CHARLES BORROMEO

Feast Day: November 4

The name of Charles Borromeo is associated with reform. He lived during the time of the Protestant Reformation, and had a hand in the reform of the whole Church during the final years of the Council of Trent.

Although he belonged to the Milanese nobility and was related to the powerful Medici family, Charles desired to devote himself to the Church. In 1559, when his uncle, Cardinal de Medici was elected Pope Pius IV, he made Charles cardinal-deacon and administrator of the Archdiocese of Milan. At the time Charles was still a layman and a young student. Because of his intellectual qualities Charles was entrusted with several important offices connected with the Vatican, and later appointed secretary of state with responsibility for the papal states. The untimely death of his elder brother brought Charles to a definite decision to be ordained a priest, despite his relatives' insistence that he marry. Soon after being ordained a priest at age 25, Borromeo was consecrated bishop of Milan.

Working behind the scenes, Saint Charles deserves the credit for keeping the Council of Trent in session when at several points it was on the verge of breaking up. Borromeo encouraged the pope to renew the Council in 1562, after it had been suspended for 10 years. He took upon himself the task of the entire correspondence during the final phase. Because of his work at the Council, Borromeo was unable to take up residence in Milan until the Council concluded.

Eventually, Borromeo was allowed to devote his time to the Archdiocese of Milan, where the religious and moral picture was far from bright. The reform needed in every phase of Catholic life among both clergy and laity was initiated at a provincial council of all the bishops under him. Specific regulations were drawn up for bishops and other clergy: If the people were to be converted to a better life, Borromeo had to be the first to give a good example and renew their apostolic spirit.

Charles took the initiative in giving a good example. He allotted most of his income to charity, forbade himself all luxury, and imposed severe penances upon himself. He sacrificed wealth, high honors, esteem, and influence to become poor. During the plague and famine of 1576, Borromeo tried to feed 60,000 to 70,000 people daily. To do this he borrowed large sums of money that required years to repay. Whereas the civil authorities fled at the height of the plague, he stayed in the city, where he ministered to the sick and the dying, helping those in want.

Work and the heavy burdens of his high office began to affect Archbishop Borromeo's health, leading to his death at the age of 46.
