THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

The Three Wise Men: Joseph Christian Leyendecker

FIVE LESSONS OF THE MAGI

The unforgettable story of the journey of the Magi, as recounted in the Gospel of Matthew, is an artful summary of the principal dynamics of the spiritual life. Watching the night sky with scrupulous attention for signs of God's purpose, the Magi evoke the importance of alertness in the spiritual order. We must keep our eyes open to see what God is up to. . .

Once they saw the star, they moved, despite the length of the journey and the dangers of the road. Sometimes people know what God wants them to do, but they don't act, either out of fear or laziness or the influence of bad habits. In their confident journeying forth, the Magi teach us not to miss the propitious moment. They teach us to move.

When they entered into Herod's territory, the Magi caught the attention of the king. And when they spoke to him of the birth of a new King of the Jews, Herod became frantic and tried to use them in order to destroy the baby. A third lesson: when you walk the path that God has laid out for you, expect opposition. We live in a...fallen world, & there will always be forces opposing to God.

Refusing to cooperate with Herod's game, the wise men came to Bethlehem, found the child, and gave him their precious gifts. When you come to Christ, don't give him your second best; break open the very best of yourself and make it a gift for him. Finally, they were warned in a dream not to go back to Herod and so "they returned to their home country by another route." As Fulton Sheen commented so magnificently: of course they did; for no one comes to Christ and goes back the same way he came!

The journey of these wise men is a metaphor for the spiritual journeys that all of us must make. Like the magi, we must be attentive; we must be willing to act; we must expect opposition; we must give our best to Christ, and finally, we must be willing to change, "to go back by a different route."

- BISHOP ROBERT BARRON

The Gift of Empathy Mini-Series

Empathy is a powerful way to better understand others, forge stronger relationships, and care for those who are hurting. If everyone empathized with each other more often, it could go a long way toward overcoming the division, isolation, and misunderstanding that are so prevalent today.

But empathy doesn't just happen on its own. To see its benefits in our lives and the lives of others, we need to be intentional about putting this skill into action. That means developing and maintaining an empathy mindset.

Consider attending our 4-part series as we study *The Gift of Empathy, a new book released from Stephen Ministries. We'll meet on Wednesdays January 17, 24, 31, and Feb. 7, from 6:30 to 8pm in the Parish Office building at Holy Trinity Parish, 4215 Pine Road.

RSVP by January 5th and we'll make sure to order materials for you, by contacting Kathy: kathy@starofthesea.net | (360) 627-8916.

SACRED ART & THE EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

The Last Supper by Carl Heinrich Bloch

At OLSOS, we see the vital importance of instruction on sacred art as it is often integrated into a history, science, literature, or religion lesson.

The Benedict XVI Institute is co-sponsoring a national painting contest that is in conjunction with the USCCB’s National Eucharistic Congress. Entries will be part of an exhibit beginning May 2024.

The following is a statement by one of the artists:

“We must reanimate the world for Christ. It’s imperative for faithful artists to rebuke the darkness of the modern world that has failed humanity and deprived us of beauty. There is no greater gift we have received from God than the Eucharist and attending Mass regularly...as Catholics and artists, we are responsible for sharing the truth and inspiring faith.”

JIM JOHNSON

Deacon Jim Johnson is a Deacon in the Archdiocese of Seattle. He was ordained in December of 2020, along with 21 other men. He has been assigned to Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish in Bremerton, WA – which has been his family's home parish for 22 years. Deacon Jim and his wife Colleen have 3 grown children, a son and 2 daughters, all of whom are all married. They have also been blessed with 4 grandchildren and one on the way.

Deacon Jim has a special outreach and ministry for the youth and enjoys challenging them to be bold in the adverse conditions they face in today's society. Deacon Jim was born and raised in Minnesota and is the youngest of nine children. He is blessed to say that his parents are his greatest influence and has been inspired by their 69 years of marriage.

Lives of the Saints

ST. GREGORY OF NYSSA

Feast Day: January 10

The son of two saints, Basil and Emilia, young Gregory was raised by his older brother, Saint Basil the Great, and his sister, Macrina, in modern-day Turkey. Gregory's success in his studies suggested great things were ahead for him. After becoming a professor of rhetoric, he was persuaded to devote his learning and efforts to the Church. By then married, Gregory went on to study for the priesthood and become ordained (this at a time when celibacy was not a matter of law for priests).

He was elected Bishop of Nyssa in 372, a period of great tension over the Arian heresy, which denied the divinity of Christ. Briefly arrested after being falsely accused of embezzling Church funds, Gregory was restored to his see in 378, an act met with great joy by his people.

It was after the death of his beloved brother Basil, that Gregory really came into his own. He wrote with great effectiveness against Arianism and other questionable doctrines, gaining a reputation as a defender of orthodoxy. He was sent on missions to counter other heresies and held a position of prominence at the Council of Constantinople. His fine reputation stayed with him for the remainder of his life, but over the centuries it gradually declined as the authorship of his writings became less and less certain. But, thanks to the work of scholars in the 20th century, his stature is once again appreciated. Indeed, Saint Gregory of Nyssa is seen not simply as a pillar of orthodoxy but as one of the great contributors to the mystical tradition in Christian spirituality and to monasticism itself.
