2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

San Juan Bautista mostrando a Jesús: Bartolomé Estéban Murillo

I HAVE WAITED, WAITED FOR THE LORD

In our yearning, John the Baptist sends us the Lamb of God. Jesus looks at us and addresses us with a breathtaking question, “What are you looking for?” For Jesus draws us to himself through the longings of our heart. The Lord once said to St. Catherine of Siena, “I who am infinite God want you to serve me with what is infinite, and you have nothing infinite except your soul’s love and desire.” God’s law is within our heart, for he has given us that love and desire to lead us to him, that we may delight in doing his will. We are even so bold as to say, “we are not our own,” because we have the Holy Spirit within us, who joins us to Christ. Whenever we hear Christ’s command, we are freed to answer with Samuel: “Here I am.”

A society of women dedicated to the sanctification of their families under the special patronage of Our Lady of Sorrows.

Confraternity of Christian Mothers

Third Saturday of the Month,
beginning January 20

10:00 AM-Noon

Parish Center Rooms 1 & 2

For ALL women in the parish

Mothers rule the world.

They guide the destinies of homes; that is why God is relying on mothers to keep Christ in the world by keeping Him in their hearts and homes. Under the special patronage of Mary, the Mother of Sorrows, Christian Mothers are encouraged joyously to undertake the important task of training and sanctifying the young souls entrusted to their care.

Christian Mothers learn to unite their own hearts to Christ so that they can help to draw their families closer to the Lord. In that way they become the leaven which makes their own parish and community more alive with the presence of the risen Lord.

The Archconfraternity of Christian Mothers leads campaigns that promote real solutions to some of the biggest challenges faced by society. We challenge the notion that the way things are is the way things should always be, and are proud to be a force for positive transformation.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

SCHOOL NEWSLETTER—JANUARY 2023

On January 4, OLSOS celebrated the feast of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Students were blessed by having a first-class relic of the saint visit each of their classrooms to be venerated.

Staff met in prayer on this morning, asking for the intercession of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton for their students.

PRAYER FOR STUDENTS

Lord our God,

*in your wisdom and love
you surround us with the mysteries of the universe.*

Send your Spirit upon these students and fill them with your wisdom and blessings.

*Grant that they may devote themselves
to their studies and draw ever closer to you,
the source of all knowledge.*

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

St. Nicholas HOLY HELPERS

Saint Nicholas of Myra is famous for his love and care for children. During his life there was a widower with three daughters whose family had fallen into poverty. Since the man could not provide dowries for the girls, they were to be sold into slavery. St. Nicholas secretly provided for the dowries of the girls so that they might be married.

A number of people have asked about the possibility of providing tuition for a family in need at the school and so we have set up the St. Nicholas Holy Helpers program to give people the opportunity to share in the charitable spirit and good work of Saint Nicholas.

This coming year, Our Lady Star of the Sea School is working to raise money to provide full and partial scholarships for students in need. We currently have 45 children in need of these scholarships.

If you can help, please consider donating the amount indicated on the Giving Levels Chart* to the right.

Lives of the Saints

ST. ANTHONY

Feast Day: January 10

The life of Anthony will remind many people of Saint Francis of Assisi. At 20, Anthony was so moved by the Gospel message, “Go, sell what you have, and give to [the] poor” (Mark 10:21b), that he actually did just that with his large inheritance. He is different from Francis in that most of Anthony’s life was spent in solitude. He saw the world completely covered with snares, and gave the Church and the world the witness of solitary asceticism, great personal mortification and prayer. But no saint is antisocial, and Anthony drew many people to himself for spiritual healing and guidance.

At 54, he responded to many requests and founded a sort of monastery of scattered cells. Again, like Francis, he had great fear of “stately buildings and well-laden tables.”

At 60, he hoped to be a martyr in the renewed Roman persecution of 311, fearlessly exposing himself to danger while giving moral and material support to those in prison. At 88, he was fighting the Arian heresy, that massive trauma from which it took the Church centuries to recover. “The mule kicking over the altar” denied the divinity of Christ.

Anthony is associated in art with a T-shaped cross, a pig and a book. The pig and the cross are symbols of his valiant warfare with the devil—the cross his constant means of power over evil spirits, the pig a symbol of the devil himself. The book recalls his preference for “the book of nature” over the printed word. Anthony died in solitude at age 105.
