1ST SUNDAY OF LENT

Christ in the Desert: Ivan Kramskoi

“ANGELS MINISTERED TO HIM”

In the Holy Land, the Judean desert, which lies to the west of the River Jordan and the Oasis of Jericho, rises over stony valleys to reach an altitude of about one thousand meters at Jerusalem. After receiving baptism from John, Jesus entered that lonely place, led by the Holy Spirit himself who had settled upon him, consecrating him and revealing him as the Son of God. In the desert, a place of trial as the experience of the people of Israel shows, the dramatic reality of the self-emptying of Christ who had stripped himself of the form of God (Phil 2:6-7) appears most vividly. He who never sinned and cannot sin submits to being tested and can therefore sympathize with our weaknesses (Heb 4:15). He lets himself be tempted by Satan, the enemy, who has been opposed to God’s saving plan for humankind from the outset.

In (Mark’s) succinct account, angels...appear almost fleetingly before this dark, tenebrous figure who dares to tempt the Lord. Angels, the Gospel says, ministered to Jesus; they are the antithesis of Satan...Throughout the Old Testament we find these figures who help and guide human beings on God’s behalf. . .Angels minister to Jesus, who is certainly superior to them. This dignity of his is clearly, if discreetly, proclaimed here in the Gospel. Indeed, even in the situation of extreme poverty and humility, when he is tempted by Satan he remains the Son of God, the Messiah, the Lord. We would be removing an important part of the Gospel were we to leave out these beings sent by God, who announce and are a sign of his presence among us. Let us invoke them frequently so that they may sustain us in our commitment to follow Jesus to the point of identifying with him.

CATHOLIC LIBERAL EDUCATION IN ACTION

In preparation for the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord the Kindergarten children wove together their studies of the liturgical year and nature studies through creation of beeswax candles. The children were introduced to how honey is made, where beeswax comes from and the beautiful way God created bees to help food and flowers grow.

From start to finish the children used their senses to investigate beeswax that was melted down in the classroom to make beeswax candles, then blessed for Candlemas and taken home as a sacramental. ☩

Thanks to all who generously supported our Literature for Life Fundraiser!

Our two goals of increasing the love of reading among our students while raising funds for our school were abundantly met. Scores of books were read from PreK through 8th grade, and we raised over $18,000 for the school which exceeded our goal. Thanks be to God!

Day of Recollection

with Dr. Ray Guarendi

Saturday, March 2 | 9:30am - 3pm | Cameraman Hall

Session Topics Include:

You're a Better Parent Than You Think!

Parents, teachers and anyone who works with children today are having their confidence, peace of mind, and authority undercut by a number of widespread myths that have been pushed upon them by the experts, the media and almost everybody else. Victimized by these false notions, many parents and educators are plagued by groundless worry, guilt and frustration. This presentation will foster self confidence, peace of mind, and will put authority into your hands where it belongs.

Marriage: Small Steps, Big Rewards

Making small personal changes can bring about dramatic improvements in a relationship. Overcoming any resistance to making those changes will not only lead to a better marriage but to more self contentment. Using illustrations familiar to most spouses, Dr. Ray offers humorous and good-sense guidance for a stronger marriage.

Back to the Family

Back to the Family presents the results of a three-year, national search for strong families. It reveals those characteristics most common to strong families as well as the struggles and difficulties most families face. The results will reinforce some traditional ideas about family life while offering some reassuring surprises.

Dr. Ray Guarendi

Dr. Ray Guarendi is a Catholic father of ten adopted children, a clinical psychologist, author, professional speaker, and national radio and television host. His radio show, "The Dr. Is In" can be heard on 500 stations and Sirius XM channel

130. His TV show, "Living Right With Dr. Ray" can be seen on EWTN Global Catholic Network and is aired in 140 countries.

Lives of the Saints

STS. JACINTA AND FRANCISCO MARTO

Feast Day: February 20

Between May 13 and October 13, 1917, three Portuguese shepherd children from Aljustrel, received apparitions of Our Lady at Cova da Iria, near Fátima, a city 110 miles north of Lisbon. At that time, Europe was involved in an extremely bloody war. Portugal itself was in political turmoil, having overthrown its monarchy in 1910; the government disbanded religious organizations soon after.

At the first appearance, Mary asked the children to return to that spot on the thirteenth of each month for the next six months. She also asked them to learn to read and write and to pray the rosary "to obtain peace for the world and the end of the war." They were to pray for sinners and for the conversion of Russia, which had recently overthrown Czar Nicholas II and was soon to fall under communism. Up to 90,000 people gathered for Mary's final apparition on October 13, 1917.

Less than two years later, Francisco died of influenza in his family home. He was buried in the parish cemetery and then re-buried in the Fátima basilica in 1952. Jacinta died of influenza in Lisbon in 1920, offering her suffering for the conversion of sinners, peace in the world, and the Holy Father. She was re-buried in the Fátima basilica in 1951. Their cousin Lúcia dos Santos, became a Carmelite nun and was still living when Jacinta and Francisco were beatified in 2000; she died five years later. Pope Francis canonized the younger children on his visit to Fátima to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the first apparition—May 13, 2017. The shrine of Our Lady of Fátima is visited by up to 20 million people a year.
