SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

L'Ascension: Gustave Doré

WITH US ALWAYS

When you had fulfilled your dispensation for us, and united things on earth with things in heaven, you were taken up in glory, Christ our God; in no way parted, but remaining inseparable, you cried to those who loved you, I am with you and there is no one against you...Now, let us come to our senses and raise on high our eyes and minds. Mortals, let us make our sight together with our senses fly to heaven's gates. Let us imagine we are standing on the Mount of Olives and that we bend our gaze on the Redeemer as he rides upon a cloud. For, from where the Lord has hastened back to heaven, there too the One who loves to give has distributed his gifts to his apostles, cherishing them as a father and crying out to them, I am not parting from you. I am with you and there is no one against you. The One who came down to earth...led those he has gathered to a high mountain, so that, having mind and senses aimed on high, they might then abandon all that seek the ground. And so, having climbed the Mount of Olives, they surrounded the Benefactor, while the Lord, raising his hands like wings, sheltered them, as an eagle the nest which it was warming, and says to the nestlings, "I have sheltered you from all evils. As I have cherished you, do you love me?...High over you, my disciples, as God and maker of the whole world I stretch out my palms, which the lawless stretched out, bound, and nailed. And so, as you bow your heads beneath my hands, understand and know, my friends, what I command. For, as though baptizing, I lay my hands upon you now, and, having blessed you, send you out enlightened and made wise. Upon your heads, praise and majesty; upon your souls, illumination, as it is written, for I shall pour upon you of my Spirit, and you will be accepted by me, taught and chosen, faithful and my own. I am not parting from you. I am with you, and there is no one against you.

A Novena for Mothers

*God of tender love and life,
You compared your love for humanity to the love a mother has for her own child.*

*You are the Lord and Giver of Life,
and you knit each of us together in our mother's womb.*

You provide for the world the example of Mary, your own mother, who said yes to life amid her confusion and surprise.

*We thank you, then, for our mothers.
Though human, they are also a reflection of you, Lord God.
They are your gift to us.*

*We pray for all mothers today.
May they realize the greatness of their vocation and have the strength to live it without fear.
Forgive their sins, and keep their eyes raised up to you.*

*To those who still make this earthly journey with us,
give us the grace to love them as we should;
And to those whom you have called from this life,
give a special place of honor in your Kingdom of endless life.
We pray through Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

CATHOLIC LIBERAL EDUCATION IN ACTION

7TH AND 8TH GRADE WRITING

This month our seventh and eighth graders in Mr. Recinella's writing courses will be screening the classic Frank Capra and Jimmy Stewart films You Can't Take It With You and Mr. Smith Goes to Washington to write evaluative essays, including identifying the virtues in these stories.

Our students are not accustomed to watching movies in class but when deemed valuable, it is a great experience for all. Students will determine the filmmaker's message and argue whether or not it achieved its purpose.

1ST GRADE IS ON OBSERVATION DUTY

During April within first grade, students adopted new creatures such as Ladybugs, Harvester Ants and Caterpillars. Students spent quality time observing these habitats witnessing the larvae stage evolve into the pupa stage, caterpillars grow into chrysalis, and ants building a network of tunnels in their tiny habitats. Our first graders are now familiar with the term, "entomology".

Lives of the Saints

ST. ISIDORE THE FARMER

Feast Day: May 15

Isidore has become the patron of farmers and rural communities. In particular, he is the patron of Madrid, Spain, and of the United States National Rural Life Conference.

When he was barely old enough to wield a hoe, Isidore entered the service of John de Vergas, a wealthy landowner from Madrid, and worked faithfully on his estate outside the city for the rest of his life. He married a young woman as simple and upright as himself who also became a saint—Maria de la Cabeza. They had one son, who died as a child.

Isidore had deep religious instincts. He rose early in the morning to go to church and spent many a holiday devoutly visiting the churches of Madrid and surrounding areas. All day long, as he walked behind the plow, he communed with God. His devotion, one might say, became a problem, for his fellow workers sometimes complained that he often showed up late because of lingering in church too long.

He was known for his love of the poor, and there are accounts of Isidore's supplying them miraculously with food. He had a great concern for the proper treatment of animals.

He died May 15, 1130, and was declared a saint in 1622, with Saints Ignatius of Loyola, Francis Xavier, Teresa of Avila, and Philip Neri. Together, the group is known in Spain as "the five saints."
