JULY 14, 2024

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sermon on the Mount: Henrik Olrik

SUSTAINED BY THE PRESENCE OF GOD ALONE

For the soul that has entered into the fortress of holy recollection, the eye of its soul, opened in the light of faith, discovers its God present, living within it. In turn it remains so present to him, in beautiful simplicity, that he guards it with a jealous care. Then disturbances from without and tempests from within may arise. Its self-esteem may be wounded. God may hide himself, withdraw his sensible grace... (But) then the Master is free, free to flow into the soul, to give himself according to his measure...

In him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will, so that we might exist for the praise of his glory. (Eph 1:11-12). It is Saint Paul who announces to us this divine election, Saint Paul who penetrated so deeply the mystery hidden from ages past in God (Eph 3:9). Then he gives us light on this vocation to which we are called. God, he says, chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him (Eph 1:4)... In order to fulfill worthily my work of (praising God), I must remain in the presence of God through everything. It is contact with the divine Being that will make me holy and without blemish in its eyes.

I relate all this to the beautiful virtue of simplicity, (which gives us) rest in God...prelude and echo of the eternal sabbath of which Saint Paul spoke when he said, we then who have believed shall enter into this rest (Heb 4:3). The glorified have this repose because they contemplate God...They know him, as they are known by him (1Cor 13:12), that is, by intuitive vision, a simple gaze. And that is why, the great saint continues, they are transformed from brightness to brightness into his very image by the power of the Spirit (2 Cor 3:18).

FEAST OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

JULY 16

DID YOU KNOW THAT THE ORIGINS OF THE DEVOTION TO OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL DATE BACK OVER 750 YEARS?

The feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, celebrated on July 16, was first instituted in the late 14th century in commemoration of the approval of the rule of the Carmelite Order a hundred years earlier.

Since the ancient hermits that established themselves on Mt. Carmel, the Carmelites have been known for their deep devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. They interpreted the cloud of the vision of Elijah (1 Kings 18:44) as a symbol of the Immaculate Virgin Mary. She was seen as the small cloud rising from the sea, a true “Star of the Sea,” and the rain that would emerge from her to end the three-year drought was perceived as the grace and mercy poured out by her Son, Jesus.

Because of the invasion by the Saracens, the Carmelites were obliged to abandon Mt. Carmel. One ancient tradition tells us that before leaving, Our Lady appeared to them while they sang the Salve Regina and she promised to be the Star of the Sea for them.

Just as the sailors who depended on the stars to mark their course in the immense ocean, the Virgin Mary, like the star of the sea, guides us through the difficult waters of life toward the safe port that is Christ.

*Our Lady of Mount Carmel,
our Star of the Sea,*

PRAY FOR US!

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

O Most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel,

*Fruitful Vine, Splendour of Heaven,
Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in this my necessity.*

O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my Mother.

*O Holy Mary, Mother of God,
Queen of Heaven and Earth,
I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart,
to succour me in this necessity;
there are none that can withstand your power.*

*O, show me herein you are my Mother;
O Mary, conceived without sin,
Pray for us who have recourse to thee.
(3x)*

Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands. (3x)

Lives of the Saints

ST. BONAVENTURE

Feast Day: July 15

Perhaps not a household name for most people, Saint Bonaventure, nevertheless, played an important role in both the medieval Church and the history of the Franciscan Order. A senior faculty member at the University of Paris, Saint Bonaventure certainly captured the hearts of his students through his academic skills and insights. But more importantly, he captured their hearts through his Franciscan love for Jesus and the Church. Like his model, Saint Francis, Jesus was the center of everything—his teaching, his administration, his writing, and his life. So much so, that he was given the title “Seraphic Doctor.”

Born in Bagnoregio in 1221, Saint Bonaventure was baptized John, but received the name Bonaventure when he became a Franciscan at the age of 22. While Saint Francis died about five years after the saint’s birth, he is credited with healing Bonaventure as a boy of a serious illness.

Saint Bonaventure’s teaching career came to a halt when the Friars elected him to serve as their General Minister. His 17 years of service were not easy as the Order was embroiled in conflicts over the interpretation of poverty. Some friars even ended up in heresy saying that Saint Francis and his community were inaugurating the era of the Holy Spirit which was to replace Jesus, the Church, and Scripture. But because he was a man of prayer and a good administrator, Saint Bonaventure managed to structure the Order through effective legislation. But more importantly, he offered the Friars an organized spirituality based on the vision and insights of Saint Francis. Always a Franciscan at heart and a mystical writer, Bonaventure managed to unite the pastoral, practical aspects of life with the doctrines of the Church. Thus, there is a noticeable warmth to his teachings and writings that make him very appealing.

Shortly before he ended his service as General Minister, Pope Gregory X created him a Cardinal and appointed him bishop of Albano. But a little over a year later, while participating in the Second Council of Lyon, Saint Bonaventure died suddenly on July 15, 1274. There is a theory that he was poisoned.

Saint Bonaventure left behind a structured and renewed Franciscan Order and a body of work all of which glorifies his major love—Jesus.
