19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Last Supper: Vicente Juan Masip

BELIEVING OR COMPLAINING

I don't want to complain anymore, Lord. I want to listen to you, to believe in you, to let myself be drawn to you. O Lord, I feel so contradictory! My selfishness, my resistance to believing without understanding completely, my tendency to make everything and everyone bow down to my own standards and ideas – all of this holds me back. Free me from myself, Lord; teach me to do your will...

I don't know how I'm supposed to remember all that you have taught me, Lord. The supply of your wisdom is too deep and too rich for me to keep it all in my mind. And yet, I want to live wholly engaged by your gospel, wholly enthralled by your message. Take my life in your hands, Lord. Guide my thoughts, desires, and decisions, so that I live entirely docile to your inspirations and your will...

You keep talking about raising up on the last day those who believe in you. It was on your mind. Why is it not more on my mind? Increase my faith, Lord. Teach me to see the world as you see it, to want the true and lasting good of my neighbor (and my family, and my colleagues) as much as you do. With the burning love of your heart, inflame my heart...

MINISTRY®

Christ caring for people through people

WHAT DO STEPHEN MINISTERS DO?

Stephen Ministers are parishioners who go through 50 hours of training in providing high-quality Christian care to individuals experiencing a crisis or challenge such as divorce, grief, terminal illness, job loss, hospitalization, relocation, or loneliness – or just the occasional challenges of life. Stephen Ministers are each assigned to a care receiver and meet with that care receiver for about an hour a week. This caring relationship will last for as long as the care receiver needs it.

With two Priests for over 2,000 families in our churches, it would be impossible for our Priests to meet every single need of every single person. While some crises require the care of a Priest, some needs can be met by these lay ministers. Stephen Ministry expands the care we can offer by equipping and organizing members to provide Christian care, bringing Christ's love to those who most need it.

If you would like more information about how to become a Stephen Minister or to receive care from one, contact Kathy at the parish office.

A Training Course for new Stephen Ministers will be offered on Tuesdays, beginning October 1, 2024.

For application information, contact Kathy:

Confraternity of Christian Mothers

Third Saturday of the Month,
beginning September 21

10:00 AM-Noon

Center Rooms 1 & 2

For ALL women in the parish

Mothers are the heart of the home.

Mothers play a vital role in upholding Christ's presence in the world through their high mission to the family. They nurture souls, teach their children, serve and strengthen their families, model Christian self-sacrifice, and witness to the unfathomable parental love God bears for each of His children.

The Confraternity of Christian Mothers is a pious association intended for mothers, which has for its special object the promotion of the good Christian and Catholic education of their children. The members join their hearts in love with the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin, the Mother of Sorrows, and unite under her patronage in mutual prayer and solicitude for the welfare of their children and families.

Although the Confraternity is intended to support mothers in their vocations, all women are welcome to join as we recognize the spiritual motherhood that all women are called to. We hope you will join us for enriching talks, good conversation, and prayer!

ST JOSEPH MEN'S GROUP

Looking for friendship with men?

Seeking to build or start a prayer life?

How is your spiritual life? Are you thriving or surviving?

This men's group is a structured but relaxed format, where:

1. Men pray together using Lectio Divina format
2. Group discussion of a book (Life of Christ by Fulton Sheen)
3. Pray for each other's intentions and choose simple weekly challenges

Why? Frequent, spiritual discussions lead to real connection and a better understanding of Christ. While simple conversation is needed for friendship, talking about important themes of life can be difficult if you see them only once a week after Mass.

Where/When? Center Room 5 in the Parish Center. Every Thursday when a least 3 men are able to meet. You can come as you are able.

Requirements: No weekly homework! Material discussed is read with the group during the meeting.

I am already busy. Do I really need this? Men (even happily married men) can struggle silently or feel lonely. The goal is to support your state in life. Furthermore, God may be calling you to participate to help fellow men who need a group like this.

Lives of the Saints

ST. JANE FRANCES DE CHANTAL

Feast Day: August 12

Jane Frances was wife, mother, nun, and founder of a religious community. Her mother died when she was 18 months old, and her father, head of parliament at Dijon, France, became the main influence on her education. Jane developed into a woman of beauty and refinement, lively and cheerful in temperament. At 21, she married Baron de Chantal, by whom she had six children, three of whom died in infancy. At her castle, she restored the custom of daily Mass, and was seriously engaged in various charitable works.

Jane's husband was killed after seven years of marriage, and she sank into deep dejection for four months at her family home. Her father-in-law threatened to disinherit her children if she did not return to his home. He was then 75, vain, fierce, and extravagant. Jane Frances managed to remain cheerful in spite of him and his insolent housekeeper.

When she was 32, Jane met Saint Francis de Sales who became her spiritual director, softening some of the severities imposed by her former director. She wanted to become a nun but he persuaded her to defer this decision. She took a vow to remain unmarried and to obey her director.

After three years, Francis told Jane of his plan to found an institute of women that would be a haven for those whose health, age, or other considerations barred them from entering the already established communities. There would be no cloister, and they would be free to undertake spiritual and corporal works of mercy. They were primarily intended to exemplify the virtues of Mary at the Visitation—hence their name the Visitation nuns—humility and meekness.

The usual opposition to women in active ministry arose and Francis de Sales was obliged to make it a cloistered community following the Rule of Saint Augustine. Francis wrote his famous Treatise on the Love of God for them. The congregation consisting of three women began when Jane Frances was 45. She underwent great sufferings: Francis de Sales died; her son was killed; a plague ravaged France; her daughter-in-law and son-in-law died. She encouraged the local authorities to make great efforts for the victims of the plague, and she put all her convent's resources at the disposal of the sick.

During a part of her religious life, Jane Frances had to undergo great trials of the spirit—interior anguish, darkness, and spiritual dryness. She died while on a visitation of convents of the community.
