22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Curses Against the Pharisees: James Tissot

How to Be Pure Within

Oh what need of a pure and humble mind has he who dedicates himself to be the place where the Holy Spirit works. Surely humility is ready to serve; it keeps far away all the arrogance of pride and it is eager to please the Holy Spirit through pureness of life. . . The virtue of humility expels the heart's pride through the spirit of fear and equally wears down the arrogance of the flesh by the remedy of a holy temperance. Humility is indeed the friend of the Holy Spirit and always prepares for him a spotless dwelling place, but an impure heart does not hesitate to offend him. Upon whom, says the Lord, shall my spirit rest, but on one who is humble and peaceable and who fears my words (cf. Is 66:2)? Surely where there is humility there is peace, there is fear and reverence for the commandments.

Humility shows you, man, what you are, what you have been, and what you will be hereafter...Why are you haughty, dust and ashes (Sir 10:9)?...Why do you fix your gaze upon a world which is passing and which as it shakes and crashes constantly threatens its lovers with collapse? Deceitful indeed is its grace and worthless its beauty, for not only do these not bring a long-lived joy, but they fade quickly away into the torment of everlasting lamentation. The things which are transient are not to be loved, nor are the things which flee away to be embraced. Rather should devotion be given joyfully to those things which remain forever...We should pant after the light of grace that the day of glory and honor may shine upon us.

- FR. ADAM OF PERSEIGNE

I.C.L.E. NATIONAL CONFERENCE

For the 4th year in a row, OLSOS educators attended the National Conference held at Benedictine College in Kansas. Over 160 Catholic schools were represented with 465 educators present over this weeklong event. This is a highlight of the year for those who attended and a great resource that nurtures our faculty for the upcoming year. We are grateful to be a premier member due to the generous donations by our benefactors.

WHAT ATTENDEES HAVE SAID:

"It was one of the best professional developments I've ever attended. The talks were very relevant to my state and life of a Catholic school teacher, and it was also a great opportunity to spend some time in prayer."

"I feel renewed, revived, and ready to tackle the school year ahead. I have a sense of peace and hope for the future in Catholic education."

NEW STAFF MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

Welcome, Mrs. Sandra Hall

Sandra Hall returns to the Northwest after spending five years teaching high school English learners in Houston, Texas. Her teaching career began as a homeschool mom, where she discovered classical education. Over the years, she has taught students of all grades in both Catholic and public schools and has been a bilingual ESL teacher for new immigrants at a community college. Sandra considers her primary identity as an intentional disciple and is grateful that the Lord has brought her back to the Northwest and to Our Lady Star of the Sea. Sandra is the proud mother of three adult children and a grandmother to four grandsons. Outside of parish life, Sandra enjoys dancing and crafting, especially rosary making.

Lives of the Saints

ST. GREGORY THE GREAT

Feast Day: September 3

Gregory was the prefect of Rome before he was 30. After five years in office he resigned, founded six monasteries on his Sicilian estate, and became a Benedictine monk in his own home at Rome.

Ordained a priest, Gregory became one of the pope's seven deacons, and also served six years in the East as papal representative in Constantinople. He was recalled to become abbot, but at the age of 50 was elected pope by the clergy and people of Rome.

Gregory was direct and firm. He removed unworthy priests from office, forbade taking money for many services, emptied the papal treasury to ransom prisoners of the Lombards and to care for persecuted Jews and the victims of plague and famine. He was very concerned about the conversion of England, sending 40 monks from his own monastery. He is known for his reform of the liturgy, and for strengthening respect for doctrine. Whether he was largely responsible for the revision of "Gregorian" chant is disputed.

Gregory lived in a time of perpetual strife with invading Lombards and difficult relations with the East. When Rome itself was under attack, he interviewed the Lombard king.

His book, Pastoral Care, on the duties and qualities of a bishop, was read for centuries after his death. He described bishops mainly as physicians whose main duties were preaching and the enforcement of discipline. In his own down-to-earth preaching, Gregory was skilled at applying the daily Gospel to the needs of his listeners. Called "the Great," Gregory has been given a place with Augustine, Ambrose, and Jerome, as one of the four key doctors of the Western Church.

An Anglican historian has written: "It is impossible to conceive what would have been the confusion, the lawlessness, the chaotic state of the Middle Ages without the medieval papacy; and of the medieval papacy, the real father is Gregory the Great."
