23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Healing the deaf mute of Decapolis: Bartholomeus Breenbergh

“He has done all things well.”

To give hearing and speech back to the deaf and mute man restores his ability to enter fully into human communication: to hear the voice of a friend and to express himself with ease. But his many years of suffering led to an incomparable privilege: the first voice he hears is Christ’s, the first person he speaks to is Jesus. “Here is your God,” O once deaf and mute man, “he comes with divine recompense, he comes to save you.” If we “adhere to the faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ,” we will be healed of every infirmity and be “heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him.”

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

SCHOOL NEWSLETTER: SEPTEMBER 2024

OLSOS EDUCATION - STEEPED IN THE STUDY OF HISTORY

“As a society, we are increasingly divided from our past, which is a significant part of why we are increasingly divided from one another. To put it another way: There is a real sense in which history has been forgotten; and having forgotten our past, we have forgotten ourselves.”

-ANDREW ZWERNEMAN, PRESIDENT OF CANA ACADEMY

TEACHER FEATURE

Welcome, Sister Agnes Rose!

Sister Agnes Rose MacKellar, O.P. is originally from Southern California. Through the example of faithful religious from communities such as the Norbertines of Saint Michael's Abbey in Silverado and the Sacred Heart Sisters in Los Angeles, she discerned that the Lord was calling her to a religious life. After graduating from high school, she entered the Dominican Sisters of Saint Cecilia in 2018. She has lived at the Saint Cecilia Motherhouse in Nashville for the past six years and completed a Bachelor of Science Degree in Secondary Education and History at Aquinas College in Nashville. While completing her degree, Sister enjoyed teaching history and literature at Saint Cecilia Academy and Notre Dame High School. Sister Agnes Rose is very excited to begin teaching the students in 6th through 8th Grade at Our Lady Star of the Sea School and to becoming part of the school and parish community.

Lives of the Saints

ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

Feast Day: September 13

Brought to Constantinople after a dozen years of priestly service in Syria, John found himself the reluctant victim of an imperial ruse to make him bishop in the greatest city of the empire. Ascetic, unimposing but dignified, and troubled by stomach ailments from his desert days as a monk, John became a bishop under the cloud of imperial politics.

If his body was weak, his tongue was powerful. The content of his sermons, his exegesis of Scripture, were never without a point. Sometimes the point stung the high and mighty. Some sermons lasted up to two hours.

His lifestyle at the imperial court was not appreciated by many courtiers. He offered a modest table to episcopal sycophants hanging around for imperial and ecclesiastical favors. John deplored the court protocol that accorded him precedence before the highest state officials. He would not be a kept man.

His zeal led him to decisive action. Bishops who bribed their way into office were deposed. Many of his sermons called for concrete steps to share wealth with the poor. The rich did not appreciate hearing from John that private property existed because of Adam's fall from grace any more than married men liked to hear that they were bound to marital fidelity just as much as their wives were. When it came to justice and charity, John acknowledged no double standards.

Alloof, energetic, outspoken, especially when he became excited in the pulpit, John was a sure target for criticism and personal trouble. He was accused of gorging himself secretly on rich wines and fine foods. His faithfulness as spiritual director to the rich widow, Olympia, provoked much gossip attempting to prove him a hypocrite where wealth and chastity were concerned. His actions taken against unworthy bishops in Asia Minor were viewed by other ecclesiastics as a greedy, uncanonical extension of his authority. John died in exile in 407.
