EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

Alleluia! Christ is risen! About today's feast, St. Augustine writes: "And he departed from our sight that we might return to our hearts and find him there. For he left us, and behold, he is here." Christ's resurrected presence lives not only in the highest heaven but in the fragile human heart. Christ's life inspires us and moves us to see a future for every human being and discover our true purpose and meaning. Every human being has a desire to live, and this cry can be heard within. There is a longing for a connection with Someone greater than ourselves that gives an import to our existence that we cannot supply. Today, our deepest questions find answers.

From Fr. Jose's desk

"The Empty Tomb"

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ Jesus: Hallelujah, the Lord is Risen! It is Easter Sunday. The Lord has passed from death to life. It is Resurrection day. This is the day of the triumph of the Lord, Hallelujah. We thank God that he has shown us his goodness and mercy through his Son, his Beloved, who freely offered his life as a ransom for ours. With his Death and Resurrection, Christ Jesus has redeemed us from our sins; and paid the debt we owed to God the Father. We now have access to the treasures of earth and heaven.

The Gospel of John tells us about the first witnesses of the Resurrection of the Lord. Mary Magdalene went to the tomb very early in the morning and, to her surprise, she found the stone removed and the tomb empty. She ran in search of Simon Peter to warn him of what had happened. "They have taken the Lord from the tomb and we do not know where they put him." Peter and John went to the tomb and both contemplated "the burial cloths placed on the ground and the cloth that had covered his head." The rolled stone, the empty tomb, the burial cloths and the shroud were the evidence that Jesus had risen as he had previously mentioned to his disciples. "The Son of Man is to be handed over to men, and they will kill him, and he will be raised on the third day". (Mt. 17, 22-23).

In the first reading, Peter tells us, "We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead".

What does the Resurrection of the Lord mean to us today, especially during this time of pandemic? It means that celebrating the Resurrection of the Lord is to renew our hope that goes beyond Easter Sunday. We know that the Covid-19 pandemic has brought much suffering and death to many people around the world. Thanks to science and current medicine, a vaccine is the hope to put a stop to all this tragedy that has made us vulnerable and has made us reconsider that life does not belong to us.

As Christians we rejoice because the Resurrection of the Lord brings us new hope that goes beyond the vaccine because every day, every morning is Easter, it is resurrection. Although the pandemic continues, we hope to celebrate as we mourn the suffering and death, because we believe in a God who has proven that sickness and death do not have the last word. I invite you to read chapter 15 of 1 Corinthians that talks about the hope of the resurrection; it will bring much comfort to your soul. May the Holy Spirit help us to resurrect the areas of death in our soul for the glory of the Father. Amen.

Fr. Jose Ugalde, MSPs

"La Tumba Vacía"

Estimadas hermanas y hermanos en Cristo Jesús: ¡Aleluya, el Señor ha Resucitado! Es Domingo de Pascua. El Señor ha pasado de la muerte a la vida. Es día de Resurrección. Este es el día del triunfo del Señor, Aleluya. Damos gracias a Dios porque nos ha mostrado su bondad y misericordia a través de su Hijo Amado, que libremente ofreció su vida en rescate de la nuestra. Con su Muerte y Resurrección, Cristo Jesús nos ha redimido de nuestros pecados; ha pagado la deuda que teníamos con Dios Padre. Ahora tenemos acceso a los tesoros de la tierra y del cielo.

El evangelio de Juan nos habla de los primeros testigos de la Resurrección del Señor. María Magdalena fue muy de madrugada al sepulcro y, para su sorpresa, encontró la piedra removida y la tumba vacía. Corrió en busca de Simón Pedro para avisarle de lo sucedido. "Se han llevado del sepulcro al Señor y no sabemos dónde lo habrán puesto". Pedro y Juan fueron a la tumba y ambos contemplaron "los lienzos puestos en el suelo y el sudario, que había estado sobre la cabeza de Jesús". La piedra removida, la tumba vacía, los lienzos y el sudario son la evidencia de que Jesús había resucitado como lo había mencionado anteriormente a los discípulos. "El Hijo del Hombre va a ser entregado en manos de los hombres. Y le matarán, y al tercer día resucitará". (Mt. 17, 22-23).

En la primera lectura, Pedro nos dice, "Nosotros somos testigos de cuanto él hizo en Judea y en Jerusalén. Lo mataron colgándolo de la cruz, pero Dios lo resucitó al tercer día y concedió verlo, no a todo el pueblo, sino únicamente a los testigos que él, de antemano, había escogido: a nosotros, que hemos comido y bebido con él después de que resucitó de entre los muertos".

¿Qué significa la Resurrección del Señor para nosotros hoy en día, especialmente durante este tiempo de pandemia? Significa que celebrar la Resurrección del Señor es renovar nuestra esperanza que va más allá del Domingo de Pascua. Sabemos que la pandemia Covid-19 trajo mucho sufrimiento y muerte a mucha gente en todo el mundo. Gracias a la ciencia y al cuerpo médico, una vacuna es la esperanza para poner alto a toda esta tragedia que nos ha hecho vulnerables y recapacitar que la vida no nos pertenece.

Como cristianos nos alegramos porque la Resurrección del Señor nos trae nueva esperanza que va más allá de la vacuna porque cada día, cada mañana es pascua, es resurrección. Aunque la pandemia sigue, tenemos la esperanza de celebrar mientras lamentamos el sufrimiento y la muerte, porque creemos en un Dios que ha probado que la enfermedad y la muerte no tienen la última palabra. Te invito a leer el capítulo 15 de 1 Corintios que habla de la esperanza de la resurrección; traerá mucho consuelo a tu alma. Que el Espíritu Santo nos ayude a resucitar las áreas de muerte en nuestra alma para la gloria del Padre. Amén.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Our Prayer Shawl Ministry is busy these days with friends calling to suggest recipients for our Prayer Shawls. As you know these are given out by our parish to those experiencing grief/loss, suffering and ill-health, or just find themselves alone. Wrapping up in a comfy shawl as you read, relax, or pray, reminds you that you are loved, and our parish is here to support you in any way we can. If you would like a shawl, please call the Church office and Veronica will get the message to me. You can also e-mail me, of course.

Shawls are made by our wonderful parishioners and they are blessed by our priests. A huge thank you to the generous knitters and crocheters who make this ministry possible. I will list the most recent contributors: Isela Diaz, Carol Taylor, Perpetua Delute, Therese Dougherty, Rose Ann Smith, Letty Lynds, Arlene Doennebrink, Pat Truckee, Apostleship of the Cross, Marge Molina. Some of you left shawls in the office without a name on them so I am unable to thank you properly ---please let me know who you are. God bless you for your generosity.

If you know of someone who might be in need of a comforting hug (via a lovely shawl), call me.

DO WE NEED TO FAST FOR ONE HOUR BEFORE MASS, OR ONE HOUR BEFORE COMMUNION?

The practice of fasting before receiving the Eucharist is a centuries-old act of devotion that was once very different than it is today. In the 1917 Code of Canon Law, for example, anyone who wanted to receive the Eucharist had to fast from midnight until the time of communion (even water and medications were forbidden). Over the following decades, the rules for the eucharistic fast were relaxed, first by Pope Pius XII and, later, by Pope Saint Paul VI.

The current Code of Canon Law (1983) states very clearly: "A person who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before holy communion from any food and drink, except for only water and medicine" (Canon 919, §1). And, in the case of those who are ill and the elderly, the rules are even more accommodating, "The elderly, the infirm, and those who care for them can receive the Most Holy Eucharist even if they have eaten something within the preceding hour" (Canon 919, §3).

So, if we strictly follow the "letter of the law," the fast is calculated from the time of Holy Communion and not the start of Mass. However, when we remember why we fast — it is a reminder of the deeper hungers of the spirit that our physical thirst or hunger symbolize — we see that the issue is much bigger than simply fulfilling what is called for by Church Law and tradition. Joining fasting to our prayers and reflection before Mass is an opportunity to really center ourselves and to prepare our minds, hearts, and bodies to welcome the One we receive in the Eucharist.

A WAITING HARVEST

Vocation Awareness

Satan the Lair

God's voice is most easily identifiable when he tells you that he loves you and that he wants you to trust him, which makes you feel peaceful. Satan's voice most often will cause anxiety and fear. Remember that Satan is very wicked and cunning. St Ignatius of Loyola, in his fourteenth rule of the discernment of spirits, offers a sound insight about Satan's tactics;

The enemy of our human nature studies from all sides our theological, cardinal, and moral virtues. Wherever he finds us weakest and most in need regarding our eternal salvation, he attacks and tries to take us by storm.

Just like a military commander looks at the enemy line and finds the weakest point, Satan studies your weaknesses and knows just when and where to attack. For example, if you are a person who finds it hard to trust, perhaps because of a past family issue, Satan will speak to you constantly about this issue. He will encourage you to distrust everyone, especially God: "Look at what has already happened to you. God cannot be trusted. Trust yourself only. Do what you think is best. Do not ask God anything."

This inability to trust God is a serious obstacle in discernment, and Satan uses it often. Recognize this voice and rebuke it. For example, you may find yourself thinking and feeling fearfully about priesthood, "I can't do that. I like girls too much. I could never stand up and preach a homily in front of all those people. I am afraid that I am not holy enough." This is likely the voice of Satan, who uses fear as his greatest weapon. He will try to add his influence on your own disordered voice.

You may become apprehensive because you think you must be a priest on your own power using your own abilities. No! You can only live a vocation to priesthood through the grace of God. This line of thought demonstrates that you are looking at yourself and not at Jesus (the first error) and you are listening to your own voice and not the voice of Christ (the second error). Therefore, you are not confident, and you are filled with fear. St. Paul says. "I have the strength for everything through him who empowers me" (Philippians 4:13). God will never send you where his grace cannot sustain you.

From the Book
"To Save a Thousand Souls"
Fr. Brett A. Brannen

O Jesus,
Our Eternal Pastor,
Deign to look with merciful eyes
Upon this part of your loving flock.

Lord,
we need a large number of priests,
and men and women
consecrated to the religious life.
Multiply vocations,
And sanctify more and more
your priests,
And those consecrated in the religious life.

We ask you all this
through the Immaculate Virgin Mary of Guadalupe, your sweet and holy Mother.

Jesus give us priests
according to your heart.

Jesus, savior of all people,
save them, save them!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Mary Magdalene was surprised when she found the empty tomb of Jesus. She ran and told Peter and John that his body was gone. Peter and John ran to the tomb. They found no body, just strips of cloth. One piece was the cloth that covered the face of Jesus. Peter and John knew that Jesus was not in the grave, even though they did not understand what it meant to rise from the dead.

PRAYER

Jesus, you died and rose from the dead so I can share your life on earth and in heaven. Thank you.
