Today, the First Sunday of Advent, the beginning of the Liturgical year, we begin a period of waiting –waiting for the Lord's coming, as we remember with joy his First Coming as the baby of Bethlehem. It is a joyful kind of waiting, a waiting for Jesus that contains promise, love, preparation, alertness, reflectiveness, prayer, new beginnings and fulfillment. It is a special kind of waiting for the God, who has come, does come, and will come. It is a waiting for Jesus the savior, the Christ, the only son of God, the Lord (Catechism of the Catholic Church nos. 430-451). It has both a penitential and a hopeful, expectant character. During these four weeks, what are we expected to do? We are expected to prepare ourselves to meet the messiah. Among all the preparations, the most important must be our spiritual preparation.

We meet Jesus not only historically at Christmas or at our death, or at the end of the world. We meet him every day of our lives, through all the graces of our friendships and the opportunities he gives us. We must watch for him. To watch for Jesus means – as Cardinal Newman said – to be awake, alive, quick sighted, zealous in honoring him; to look out for him in all that happens; to be detached from what is present, and to live in what is unseen; to live in the thought of Christ as he came once, and as he will come again; to desire his Second Coming, from our affectionate and grateful remembrance of his First.

MAKE THIS ADVENT SEASON A FAMILY AFFAIR.

There are a number of ways families can celebrate the season of Advent:

Make an Advent wreath and place it in the middle of the dining room table. An Advent wreath consists of a frame holding four candles placed inside a circle of evergreens. The greenery in the wreath symbolizes the promised new life in Jesus. The four candles denote the four Sundays of Advent. There are three purple candles and one rose candle. Purple is a sign of penance, and rose is the color denoting the anticipation of joy. Light a candle on each Sunday evening of Advent, saying a short prayer or singing a verse of "O Come, O Come Emmanuel." The light of the candles represents the light coming into the world as we prepare to celebrate Jesus' birth.

We Are Pro-Life

To posit a right to abortion, infanticide and euthanasia, and to acknowledge it by law, is to give human freedom a perverse and wicked meaning, absolute power above and against others. At that point authentic freedom dies.

Excerpted from the "Gospel of Life" by Saint John Paul II 'The Great'.

Sacred Heart and Our Lady of Guadalupe Music Ministry

As we approach Christmas let's stop a moment and thank our music ministers for all the wonderful blessings they have added to our Masses and celebrations. Without the music of our faith they bring us the season would be something far less meaningful than it actually is. They bless us all year in every season and occasion with their gifts of sacred music and do so much more than just "play the music." The selections are carefully chosen to reflect on the readings and the Gospel of the Mass or celebration. There are hours of practice, extra time spent with the choirs/cantors and so much more. The ministry brings joy and relief from pain and sorrows and helps to end anxiety and fear for many of us.

We are so grateful for the inspiration this music gives us and after the long absence of music during the pandemic we are only that much more appreciative for the joy and uplifting of spirits that it provides. It is simply joyful to hear the organ or keyboard and choir as we gather to worship. To our music ministers Fran Ferguson, Judy Gibbons and Candace Golden, thank you.
