FATHER'S CORNER
Father Mike

Today we begin the Year of Grace 2021, a new year in the life of the Church. Advent is the beautiful season of waiting and preparation. While there are many distractions this time of year, the readings for the first part of advent call us to be vigilant and prepared for Christ's second coming at the end of time! (The focus will shift on Dec. 17th to the preparation of commemorating his birth.)

Although 2020 was a most challenging year, with so many things out of our control, we do have control over the condition of our soul. Instead of worrying about that which we cannot control, may we strive to make 2021 truly a year of grace and holiness.

LA ESQUINA DEL PADRE
Padre Miguel

Hoy comenzamos el Año de Gracia 2021, un nuevo año en la vida de la Iglesia. El Adviento es la hermosa temporada de espera y preparación. Si bien hay muchas distracciones en esta época del año, las lecturas de la primera parte del adviento nos llaman a estar atentos y preparados para la segunda venida de Cristo al final de los tiempos. (El enfoque cambiará el 17 de diciembre a la preparación de la conmemoración de su nacimiento).

Aunque 2020 fue un año muy desafiante, con tantas cosas fuera de nuestro control, tenemos control sobre la condición de nuestra alma. En lugar de preocuparnos por lo que no podemos controlar, que luchemos por hacer de 2021 un año verdaderamente de gracia y santidad.

"Everyone who breathes, high and low, educated and ignorant, young and old, man and woman, has a mission, has a work. We are born at random...God sees every one of us. He creates every soul. He lodges it in a body one by one, for a purpose. He needs. He deigns to need every one of us."

Why is our Diocese conducting the Idaho Catholic Appeal?

Each year, the Bishop asks each and every one of the more than 170,000 Catholics living in Idaho to participate in the Appeal. He asks us to generously support the on-going ministries of the Church that provide educational, pastoral, and charitable outreach to those living in the Diocese. The Idaho Catholic Appeal provides about 70 percent of the support needed to fund the diocesan ministries each year. The other funding comes from parish assessments, fees for services, investment income and grants, and other donations.
