The Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to the flesh

Something you may have never heard of, but is a beautiful preamble to our Christmas liturgy, is “the announcement of the Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord from the Roman Martyrology which draws upon Sacred Scripture to declare in a formal way the birth of Christ. It begins with creation and relates the birth of the Lord to the major events and personages of sacred and secular history. The particular events contained in the announcement help pastorally to situate the birth of Jesus in the context of salvation history. This text, The Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, may be chanted or recited, most appropriately on December 24, during the celebration of the Liturgy of the Hours. It may also be chanted or recited before the beginning of Christmas Mass during the Night. It may not replace any part of the Mass.” (From The Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ)

*The Twenty-fifth Day of December, when ages beyond number had run their course from the creation of the world, when God in the beginning created heaven and earth,
and formed man in his own likeness;
when century upon century had passed since the Almighty set his bow in the clouds after the Great Flood, as a sign of covenant and peace; in the twenty-first century since Abraham, our father in faith, came out of Ur of the Chaldees;
in the thirteenth century since the People of Israel were led by Moses in the Exodus from Egypt; around the thousandth year since David was anointed King;*

*in the sixty-fifth week of the prophecy of Daniel;
in the one hundred and ninety-fourth Olympiad;
in the year seven hundred and fifty-two since the foundation of the City of Rome;
in the forty-second year of the reign of Caesar Octavian Augustus, the whole world being at peace,
JESUS CHRIST, eternal God and Son of the eternal Father, desiring to consecrate the world by his most loving presence, was conceived by the Holy Spirit, and when nine months had passed since his conception, was born of the Virgin Mary in Bethlehem of Judah, and was made man:*

The Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to the flesh.

A Synodal Path for Christmas

Our Holy Father Francis has called for a synod (walking together) on the subject of synodality itself, how the Church relates within itself to one another. It's a beautiful topic to be addressed as Our Lord attempts to draw us into that oneness of heart and mind that characterizes the Church at Pentecost. Pope Francis uses 3 verbs in his homily to open the synodal process (two years of gathering and distilling contributions from the whole church); encounter, listen, and discern. Here is the opening to his homily:

A certain rich man came up to Jesus “as he was setting out on his journey” (Mk 10:17). The Gospels frequently show us Jesus “on a journey”; he walks alongside people and listens to the questions and concerns lurking in their hearts. He shows us that God is not found in neat and orderly places, distant from reality, but walks ever at our side. He meets us where we are, on the often rocky roads of life. Today, as we begin this synodal process, let us begin by asking ourselves – all of us, Pope, bishops, priests, religious and laity – whether we, the Christian community, embody this “style” of God, who travels the paths of history and shares in the life of humanity. Are we prepared for the adventure of this journey? Or are we fearful of the unknown, preferring to take refuge in the usual excuses: “It’s useless” or “We’ve always done it this way”?

Celebrating a Synod means walking on the same road, walking together. Let us look at Jesus. First, he encounters the rich man on the road; he then listens to his questions, and finally he helps him discern what he must do to inherit eternal life. Encounter, listen and discern. I would like to reflect on these three verbs that characterize the Synod. (Find the whole homily here...

<https://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/homilies/2021/documents/20211010-omelia-sinodo-vescovi.html>)

We can practice these verbs during the Christmas season. Are we ready and willing to encounter all whom the Lord has put on our path? Are we willing to listen, truly listen to their hearts? Are we willing to seek the Lord's will together? St. Augustine had a favorite expression: “On the road to God together.” May the Christ Child make Himself known wherever you are this Christmas Season. May He warm your heart and reveal His goodness to you.

Have a very merry Christmas,
Fr. Ed and team +++
