ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to St. Mary's Cathedral

From its dedication in 1926, St. Mary's Cathedral has stood as the gracious center of the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon. The cathedral belongs to the 400,000 Catholics of the archdiocese and serves as a place of ceremony and celebration for those who come here. The cathedral is also a parish church, and as such it is home to its parishioners and a welcoming place for all visitors. More history of the Cathedral can be found on our website.

The cathedral was designed in 1925 by the firm of Jacobberger and Smith. It is in the Romanesque style with some Byzantine features and covers an area of 12,000 square feet. The stained glass windows in the transept date from one of the earlier cathedrals. Statues of the Sacred Heart and the Blessed Mother were brought in by the Benedictine monks of Mount Angel. The Stations of the Cross and the Povey Brothers dome above the altar date from 1926. Other artwork, including the paintings in the apse, the lights, the stained glass windows, the etched windows in the vestibule, and the icons were either installed at the time of the 1996 restoration of Archbishop Leveda or in the years since then.

FROM THE RECTOR

Capital Campaign - Many parishioners have approached me asking about the future of the Cathedral Project. I can tell you that over the last four months I have been working with the Finance Council to determine the future of the Cathedral Project. Obviously the pandemic has affected our efforts in many different ways and to a certain extent has caused us to rethink the direction, scope and application of the capital campaign. I am so grateful to the Finance Council for their hard work in getting us to the point where we hope to make an announcement to the parish regarding the campaign by June 1 or shortly thereafter. I would like to thank all of you who have contributed to the Cathedral Project and all who continue to support the needs of our parish. As phase 1 of the project is now complete it is now time to reevaluate the next phases in light of the post-Covid economy and culture. Thank you all for your patience and understanding.

Surrender Novena Starts Today!! - The Archbishop is asking all the faithful to join him in praying the Surrender Novena beginning Sunday April 25. This Novena leads up to a special convocation of Archdiocesan priests that will begin on May 4. He asks that you specifically remember the intentions for this retreat and the priests of the Archdiocese. Copies of the Surrender Novena can be found at the entrance to the Cathedral.

Holy Family Catholic Clinic recently opened in W. Linn and is run by a group of faithful catholic doctors who promote the true vision of Church's teaching on life and human sexuality. If you are looking for a new doctor at this time I can highly recommend the Holy Family Catholic Clinic. I personally know them to be professional, talented and catholic.

Catholic Medical Association - the CMA meets here on the first Saturday of each month. Starting will Holy Mass at 7:30am followed by breakfast and a presentation in the St. Joseph Hall - all are welcome.

Daily Mass - can I recommend daily Mass as a spiritual powerhouse. I know that 7:30am is early but I am sure that if you gave the Lord that extra effort in getting up and coming to daily Mass you will be blessed beyond compare. For many people I know daily Mass has changed their lives and hey have spiritually grown.

First Holy Communion - will be celebrated at the Cathedral next week at the 9:00am Mass. Please keep the first communicants in your prayers as they embark on this awesome Eucharistic life.

As always if you would like to get in touch with me please drop me an email at goconnor@archdpdx.org or call the parish office.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations, April 25:

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life.

Readings: For May 2, 2021

Acts 9:26-31/1 Jn 3:18-24/Jn 15:1-8 (53) Pss I

CATHEDRAL SCHOOL

Annual Third Grade Wax Museum

Third grade students picked a historical figure, read a book about them, did research and wrote a report. They then turned their report into a speech about their character and memorized their speech. Finally, they presented their speech on Zoom for parents, grandparents and friends as well as staff and other grades in the gym.

Cathedral School is accepting applications for all grades for the 2021/2022 school year. Go to www.cathedral-or.org to apply today!

New Members and Guests Welcome

Fourth Sunday of Easter April 25, 2021

Entrance Antiphon

The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

Entrance Hymn

The King of love my shepherd is, Whose goodness fails me never; I nothing lack if I am his, And he is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow With gentle care he leads me, And where the verdant pastures grow, With heav'nly food he feeds me.

Perverse and foolish I have strayed, But yet in love he sought me, And on his shoulder gently laid, And home, rejoicing, brought me.

And so through all the length of days Your goodness fails me never: Good Shepherd, may I sing your praise Within your house forever.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading Acts 4:8-12

Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said: "Leaders of the people and elders: If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a cripple, namely, by what means he was saved, then all of you and all the people of Israel should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead; in his name this man stands before you healed. He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone.

There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved."

Responsorial:

The stone, rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

Second Reading 1 Jn 3:1-2

Beloved:

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

Gospel Jn 10:11-18

Jesus said: "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own. I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again. This command I have received from my Father."

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

The Good Shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep and willingly died for his flock, alleluia.

Communion Hymn

Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless
Your chosen pilgrim flock
With manna in the wilderness,
With water from the rock.

We would not live by bread alone,
But by your word of grace,
In strength of which we travel on,
To our abiding place.

Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart;
Savior, abide with us, and spread
Your table in our heart.

Lord, sup with us in love divine;
Your body and your blood,
That living bread, that heav'nly wine,
Be our immortal food.

Closing Hymn

God, we praise you! God, we bless you!
God, we name you sov'reign Lord!
Mighty King whom angels worship,
Father, by your Church adored:
All creation shows your glory,
Heav'n and earth draw near your throne,
Singing "Holy, holy, holy,"
Lord of hosts and God alone!

Ture apostles, faithful prophets,
Saints who set their world ablaze,
Martyrs, once unknown, unheeded,
Join one growing song of praise,
While your church on earth confesses
One majestic Trinity: Father, Son,
and Holy Spirit, God, our hope eternally.

Christ, at God's right hand victorious,
You will judge the world you made;
Lord, in mercy help your servants
For whose freedom you have paid:
Raise us up from dust to glory,
Guard us from all sin today;
King enthroned above all praises,
Save your people, God we pray.
