Dear Friends,

"Ready or not, here I come." When you were a child, did you play the game, Hide and Seek? If you did, you will remember that the person who was "it" closed his eyes while the rest went to hide. To give them time to hide, the child started counting: 5, 10, 15, 20 and up to 100. Then he would say, "Ready or not, here I come!" The point of the game was to hide oneself so well that the leader could not find you, for if he found you, and beat you back to the goal, you had to be "it" the next go-around. The secret of the game was preparing oneself against being found and caught. With excitement we heard the words, "Ready or not — here I come!" In today's Gospel lesson, Jesus is saying to the world, "Ready or not — here I come." In chapter 13 of Mark, Jesus tells us that he will be returning to the earth "with great power and glory." As in the game, only this is not a game, there is a counting and an accounting going on right now. It is a countdown before the blast of his appearance on earth a second time to judge the world and to gather his faithful to himself.

The central theme of today's readings is Jesus' warning to us to be alert, watchful and prepared because Christ's Second Coming, coinciding with the end of the world, can occur at any time. Jesus, in today's Gospel, gives us the assurance that we need not be afraid of the end of the world, Christ's Second Coming and the Last Judgment if we remain alert and prepared. The Church invites us on this first Sunday of Advent to prepare for Christ's Second Coming, first by properly celebrating during this Christmas season the fond memory of Christ's first coming 2000 years ago, second, by experiencing Christ's daily advent or coming in the Eucharistic celebrations, in the Holy Bible and in the worshipping community, and third, by preparing for Jesus' Second Coming which, for us, will happen at the moment of our deaths or at the end of the World.

In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah prays for God's active presence so that the Jewish community, returned from Babylonian exile, may remain faithful to their God. In the second reading, St. Paul prays for the reconversion of Christians in Corinth who have misused their gifts and charisms and remain ill-prepared for Christ's Second Coming. In today's Gospel, using the short parable of the servants and gatekeeper of an absentee master who could return at any time, Jesus instructs his followers to be alert and watchful while doing their Christian duties with sincerity. The gatekeeper and the household servants are expected to be ever vigilant because their master is sure to return. Although the time of his return is uncertain, but the reward or punishment is sure and certain.

Fr. Richard Ruelas

Queridos Amigos,

"Listo o no, ahí voy." Cuando era niño, ¿jugaba al juego Hide and Seek? Si lo hizo, recordará que la persona que era "eso" cerró los ojos mientras el resto se fue a esconder. Para darles tiempo para esconderse, el niño comenzó a contar: 5, 10, 15, 20 y hasta 100. Luego decía: "¡Listo o no, aquí voy!" El objetivo del juego era esconderse tan bien que el líder no pudiera encontrarte, porque si te encontraba y te adelantaba para regresar a la meta, tenías que ser "eso" en la próxima vuelta. El secreto del juego era prepararse para no ser encontrado y atrapado. Con entusiasmo escuchamos las palabras: "Listo o no, ¡aquí voy!" En la lección del Evangelio de hoy, Jesús le dice al mundo: "Listo o no, aquí voy". En el capítulo 13 de Marcos, Jesús nos dice que regresará a la tierra "con gran poder y gloria". Como en el juego, solo que esto no es un juego, hay un conteo y una contabilidad en este momento. Es una cuenta atrás antes del estallido de su aparición en la tierra por segunda vez para juzgar al mundo y reunir a sus fieles.

El tema central de las lecturas de hoy es la advertencia de Jesús para que estemos alertas, vigilantes y preparados porque la Segunda Venida de Cristo, coincidiendo con el fin del mundo, puede ocurrir en cualquier momento. Jesús, en el evangelio de hoy, nos da la seguridad de que no debemos temer el fin del mundo, la segunda venida de Cristo y el juicio final si permanecemos alerta y preparados. La Iglesia nos invita en este primer domingo de Adviento a prepararnos para la segunda venida de Cristo, primero celebrando adecuadamente durante esta temporada navideña el grato recuerdo de la primera venida de Cristo hace 2000 años, segundo, experimentando el advenimiento diario de Cristo o su venida en las celebraciones eucarísticas, en la Santa Biblia y en la comunidad de adoración, y tercero, preparándonos para la Segunda Venida de Jesús que, para nosotros, sucederá en el momento de nuestra muerte o en el fin del Mundo.

En la primera lectura, el profeta Isaías ora por la presencia activa de Dios para que la comunidad judía, regresada del exilio babilónico, permanezca fiel a su Dios. En la segunda lectura, San Pablo ora por la reconversión de los cristianos de Corinto que han abusado de sus dones y carismas y siguen mal preparados para la segunda venida de Cristo. En el evangelio de hoy, usando la breve parábola de los sirvientes y portero de un amo ausente que podría regresar en cualquier momento, Jesús instruye a sus seguidores a estar alerta y vigilantes mientras cumplen con sus deberes cristianos con sinceridad. Se espera que el portero y los sirvientes de la casa estén siempre alerta porque su amo seguramente regresará. Aunque el momento de su regreso es incierto, la recompensa o el castigo es seguro y seguro.

Have you finished your Christmas shopping? Have you considered making a donation to Holy Rosary School as a Christmas gift this year? This year is going to be very difficult financially for Holy Rosary School. To keep students safe, we have limited class sizes, which means less tuition. In addition, the cost to run the school this year is greater than ever. Thank you for considering a donation to Holy Rosary School this Christmas. We are grateful for our community support.

¿Has terminado tus compras navideñas? ¿Ha considerado hacer una donación a la Escuela Santo Rosario como regalo de Navidad este año? Este año va a ser muy difícil económicamente para la Escuela Santo Rosario. Para mantener a los estudiantes seguros, tenemos clases de tamaño limitado, lo que significa menos matrícula. Además, el costo de administrar la escuela este año es mayor que nunca. Gracias por considerar una donación a la Escuela Santo Rosario esta Navidad. Estamos agradecidos por el apoyo de nuestra comunidad.

Prayer During an Epidemic

Lord Jesus, hear our pleas, our good shepherd and divine physician. We implore your mercy in the wake of an outbreak of serious illness and disease. Guide our efforts to prevent contagion and make preparations to care for those most vulnerable. Assist all professionals and volunteers who work to eradicate the epidemic now spreading. May our actions be marked by your steadfast love and selfless service and never by panic or fear. Bestow your comfort and healing to the sick, sustain and strengthen them by your grace. May they know your closeness as they carry the cross of illness. And may all you have called from this life come to worship you eternally with all the saint as you grant consolation and peace to their mourners. Amen Holy Mary, Health of the Sick, pray for us. St. Joseph, Hope of the Sick, pray fro us. St. Rocco, protector against epidemics, pray for us.

Oración durante una epidemia

Señor Jesús, escucha nuestras súplicas, nuestro buen pastor y médico divino. Te imploramos tu misericordia a raíz de un brote de enfermedades y dolencias graves. Guíe nuestros esfuerzos para prevenir el contagio y haga preparativos para cuidar a los más vulnerables. Asistir a todos los profesionales y voluntarios que trabajan para erradicar la epidemia que ahora se está extendiendo. Que nuestras acciones estén marcadas por tu amor inquebrantable y servicio desinteresado y nunca por el pánico o el miedo. Otorga tu consuelo y sanación a los enfermos, sostenlos y fortalécelos con tu gracia. Que ellos conozcan tu cercanía mientras cargan con la cruz de la enfermedad. Y que todos los que has llamado de esta vida vengan a adorarte eternamente con todos los santos mientras les das consuelo y paz a sus dolientes. Amén Santa María, Salud de los Enfermos, ruega por nosotros. San José, esperanza de los enfermos, ruega por nosotros. San Rocco, protector contra las epidemias, ruega por nosotros.
