There are many volunteer and service opportunities this month at St. Ignatius Parish. Please consider being part of one of our many social ministries.

Simple Needs is collecting clothing and footwear (both new and gently worn) for young people in need at Huckleberry Youth Programs, through February 9.

The Shelter Meal Program still has volunteer slots available for their February 8 & 9 and February 22 & 23 weekends of cooking, delivering, and serving meals for our homeless brothers and sisters in San Francisco.

Information about these and other St. Ignatius Parish social ministries may be found near the church entrances and on our parish website.

Thank you for all you do to be of service to our neighbors in need.

Oremus pro invicem | Let us pray for one another
Dear Sisters and Brothers –

I love Pope Francis for many reasons. Among the most significant is that he’s teaching me to trust God more deeply. Remember the two synods of bishops he held the month of October in 2014 and 2015? In the opening assembly, Francis encouraged the bishops to speak their minds and hearts, not fearing if they disagreed with him because the Pope believed in the goodness of the bishops and trusted that the Holy Spirit would be speaking through their holy desires. (This way of proceeding was a 180 degree turn from the prior two papacies, when such meetings were carefully scripted.) The resulting document was Amoris Laetitia, or The Joy of Love.

In September, Pope Francis invited me once again to trust God more deeply: Aboard his plane returning to Rome from Madagascar, someone from the press corps asked whether he feared a schism in the United States church, given that a small number of both clergy and lay leaders have been publicly and consistently critical of him in secular and Catholic media outlets. His response? “There is always schismatic action in the church. It is one of the actions that the Lord always leaves to human freedom … I am not afraid of schisms. I pray that they do not happen, because the spiritual welfare of so many people is involved. [I pray] that there is dialogue, that there is correction if someone has gone wrong …” There it is again, that trust in God and in the action of the Holy Spirit, that she is always present to guide the Church of Jesus Christ, and that we have but to listen and to trust.

I feel as though I’m being invited to trust now as we face some significant transitions in the next weeks. They involve our music ministry, and I wish I could tell you that I am excited about them. The first is that after more than five years at St. Ignatius Parish, Teresa DuSell is stepping out of her role as our Director of Music. Teresa tells me that she has an immediate need for time and flexibility to focus on her priorities of family and health. I am extremely sad. Teresa’s deep care, hard work, kind spirit and consummate professionalism have built our music program into one that causes us to marvel, opens our hearts and raises our souls, and helps us to notice Jesus among us more easily. Her most special gift, perhaps, is her ability to do big liturgies so beautifully, whether Christmas, Holy Week or our annual November Requiem Mass. Teresa also works so pastorally with couples as they prepare their weddings and with families as they navigate the loss of a loved one. I will miss her kindness greatly. This will be Teresa’s last weekend at St. Ignatius.

Also leaving us is Matthew Klein, our baritone and cantor. Matthew has led us in song for 12 years, and his voice has lifted our spirits toward God so many times. He is one of the most upbeat and positive people around the church, reminding me often of my most favorite quote by Teilhard de Chardin, S.J.: “Joy is the infallible sign of the presence of God.” One of my favorite annual events is Matthew’s working with the little ones of our community for the Children’s Choir on Christmas Eve. He and his husband are leaving San Francisco for a new adventure that includes affordable housing in order to raise their family. We will say goodbye to Matthew next weekend.

I think by now you understand why I’m not excited by the transitions ahead; we are losing two important members of our community. You can also understand how I – and we – are being called once more to trust God. I do not find it easy to imagine our music program without Teresa and Matthew, but as I am confident that God will provide for them, so will God provide for us. I commend them and our music program to your prayers.

Teresa and Matthew, on behalf of the St. Ignatius Parish community, I thank you for your years of generous ministry to us. All of us are grateful for the beauty you have brought to our worship and the ways you enhanced our prayer. We wish each of you all God’s very best. And our love and prayers go with you.

Oremus pro invicem.

Fr. Greg

A Mass Celebrating God's Special People

Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption

Principal Celebrant is Archbishop Cordeleone

Saturday, February 8, 2020 at 11:00 AM

On February 8th, there will be a Mass for special needs adults and children, followed by a reception in the hall of the Cathedral. Catholic adults and children with disabilities, and their families and friends, are invited to participate in a mass designed for them. Every parish has members with disabilities – this is a day for all to join in the celebration of Mass as a community supporting inclusivity of our special needs families. This Mass sends a message that all of God's children and adults with special needs and disabilities are welcome and are an integral part of the parish family.

The Cathedral is located at 1111 Gough Street (between Gough Street and Geary Street) in San Francisco. There is free parking at the Gough St. entrance.

First Spiritual Exercises: A Weekly Prayer Retreat

Ignatian Spiritual Life Center (1611 Oak Street @ Masonic Avenue)

Do you want to:
- Encounter God in a fresh, tangible way? Experience Lent through a memorable journey of prayer?
- Jump-start, develop, or deepen a way of praying that fits the rhythm of your life?

Join us for an introduction to St. Ignatius of Loyola’s First Spiritual Exercises, which has helped countless people grow closer to God since 1540. An openness to receive inner peace, a willingness to practice personal prayer (five times for 20-30 minutes) during the week, and a receptivity to share and support others along the way are all that is needed. Adults and young adults are invited to an experience of receiving inner peace in divine love.

The experience is guided by a team from St. Agnes and St. Ignatius parishes who have been in partnership with Fr. Tri Dinh, S.J. of Christus Ministries. Sliding scale cost is $15-50, which includes the book The First Spiritual Exercises: Four Guided Retreats, adapted by Michael Hansen, S.J.

Dates and other details now being finalized. Please contact Grace@SaintAgnesSF.org for more information or to share your interest in participating.
