November 26, 2023

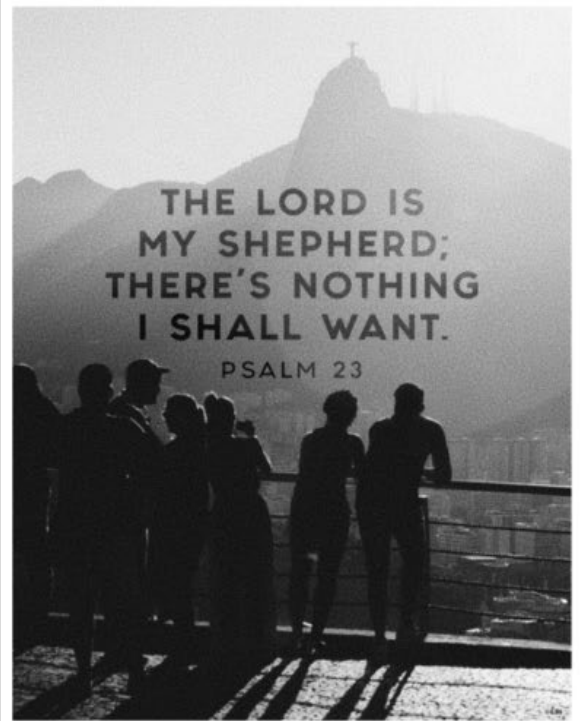

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

In May 2023, for the first time in almost three quarters of a century, a monarch was crowned in England. A few days later a friend of mine scoffed, "What a waste of time and energy! What is the point of a king?"

I'm a proud American who wants neither theocracy nor monarchical restoration. I like our democratic republic. But the coronation of King Charles reminded me of something needed in every person and community: confidence in the future. The king's most basic role is to symbolize the unity of the nation. In England, the parliament members handle many of the practical duties of governance. But the king or queen can do what they cannot: embody in a single person the reality and future of a whole nation. To say, "this is our king" is to say, "we exist as a community, and we have a future." Kingship isn't primarily about the power of one person or family. It's about the enduring identity and unity of the whole.

To say Christ is our King is to say we exist as a people. We are one in him. We are, and we will be as long as he is. And since he will be our risen king forever, together we have a future filled with hope. Even the best countries will finally fall. But Christ and his Church will endure forever. What good news! It's not a waste of time to crown a king. We do it all the time. Let's be sure to crown the right one – the one whose kingdom never ends.

– Father John Muir ©LPI

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Ezekiel offers a beautiful vision to the Israelites held captive in Babylon of God as a shepherd tending carefully to the sheep in his flock who are lost, injured, or sick. Who do you know needs to hear this message of hope?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches the Corinthians how believers are destined to share in resurrected life with our Lord Jesus Christ. What do you imagine resurrected life with Christ will look like?

Gospel:

The final Gospel reading of the Liturgical Year focuses on Judgement Day. All will be measured by how we treated those on the margins of society. What could you do this week to help the poor or the stranger or those in prison?

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO - PARA UNA COMPRENSIÓN MÁS PROFUNDA DE LAS ESCRITURAS

26 de noviembre de 2023

Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo

Este domingo, celebramos la Solemnidad de Jesucristo Rey del Universo. Hoy es el último domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, dentro de ocho días daremos comienzo al Tiempo de Adviento que nos prepara para la Navidad. Las lecturas nos hablan del Pastor supremo que es Jesucristo, que reunirá a las ovejas y a los cabritos para el juicio final. Todos, sin excepción, tendremos un examen. Seremos examinados en el amor y la caridad que hemos llevado a cabo en nuestra vida. Así que atentos, no dudemos en siempre hacer el bien.

El Papa Francisco lo explica de la siguiente manera: "Seremos juzgados por el amor. El juicio será por el amor. No por el sentimiento, no: por las obras, por la compasión que se hace cercanía y ayuda solícita. ¿Yo me acerco a Jesús presente en la persona de los enfermos, de los pobres, de los que sufren, de los presos, de los que tienen hambre y sed de justicia? ¿Me acerco a Jesús presente allí? Esta es la pregunta de hoy (11-22-2020). Pero, ¿Cómo lograr hacer el bien ante la guerra y violencia de todo tipo? ¿Cómo hacerlo en la familia dividida entre las dificultades? Creo que, es no perdiendo la esperanza y cooperar siempre con nuestro granito de arena que, aunque pequeño, será grande si va lleno de caridad y amor. Recordemos que estamos en este mundo para hacer el bien. Hoy se nos dice que Cristo vendrá con gloria para juzgar a vivos y muertos y su reino no tendrá fin. ¡Confiemos tengamos esperanza!

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA - REFLEXIONA Y RESPONDE A LAS ESCRITURAS

Primera Lectura:

Ezequiel ofrece una hermosa visión a los israelitas cautivos en Babilonia de Dios como un pastor que atiende cuidadosamente a las ovejas de su rebaño que están perdidas, heridas o enfermas. ¿A quién conoces que necesita escuchar este mensaje de esperanza?

Segunda Lectura:

Pablo enseña a los corintios cómo los creyentes están destinados a compartir la vida resucitada con nuestro Señor Jesucristo. ¿Cómo imaginas que será la vida resucitada con Cristo?

Evangelio:

La lectura final del Evangelio del Año Litúrgico se centra en el Día del Juicio. Todo se medirá por cómo tratamos a los marginados de la sociedad. ¿Qué podrías hacer esta semana para ayudar al pobre o al extranjero o a los que están en prisión?

Holiday Reminder: During the upcoming Thanksgiving season, there will be extra food barrels available at the doors of the church for your food donations. Thank you all for your charitable giving during these colder and leaner months to those in need in our community. Reminder: No food in glass jars, food that is past the expiration date, or home made goods or opened packages. Especially welcome: pasta, rice, canned meats and vegetables, any nut butter.

"Que este Día de Acción de Gracias sea una ocasión gozosa para nuestra parroquia, mientras nos reunimos con gratitud en nuestros corazones, agradeciendo al Señor por las bendiciones del amor, la comunidad y los abundantes dones que nos unen como una familia bendita. Que la gracia de Dios siga guiando e iluminando nuestras vidas, llenando nuestros corazones de acción de gracias hoy y siempre. Amén".

GOSPEL

Share food with the hungry. Give clothes to the poor. Visit people who are sick. Share the good news about Jesus with people who have made bad choices. Jesus came to forgive them. God will see the loving things you do. He will reward you one day in heaven.

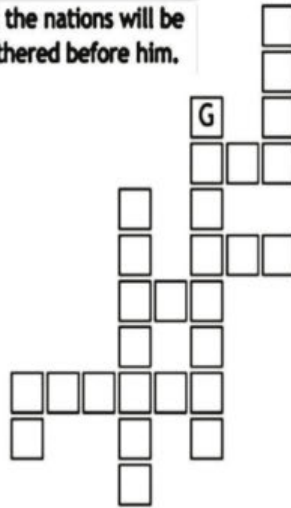

PRAYER

God, help me to share what you have given to me.

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

All the nations will be gathered before him.

MISSION

Read Matthew chapter 25, verses 31 through 46 with your family. Decide how you will make a difference. Share as Jesus asks.
