2 Miracle of Grace Curtis Stephan

Miracle of grace, mystery of faith, calling us to venture to the deep.
Though our senses fail, your graces still prevail, and we become the love that we receive.

Refrain

Bread of life, bread of life.
Those who eat this bread shall live and never die.
Bread of life, bread of life.
Your true presence in this holy sacrifice.
Bread of life.

Unworthy though we are, you feed the hungry heart with bread come down from heaven above.
And like a grain of wheat, we fall down at your feet, dying here with you. Oh, let us rise!

Your faithfulness revealed in this covenant you've sealed with your very body and your blood.
Come, claim your bride again with love that cannot end, for what God joins no one can divide.

3 Now Thank We All Our God

Nun Danket / Johann Crüger

Now thank we all our God, With heart, and hands, and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done, In whom his world rejoices;
Who, from our mother's arms, Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.

O may this gracious God, Through all our life be near us!
With ever joyful hearts, And blessed peace to cheer us;
Preserve us in his grace, And guide us in distress,
And free us from all sin, Till heaven we possess.

All praise and thanks to God, The Father now be given,
The Son, and Spirit blest, Who reigns in highest heaven,
Eternal, Triune God, Whom earth and heav'n adore;
For thus it was, is now, And shall be, evermore.

Text: 67 67 66 66; Sirach 50:22-24; Martin Rinkart, 1586-1649; tr. by Catherine Winkworth, 1827-1878, alt. Music: Johann Crüger, 1598-1662; adapt. by Felix Mendelssohn, 1809-1847, alt.

1 As Grains of Wheat Laurence Rosania

As grains of wheat are gathered in we've come together;
from lives apart we bring our hearts to make one whole.

Refrain

For many are we, and broken we've come, but we shall become one.

Each grain must fall and give itself: it first is broken;
then, joined with others, makes one body and one bread.

From many fields the harvest comes to feed the hungry;
the world cries out to taste the goodness of the Lord.

Your harvest, Lord, is gathered in; We stand before you to be your bread, to be your body in the world.

4 God, We Praise You Nettleton

God, we praise you! God, we bless you!
 God, we name you sov'reign Lord!
 Mighty King whom angels worship,
 Father, by your Church adored:
 All creation shows your glory,
 Heav'n and earth draw near your throne,
 Singing "Holy, holy, holy,"
 Lord of hosts and God alone!

True apostles, faithful prophets,
 Saints who set their world ablaze,
 Martyrs, once unknown, unheeded,
 Join one growing song of praise,
 While your Church on earth confesses
 One majestic Trinity:
 Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
 God, our hope eternally.

Jesus Christ, the King of glory,
 Everlasting Son of God,
 Humble was your virgin mother,
 Hard the lonely path you trod:
 By your cross is sin defeated,
 Hell confronted face to face,
 Heaven opened to believers,
 Sinners justified by grace.

Christ, at God's right hand victorious,
 You will judge the world you made;
 Lord, in mercy help your servants
 For whose freedom you have paid:
 Raise us up from dust to glory,
 Guard us from all sin today;
 King enthroned above all praises,
 Save your people, God, we pray.

5 Love Goes On Bernadette Farrell

Love is patient, love is kind, never ending, never ending;
 slow to anger, rich in mercy,
 love goes on beyond all time.

Love is faithful, love is true,
 ever joyful and forgiving; love endures when life is over,
 love is old and love is new.

Love alone has shaped our soul, and our hearts are always restless until love becomes our purpose, new creation to unfold.

Love our journey, love our goal.
 Though our faith may move the mountains,
 love alone can heal the broken;
 only love will make us whole.

Love, our Savior's one command:
 "Love the way that I have loved you,"
 with a towel and a basin, washing feet with servant hands.

There are three gifts that remain when all other things have perished.
 Only faith, hope, love enduring,
 and the greatest gift is love.

6 The Supper of the Lord Laurence Rosania

Refrain

Precious body, precious blood, seen as bread and wine;
here the Lord prepares the feast divine.
Bread of love is broken now, cup of life is poured:
come, share the supper of the Lord.

This is the bread of God
coming down from heav'n, giving life to us,
to all the world.

I am the living spring
of eternal life;
you that drink from me
shall not thirst again.

I am the bread of heav'n giving life to you;
you that eat this bread shall never die.

All those who feed on me have their life in me, as I have my life
in the living God.

All praise to you, O Christ, present in this feast;
in this bread, we share in one life, one Lord.

7 Remembrance Matt Maher/Matt Redman

Oh, how could it be that my God would welcome me into this mystery? say, "Take this bread, take this wine"?
Now the simple made divine for any to receive.
By your mercy we come to your table,
by your grace you are making us faithful.

Refrain

Lord, we remember you, and remembrance leads us to worship.
And as we worship you, our worship leads to communion.
We respond to your invitation; we remember you.

See his body, his blood, know that he has overcome every trial we will face. And none too lost to be saved, none too broken or ashamed. All are welcome in this place.
By your mercy we come to your table, by your grace you are making us faithful.

Bridge

Dying, you destroyed our death. Rising, you restored our life.
Lord Jesus, come in glory. Lord Jesus, come in glory.
Lord Jesus, come in glory. Lord Jesus, come in glory.

Be with us, Mary, along the way.
 Guide us every step we take.

Gospel Jn 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Question:

How can we pray for the dead throughout the year?

Answer:

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the ante-chamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

HELP Sr. Mulier Eucharistica AND HER RELIGIOUS COMMUNITY

Sr. Mulier Eucharistica is a former parishioner of St. Martin de Porres who entered The Institute Servants of the Lord and the Virgin of Matará (SSVM) in 2020. Her community is in need and asks for our support. Please see the note below from Sr. Eucharistica.

Dear Parishioners of St. Martin de Porres,

I would like to ask you for your help, but first let me update you on where I am. After having professed temporal vows of Poverty, Chastity, Obedience and Marian Enslavement in September, I entered into the next stage of formation at our International Monastic House of Formation in Tuscania, Italy. Here we are over 70 sisters from over 20 different countries. We dedicate three specific years here to our formation in Philosophy and Theology along with living our daily life of silence, prayer, and penance for the Glory of God and salvation of souls. As you can imagine with so many sisters and our life of poverty we are in need.

I specifically ask your help in these areas ...

- Money to pay for light and heating
- To build a structure for sisters to do laundry in
- To build two classrooms
- To replace four windows

I am humbled to ask knowing how much you have already helped me with your prayers. Thank you so much. May God reward you for your generosity! Please visit smdpyl.org to find the link to our PayPal donation page.

LENTEN STUDY GROUP

Small Christian Communities

This is a busy time of year for everyone as we pause to catch our breath between the celebrations of Christmas and New Year's. As you reflect on all that has transpired in 2021, you may be considering what you can do next year to deepen your spiritual journey. The Small Christian Communities (SCC) Ministry will be launching a number of groups that will be meeting during Lent 2022, and we invite you to think about whether this is something you would want to join.

Small Christian Communities provide a comfortable forum for you to reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings and share your ideas with a group of 8-14 other persons. Groups meet in homes on various days/nights of the week. Many of our SCC groups meet throughout the entire year, but we will also have a number of special groups that will just meet for the six weeks of Lent. Ash Wednesday is March 2, so we will have "SCC Sign-Up Sundays" on February 13 and 20 after all the Masses. We will also host a "SCC Information Night" on February 13, following the 5:30 pm Mass. This will be an opportunity for you to get more information about Small Christian Communities and explore whether you are interested in signing up for a dynamic and faith-filled Lenten experience.

Check out the SMDP bulletins in January and early February for more information on how to sign up for a Lenten SCC Group.

If you are interested in: serving as the facilitator/lead for a Lenten group; hosting a Lenten group in your home; or participating in one of these groups, contact mark.jablonski@stjoe.org or Kristine Jablonski at 714-514-79982. May the New Year bring you growth and peace.

We are excited to share what makes our school special and hope all who participate will experience the "Spirit of St. Francis!" Prospective families must register in advance at sfayl.org

To complement SFA's Open House Tours, the school will also be conducting a social media takeover by grade. Each day leading up to January 30 a different grade will share information about projects, field trips, and experiences unique to that age and stage at the school. This glimpse into what life is like at SFA will be available on Facebook @sfayl and Instagram @stfrancisyl January 18-30, 2022.

SKID ROW MINISTRY

Let's get back into the spirit of giving.

Join us Sunday, Jan 30 at 7 am when we caravan to LA's Skid Row.

This is an experience that the entire family can participate in while providing food, clothing, compassion and prayer to the men woman and children living on the streets of Los Angeles.

Our preparation day is Saturday, Jan 29. Join us at 9 am in the St. Elizabeth room where we will organize and fold clothes, assemble hygiene kits and make over 300 sack lunches. There is always a high demand for hygiene products, socks, and men's clothes. Call Brendan for further details 714-420-4528

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

It Takes All Kinds "If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.
