14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either.

INDEPENDENCE DAY PRAYER

On this Independence Day I am reminded of all those who have sacrificed for my freedom, following the example of your Son, Jesus Christ. Let me not take my freedom, both physical and spiritual, for granted. May I always remember that my freedom was purchased with a very high price. My freedom cost others their very lives. Lord, today, bless those who have served and continue to give their lives for my freedom. With favor and bounty meet their needs and watch over their families. Help me to live my life in a way that glorifies you, Lord. Give me the strength to be a blessing in someone else's life today, and grant me the opportunity to lead others into the freedom that can be found in knowing Christ. Amen

AROUND THE CHURCH

Beatitudes of Our Lord Faith Formation Programs 2021-2022 Register Now! Programs begin in August!

The Church teaches that the parent's role is primary in the formation of Christian values in their children. Our program is structured to assist you in this responsibility of passing on the teachings of Jesus Christ revealed through His Church and forming your sons and daughters as disciples of the Lord Jesus.

An informational video and Registration Forms are available on our website at: www.bolchurch.net. Download and complete the forms and e-mail them to reo@bolchurch.net or print hard copies and drop off at parish office. For more information contact Sandra Rehder at 562-943-5678.

Good Samaritan

Once again, we wish to express our thanks to all who have supported the Good Sam Pantry especially during the difficult Covid months. We continue to need canned/packaged staple items during the summer. These can again be dropped off in the wooden boxes inside the church before or after Mass. We are now looking ahead to the time when students return to classrooms and hope to help support families with bags of needed school supplies. Our goal is to collect the following items during July:

- ◆ Pencils & erasers
- ◆ Crayons and markers
- ◆ Pens
- ◆ Spiral notebooks
- ◆ Folders and ruled paper
- ◆ Glue
- ◆ Scissors

We plan to bag the supplies and distribute them during the beginning of August.

Please remember that we are only able to accept food packages that have NOT been OPENED. Our distribution dates are the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of the month.

Thanks in advance for helping with this special project.
Blessings, The Good Sam Leadership Team

- ◆ The process is designed for individuals who are not baptized, those baptized in other Christian traditions, and baptized Catholics who never received the sacrament of Eucharist and/or Confirmation.
 - ◆ It is a faith journey that encourages individuals to broaden and deepen their prayer life, to know God through the scriptures, to come to know themselves more fully and to actively participate in parish and community activities.
- ◆ You are welcome at any time, many individuals begin the process late
- ◆ summer/early fall and are able to celebrate full sacramental initiation at the Easter Vigil (Holy Saturday Night) the following spring.
- ◆ Parish members are invited to become directly involved by sponsoring a candidate. We also encourage and invite all who may be interested, to come and see what living life as a committed Catholic Christian can mean to you.

July 3-4 DID YOU KNOW?

What to do if your child is missing
It is every parent's worst nightmare - losing a child somewhere. If your child is missing, knowing what to do and acting quickly can help bring him/her home safely. First, call the police. Give them a full description of what your child looks like, what he/she was wearing, when you last saw him/her. Provide pictures if possible. Then call the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children at 1-800-THE-LOST (1-800-843-5678). If your child is missing from home, check your house thoroughly: behind and in large appliances, in closets, under beds, in your cars.

For more information, visit <https://www.missingkids.org/gethelpnow/isyourchildmissing>.

Altar Servers are BACK!

We'd like to invite all current students in grades 4-12 who are interested in becoming (or continuing) as an Altar Server at Beatitudes of Our Lord.

For more information you can email Mrs. Sandstrom at evsandstrom@yahoo.com.

Lectors

Beatitudes' lectors function as lay ministers in the Eucharistic celebration by proclaiming God's Word to the assembled faith community. It is a priority in our parish to provide a program of formation, practice and growth for women and men who feel called to this ministry.
