JANUARY 16, 2022
2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear sisters and brothers in the Lord,

I believe that I, like many of you, had hoped that we would be closer to what our hearts wanted to identify as “normal” by now. Alas, it seems it was not meant to be just yet. We have more waiting to do! Lord, what does this mean?

I sense the Lord is attempting to finally confront us with just how impatient and self-centered we have become as a society:

“I want it over now!” “No, you have not learned patience yet.” “I don’t want to discern God’s truth in the midst of the world’s lies”. “No, you have to look beyond what you want to think or hear.” “I don’t want to wear a mask, test, be quarantined or sacrifice my comfort.” “No, you must learn to think of others before yourself.”

Perhaps the return to Ordinary Time, the basic, numbered, Sundays of our Church, ordered one step at a time is exactly what we need! A step-by-step, primer on the Gospel teachings of Jesus; a return to the basics of our own Christianity and the commitment to live as a Christian in this world.

The scriptures for this Sunday can also lead us in a similar direction. As recorded in the Gospel, the first miracle of Jesus was one of “seeing others suffering” and “responding with generosity”. After all of Israel’s waiting – it was time and Mary knew it. She had been patient and waited for the timing of God; so with confidence she said “do whatever He tells you”.

The second reading speaks of the great diversity of the gifts of the Spirit. It gives the Christian the freedom to accept others as “not like them”, “to not be all alike”. Oh that this realization might lead us to be more patient with those who are not like us or doing it our way! We can be other-centered because we allow for the Holy Spirit to not just be working in us, but rather, working in all!

May our “new normal”, whenever it arrives, be a time when we and our society act with patience, generosity and other-centeredness. That seems pretty basic to me and pretty Christian!

As always, I wish you peace. – Fr. Ed

JANUARY 15-16 DID YOU KNOW?

Windows are hidden hazards

Did you know that windows are one of the leading hidden hazards in your home? Thousands of young children are injured each year from falling out of windows. The Window Safety Task Force recommends keeping windows closed and locked in rooms where children may be, and only opening windows located out of children's reach. Avoid placing furniture or shelves near windows so that children cannot climb up to gain access.

For more tips, visit nsc.org/community-safety/safety-topics/child-safety/window-safety.

RCIA Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults the Way to Become Catholic

- ◆ Are you interested, or do you know someone who is interested in the Catholic Church?
It is our greatest joy, as well as our mission as a Catholic community, to continually welcome new members.
- ◆ The RCIA is a process of formation, study and prayer for those interested in learning about and experiencing the Catholic faith tradition.
- ◆ The process is designed for individuals who are not baptized, those baptized in other Christian traditions, and baptized Catholics who never received the sacrament of Eucharist and/or Confirmation.
- ◆ It is a faith journey that encourages individuals to broaden and deepen their prayer life, to know God through the scriptures, to come to know themselves more fully and to actively participate in parish and community activities.
- ◆ You are welcome at any time, many individuals begin the process late summer/early fall and are able to celebrate full sacramental initiation at the Easter Vigil (Holy Saturday Night) the following spring.
- ◆ Parish members are invited to become directly involved by sponsoring a candidate. We also encourage and invite all who may be interested, to come and see what living life as a committed Catholic Christian can mean to you.
