PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

God of love,
Our world is wrought with war and violence,
As brother turns on brother,
and the innocent awake to gunfire and bombs.
May Your compassion and healing move hearts and bring a new day to Ukraine.
Fortify your children to resist aggression and instead become instruments of peace.
We ask this in the name of the One who is the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ.

Amen

Live the Liturgy
Everyone wants to experience peace. When we look to the world to provide this for us, we can easily get disappointed. We associate peace with an absence of war and conflict, good relationships between neighbors and coworkers, the achievement of success and even the absence of noise! While all of these are worthy endeavors, pursuing them exclusively as a path to experiencing peace sets us up for failure. When we look for peace outside of ourselves, it will never be found. True and lasting peace is something that comes from within and not something we can produce on our own or receive from others. Peace is discovered when we experience an inner wholeness and harmony. It is born of a sense of connectedness with a God who is larger and greater than ourselves, gifting us with His presence. It is the only the peace offered by the Risen Christ that can settle our hearts and calm our fears. Regardless of the degree of turmoil around us, this sense of completeness that Jesus gives anchors our boats and prevents us from sinking.

May the peoples praise you,
O God; may all the peoples praise you!

— Psalm 67:6

RETURNING TO ORDINARY LIFE

Six weeks into our Easter rejoicing, the Church gives us readings today that start preparing us for a return to ordinary life. The Acts of the Apostles and the Gospel both dwell on proper daily behavior for followers of Jesus, while the reading from Revelation reminds us why we bother with laws at all. In Acts, leaders of the church meet to discuss which essential elements of the Mosaic Law converts must obey if they wish to be disciples of Jesus Christ. John's Gospel reflects back to the Last Supper discourse when Jesus himself emphasizes the importance of obeying God's commandments. Observing God's law, says Jesus, shows a desire to be intimate with the Lord. We follow rules not for their own sake, but to love God and neighbor better. This more excellent love brings us closer to Revelation's vision of paradise, gleaming with "the splendor of God."

WELCOME

We warmly welcome all visitors to our parish, the heart of our Catholic faith-life in Ocean Beach since 1911. Thank you for joining us for Divine Worship. We hope you find ways to participate in our life in Christ through the various ministries we offer.

If you find yourself returning here, we invite you to join us as a member of our parish family. Use a registration form available at the HeartBeat Table or in the Parish Office. Or go to the parish website.

Your registration makes it possible for us to communicate with you and to plan and provide for your needs more effectively, especially for Baptism or Marriage, as well as eligibility to serve as Godparents or Sponsors.

FROM OUR PASTORS DESK

In this month, dedicated to the Mother of God, I wish to share with you a powerful truth. There is nothing you cannot conquer, nothing that cannot be resolved, no mountain you cannot climb if you devote each day to praying the Rosary!!

Growing up my family often prayed this very powerful prayer especially during the most difficult times. I did not realize then how powerful and transforming this prayer was and is! In fact, it is the most powerful prayer one can pray second to the Holy Mass. It has truly led me thru many battles and trials of life and enriched my desire to set the world on fire for God! Thanks to my parents, the Mother of God and the Rosary have been deeply rooted in our family life and even sustains me now as I poorly live out this priestly life to which I have been called. There has been no cross, no struggle I have not conquered thanks to our Holy Mothers intercession thru devotion to the Rosary. If only we would all pray this immensely powerful prayer every single day!!

Exorcist friends have shared with me how tormented demons are when praying the rosary. It pains them greatly as each hail Mary honors the Queen of Heaven. The sorrowful mysteries are a special agony for them as they acknowledge humanities salvation, which they can never have. Families are shielded by this prayer and demons cannot enter the homes where it is prayed. A protection is placed on anyone we particularly pray for using this devotion. Daily prayed, the rosary assures us heaven and the Blessed Mothers particular protection. All my decisions, faults and crosses I place in her care. I assure you, in these times we live and more difficult days ahead we will not find safety, peace, meaning or hope outside a loving closeness to our Lord Jesus in the Eucharist and the Blessed Mother in the Holy Rosary!! Without the Rosary we cannot win. With the Rosary we cannot fail! Holy Mother of God,

Fr. Thomas Kelly

Today's Readings

First Reading — The question of whether circumcision is necessary for salvation (Acts 15:1-2, 22-29).

Psalm — O God, let all the nations praise you! (Psalm 67).

Second Reading — John envisions the holy city, the new Jerusalem (Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23) or Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20.

Gospel — The Holy Spirit, sent by the Father in Jesus' name, will teach us everything (John 14:23-29) or John 17:20-26.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Sixth Sunday of Easter

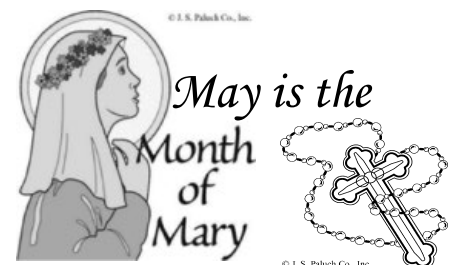

Grant, almighty God, that we may celebrate with heartfelt devotion these days of joy, which we keep in honor of the risen Lord, and that what we relive in remembrance we may always hold to in what we do. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Amen
