Registration is now open online, sacredheartob.org website, Children's Religious Education page. For more information contact Stephen Williams at religioused@sacredheartob.org or call him at 619-224-2746 *102.

Covid has NOT Gone Away!!

We have had several cases recently in our community. Here are some reminders about CDC procedures to follow for everyone's protection that we may have become lax in following:

First, maintain social distancing protocols and use an abundance of caution when in a crowd. We still have hand sanitizers at each entrance to the Church—use them.

Remember:

- Do not attend Mass if you have a vulnerable condition or if you are feeling sick.
- Wash hands before coming to Mass.
- Wear a face mask if you feel more comfortable.
- Distribution of the Eucharist will still be host only and in hands only.

We have a ministry that will bring the Eucharist to those who are homebound. Contact Theresa Bagg: 619-957-5088

theresabagg@gmail.com or Janice Teixeira:

if you need this service.

Stay safe.

SACRED HEART WESTERN BBQ

Date: July 23, 2022

Time: 5:30 PM

Location: SH Courtyard

Join Sacred Heart Parish Family for our Summer BBQ. It will be Saturday July 23, 2022 at 5:30 pm in Sacred Heart's Courtyard. We will be serving hamburgers, hotdogs, sides and more. We will have games for everyone to play (our popular trivia game is being brought back this year). This year we will have two bake offs in which to compete: one for adults to enter and one for children. For more information contact Stephen Williams at 619-224-2746*102 or email him at religioused@sacredheartob.org.

Christ Jesus . . . is the head of the body, the church.

— Colossians 1:15, 18

RIGHT RELATIONSHIPS

Our God is about relationships. In the first reading, Moses reminds the Israelites that the laws, which are already in their hearts, keep them in right relationship with the God who loves them so much that they always find forgiveness. Centuries later, along comes Jesus, whom Paul describes to the Colossians as “the image of the invisible God,” the very embodiment of this God of love. In his parable about the good Samaritan, Jesus explains how the law of love overrules the letter of the law. Instead of answering the question “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus demonstrates that it is not about who is worthy of being loved, but rather loving as God loves—about being neighbor, about being the good Samaritan. Jesus wants us to continue his work as images of this God of love by loving all people, even those who seem to be our enemies.

WELCOME

We warmly welcome all visitors to our parish, the heart of our Catholic faith-life in Ocean Beach since 1911. Thank you for joining us for Divine Worship. We hope you find ways to participate in our life in Christ through the various ministries we offer.

If you find yourself returning here, we invite you to join us as a member of our parish family. Use a registration form available at the HeartBeat Table or in the Parish Office. Or go to the parish website.

Your registration makes it possible for us to communicate with you and to plan and provide for your needs more effectively, especially for Baptism or Marriage, as well as eligibility to serve as Godparents or Sponsors.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

We can learn a great deal from Mister Rogers. Remember him? He was the gentle soul who found his way into living rooms worldwide starting as far back as 1968. Mister Rogers' Neighborhood was a beloved program that celebrated and exalted people, especially children. He taught us that we are neighbors and that everyone has a place. Everyone matters. He had a vision, born of his relationship with God that highlighted every human life's innocence, beauty, and uniqueness. To that end, he called us to be responsible for each other, saying nothing different than what Jesus said. Viewers quickly learned that life is not just about me.

“We live in a world in which we need to share responsibility. It's easy to say, ‘It's not my child, not my community, not my world, not my problem.’ Then there are those who see the need and respond. I consider those people my heroes (Fred Rogers).” It is so easy to look the other way. After all, I'm not the one who needs to leave home out of fear and try to find somewhere safe. I am not the one who is hungry and without shelter or food. I am not the one who has a child being bullied or ridiculed because of the way they dress or act. I am not the one being threatened with violence or unable to find meaningful work. The distress and agony of our neighbors are our distress and agony. We cannot walk by it with an attitude of indifference, especially if we call ourselves believers. When we no longer care, we have suffocated our souls. This is a great sin.

God's law “is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out.” We all have a need for love and acceptance. That's why Mister Rogers' television show was so popular. It spoke to something deeper, something sacred about humanity. God didn't give us his law in a book. He wrote it on our hearts. We know what we need to do. It's a matter of choice. Love is sacred. When we love another human being, especially without regard for ourselves, it is a holy moment. These moments are often missed due to our self-serving agendas and rules.

Today's Readings

First Reading — Heed the voice of the LORD. It is something very near to you, already in your hearts; you only need to carry it out (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

Psalm — Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.

Second Reading — All things were created through and for Christ Jesus (Colossians 1:15-20).

Gospel — To be a neighbor, show love by treating others with mercy, as did the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

Stewardship

Today's Gospel turns our attention to one of Jesus' most familiar stories, the Parable of the Good Samaritan. It is about living how God intended us to live: to acknowledge God's divine love and compassion lavished upon us, and to extend that love and compassion upon others without reservation. We can find a lot of reasons for not stopping to help someone. We can talk ourselves out of being Good Samaritans. Strangers are not our responsibility, or are they? Good stewards understand that God's mercy is a gift that must be shared, and that doing the right thing, acting as Jesus would act toward others, is the only course of action for one who lives according to the demands of the Gospel. How might you be a Good Samaritan this week ?

PARISH ACTIVITIES & HAPPENINGS

CARE OF THE WHOLE PERSON

The program at Sacred Heart is moving forward but many more hands are welcome and needed. We promise this is not a broken record!

The visits with those that are homebound or in long-term care are continuing. There is plenty to do for those of you who would like to be a part of this vocation.

ALSO, your input is important to God and the whole parish. Send comments, suggestions and questions to Janice. The next in-person meeting is July 13 at 3 pm in the conference room. A full parish meeting in the Hall is being planned for September. Stay tuned!

There is something for everyone! God bless our work. For more information Contact Janice Teixeira: 619-246-4955.

Fr. Tom

Q & A Sessions

This Monday, July 11th, Fr. Keith and Fr. Tom will be hosting the monthly Q & A session on the rectory balcony. The session will start at 7:00 pm. Bring your questions for both Fathers on; faith, teachings the Catholic church and a positive and loving attitude. Even if you do not have a question come for a delightful and informative night. Email Stephen Williams at religioused@sacredheartob.org for the zoom information. Hope to see you there!

In Memorium

Please pray for the soul of Greg Turton, the son of Gary and Deanna Turton, parishioners for many years. who died suddenly last week. Pray for the Turton family in this time of sadness.

May the angels lead him into paradise.

SACRED HEART BOOK CLUB

The new selection for July is “The Diary of Jesus Christ” by Bill Cain, SJ. Amazon describes it as follows:

While obviously not really the diary of Jesus Christ, here is a first-person account of the life of Jesus by noted Jesuit playwright Bill Cain. The diary places us inside Jesus's consciousness, where the spirit of discovery, surprise, learning, doubt, failure and growth is in sharp contrast to the canonical gospels where Jesus seems, from the start, self-assured and even predestined to fulfill his role. It is a bold attempt to understand the person whom more than two billion people claim as their savior.

Paper back copy is $17.39 and Kindle, $9.99.

We will be meeting July 12th at 10:30.AM The location to be determined. Please call is you have any questions.

All are welcome. If you have any questions please contact Cindy Krause. (925-639-9089)

PETER’S PENCE

Thank you for your generous support in last week’s Peter’s Pence Collection. Our contributions will join those from our brothers and sisters that support the work of the Universal Church, including the work of the Holy See, and the charitable works of Pope Francis. If you missed the collection, it is not too late to give. Visit www.obolodisanpietro.valen.html.

SAFE ENVIRONMENTS ARE IMPORTANT

The Diocese of San Diego and Sacred Heart are committed to prevent sexual abuse and to maintain a safe environment for children and young people. To report suspected sexual misconduct or child abuse within our institutions and ministries please contact Mary Acosta at the Child and Youth Protection Office, Victim Assistance Coordinator at: misconduct@sdcatholic.org. 858-490-8353.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

TWILIGHT IN THE PARK RETURNS!!

The beloved FREE concert series at the World Famous Balboa Park’s Organ Pavilion opens again and celebrates it’s 40th summer season under twilight skies beginning on June 28, thru August 3, 2022! A long standing summer tradition in San Diego, these outdoor concerts run every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evening from 6:30 to 7:30 pm through August 3, 2022. There is a different concert and group every night. See you there.

For more information please call Kitty Ochipinti at (619) 431-5171.

WELCOME!

We are pleased to welcome Josh Ulrich and Amara Harris, our new music ministers. They are a couple from San Diego and are so happy to be leading the music for the 5:00 PM Mass at Sacred Heart!

Amara recently entered the Church this past Easter and is loving this new phase of her journey!

Josh was born and raised Catholic. They both love music and love to sing, especially when it is for worshipping the Lord.

Please stop by to say hi, they would love to meet you!

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who shows the light of your truth to those who go astray, so that they may return to the right path, give all who for the faith they profess are accounted Christians the grace to reject whatever is contrary to the name of Christ and to strive after all that does it honor. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Amen
