27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." - Mt 21:42ab

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPi

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus tells the Parable of the Tenants and reveals himself as the "cornerstone the builders rejected."

Hoarding the Harvest

I've always thought the Parable of the Tenants could be a storyline on one of those "world's dumbest criminals" shows.

Serial murder seems like an absolutely insane course of action simply to hoard the profits of a harvest you don't legally own. In what world did the tenants think they would get away with that? Furthermore, they must have had a contract with their landowner ensuring payment for their labor. Why, all of a sudden, is this payment not enough?

It's easy to dismiss the tenants as paranoid. Selfish. Greedy.

But then I think of my soul — my own little vineyard. Who owns it? Who bought it at great cost?

You see, the Parable of the Tenants isn't a story about greed. It's a story about trust. The tenants don't trust the landowner to give them their payment, to honor his promises. They're scared. They're resentful. They're angry.

And I get it.

Around my vineyard, there is a hedge, a protective barrier of grace shielding the fruit within from the toxic fumes of a fallen world. There is a wine press, so that the harvest of my vineyard can fulfill its ultimate purpose instead of withering, forgotten, on the branch. And there is a tower, tall and sturdy, built by capable hands. From its summit, I can see predators — animals, thieves — a long time before they reach me.

But I can see something else from the tower, too. I can see the landowner's Son, making his way to the gates of my vineyard. He is coming to claim the harvest. He is coming to give me what is promised.

Do I trust him? Do I let him in?

St. Mary's Religious Education Visits First Responders

On Sunday, September 27th, St. Mary's Religious Education children, led by the Saints in the Making class, visited Kingman Fire Station 21 to deliver a care package from Operation Gratitude, along with appreciation cards made by the R.E. children.
The children and their families were then treated to a tour of the Fire Station.

A special thank you to Beth and the firefighters on duty (Cesar, Chad, and Odom) for taking the time to talk to our group and show us the station!

St. Vincent de Paul

In addition to monetary donations, we rely on donated goods to provide a wide range of assistance to the needy in our community. A large portion of our revenue comes from donated furniture and appliances. Unfortunately our one driver is dealing with family obligations and is often unavailable to pick up those items. We have to refer donors to other agencies, causing our revenue to suffer.
We are asking all able-bodied men in the Parish to seriously consider volunteering even one day a week to help alleviate this situation.
You will be joining a great team of dedicated volunteers!
