25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me." - Mk 9:35b-37a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

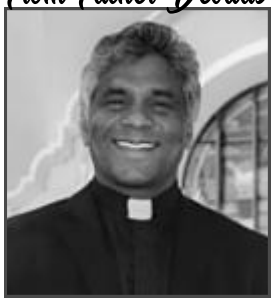
From Father Devdas



This Sunday is the twenty-fifth Sunday in ordinary time. This week's readings teach us the virtue of humility and invite us to become great in the sight of God. We become great by doing God's will, as Jesus did, by surrendering our lives to the service of others.

The first reading, taken from the Book of Wisdom, presents Jesus as a "Suffering Servant". It refers to a righteous sufferer and points to Jesus' crucifixion. "The 'just one' who is faithful, will suffer at the hands of the wicked. Nonetheless, God will 'take care' of' the 'just one.'" God did not save Jesus from suffering and death at the hands of those who rejected His teachings, but God did raise Jesus to new life. God does "take care of" those who are faithful. Because of the parallel between this scenario and Christ's Passion, this passage has come to be regarded as a prediction of the Passion. This reading tells us how the world often mistreats those who strive to live justly and do God's will. The reading also serves as hope and encouragement for those experiencing unjust suffering and assures them of God's strength.

In the second reading, James compares spiritual wisdom with earthly wisdom. James states that conflict and disputes come from our inordinate desires, worldly cravings and selfish ambitions. It is precisely this kind of conflict that appears in the Gospel when the apostles argue about who will be the highest ranked in the Kingdom of God. James contrasts this kind of jealousy and selfishness with the wisdom from above, spiritual wisdom, which produces a harvest of righteousness, peace and holiness. Those who follow heavenly wisdom will continue to experience peace. James further instructs that we do not possess what we desire, because we do not ask for it from God in prayer.

In the Gospel, Jesus says that people who serve humbly are the greatest. Presenting a child to them, Jesus explains that one who wishes to be the first among them must be a servant to all. True greatness consists of serving one's fellow man and is never self-centered. It lies in the ability to see and respond to the needs of others, and it presupposes compassion and sympathy. The two conditions of true greatness are humility and service. This vocation to service belongs to the Church as a whole as well as to every member of the Church. In other words, the Christian vocation is an apostolate of bearing witness to Christ through loving and humble service.

So, greatness, in Jesus' view is found in our willingness to accept, welcome and serve people in need. We must welcome people in the same fashion as a child welcomes them. If we are to be truly great, we must be ready to accept four challenges: (1) to put ourselves last, (2) to be the servant of all, (3) to receive the most insignificant human beings with love, and (4) to expect nothing in return. Children reflect the innocence, purity, simplicity and tenderness of our Lord, but it is not enough to just imitate them. We need to love them, train them and take care of them, not to give scandal to them.

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus asked his disciples, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest (Mark 9:33-34). Even Jesus' closest friends had a hard time understanding the command that his followers be the last of all and servant of all. Good stewardship is a wonderful way to be the servant of others.

Saint Joseph: Marceline Marques

The Holy Father Pope Francis has proclaimed a special "Year of Saint Joseph," that began on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, December 8, 2020, and is extending to December 8, 2021.

The Holy Father describes Saint Joseph as a beloved father, a tender and loving father, an obedient father, an accepting father; a father who is creatively courageous, a working father, a father in the shadows.

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you, God entrusted his only Son;
In you, Mary placed her trust;
With you, Christ became man.
Blessed Joseph, to us, too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.

The Santa Sophia Safe Place Team is shifting its focus to providing information about resources for people affected by abuse. If you or someone you know needs help with domestic abuse issues, please call the 24 hour hotline at 1-800-799-SAFE(7233). IN AN EMERGENCY, call 911. The city hotline at 211 can also be a great help in providing information and resources when you have a specific concern. The Santa Sophia Safe Place Team will now concentrate its energy on the sharing of information with our parishioners, or anyone in need by continuing with our vestibule displays 2 to 3 times a year after weekend masses. These will present helpful information on issues of domestic violence, child abuse, elder abuse, and other abuse concerns that affect our community. Team members will continue to be available if you have questions. Thank you for your past and continued support.

My Experience at Santa Sophia and the Parish Picnic

Hi! I am Dalila Whalen, I'm 13 years old, and I am very excited to share my thoughts about our parish community at Santa Sophia. My family came to this church for the first time two years ago, and we really enjoyed the Mass and how welcoming everyone was. This is a very engaging church, and it has lots of programs to participate in, such as youth groups, choir, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Bible studies. I joined Jr. High Youth Group and sing in the Kids Chorale choir. I really enjoy these groups because I get to meet new people and stay social. I also met my friends: Hannah, Allison, Karina and Elizabeth there; so, I am very grateful for this church. There are many opportunities for teens to volunteer, which I think is really cool because we get to have fun and help out our church community. My military family moves around a lot, which means I have been to quite a few churches, but this one has definitely been my favorite.

Our end of summer Family Picnic was a great time for everyone participating. There were games for all ages, including the parents, in fact my mom won a cake in the cakewalk. A lot of people were dancing to the music playing, it was nice to see so many people having fun and enjoying themselves. The Kid's Chorale Choir performed a few songs for everyone. It was very refreshing to see so many people with positive attitudes and smiling faces. There was also a hula hoop contest and water balloon fight, which were very entertaining to watch. The food was really good too, there were burgers, chips, desserts, and drinks. Thank you to everyone who helped arrange the Family Picnic, we all enjoyed it. -Dalila Whalen

Outdoor Movie Night

Saturday, September 25th
from 5:30 to 8:00 PM

Join the Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Daughters for a free family-friendly Outdoor Movie Night on Saturday, September 25th. A free dinner will be served from 5:30 pm until 6 pm behind the church hall. Eat at the picnic benches with family, friends and other parishioners then move to the big screen in the parking lot for the movie. The movie start time will be about 6 pm. Bring chairs or blankets to relax in while watching the movie, A Dog's Purpose, with popcorn to snack on. Door prizes will be handed out to lucky winners during a short break. The evening should end by 8 pm. A responsible adult must accompany all children. All parishioners are invited to come and enjoy the fellowship, movie and relax.

DON'T MISS IT!

MAD SCIENCE, INDIAN HILLS, AND ROCKET CAMP!

Many exciting adventures await our boys and girls this fall. Mad Science will provide memorable entertain while educating our youth and their families with their zany science tricks on September 28th. Indian Hills is one of the great campgrounds for our families to enjoy in late October. Almost nothing beats the excitement of watching rockets our youth have made soar over a thousand feet into the air during Rocket Camp in November. There is still time to sign up to attend these Scouting events! For additional information, contact Jim Brown at brownfamilybusiness@hotmail.com or TEXT to 619-248-4905.

Haiti: Assistance to the Earthquake Victims

The National Conference of Bishops in the United States has called for a special collection to respond to the humanitarian and significant church recovery needs due to the recent earthquake in Haiti. Also, several of our parishioners have been asking how they can contribute to this cause. To make your contribution to this effort, you may make your donations through the diocesan website at www.sdcatholic.org, or you can also use Santa Sophia E-Giving by choosing the option "Other Special Collection (Haiti)." Checks may also be made out to Santa Sophia with the words "Haiti collection" on the memo line.

Daily Prayer for Priests

O Jesus,
I pray for your faithful and fervent priests;
For your unfaithful and tepid priests;
For your priests laboring at home or
Abroad in distant mission fields.
For your tempted priests;
For your lonely and desolate priests;
For your young priests; For your dying priests;
For the souls of your priests in Purgatory.
But above all, I recommend to you
The priests dearest to me:
The priest who baptized me;
The priests who absolved me from my sins;
The priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion;
The priests who taught and instructed me;
All the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially).
O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart,
And bless them abundantly
in time and in Eternity.
Amen.
