LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

It was the best of times and it was the worst of times. Our families can bring out the best and the worst in us. This is true of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our church, our society, and the like. In all of our family experiences, what stands out as our most challenging memory? Everything human can be found on the pages of family life. But there is also a Divine story to be discovered as well. When life gets difficult and perplexing, today's Feast of the Holy Family stands to remind us that it is not just by human effort that we tread treacherous waters. We have to remember and learn from the Divine effort too. We need this perspective if our love lessons are going to be learned completely and well. We are all works in progress and we all come from homes that are broken by imperfection. In whatever life brings us and in whatever family we find ourselves, may the promptings we feel toward faith and hope lead us to greater love.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr. A man filled with grace and power, he worked great wonders among the people. Some Jews debated with St. Stephen but could not match his wisdom and spirit. Eventually, a charge of blasphemy was brought up against him, and the local population demanded that he be tried and sentenced. He was seized and carried before the Sanhedrin.

Despite the danger he faced, in front of the Sanhedrin and his accusers, St. Stephen gave a long speech about the history of Israel and the blessings that God had given upon His chosen people. He talked about how Israel had become disobedient despite God's abundant mercy. This enraged his accusers, and eventually the crowd dragged him out of the city and stoned him to death.

Even in his final moments, St. Stephen displayed great forgiveness and even asked God not to hold the sins of his attackers against them. Hundreds of years after his death, he is still a role model for us to follow.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

"I prayed for this child, and the LORD granted my request. Now I, in turn, give him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he shall be dedicated to the LORD."
(1 Sm 1:27-28)

PSALM

Blessed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord. (Ps 84)

SECOND READING

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. And so we are. (1 Jn 3:1)

GOSPEL

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. (Lk 2:46)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

THE HOLY FAMILY

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man. - Lk 2:51-52

"The Church's love for the poor . . . is a part of her constant tradition." This love is inspired by the Gospel of the Beatitudes, of the poverty of Jesus, and of his concern for the poor. . . . "Those who are oppressed by poverty are the object of a preferential love on the part of the Church which, since her origin and in spite of the failings of many of her members, has not ceased to work for their relief, defense, and liberation."

(Catechism of the Catholic Church)

"El amor de la Iglesia por los pobres. . . es parte de su tradición constante. "Este amor está inspirado en el Evangelio de las Bienaventuranzas, de la pobreza de Jesús y de su preocupación por los pobres ..." Los oprimidos por la pobreza son objeto de una preferencia amor de parte de la Iglesia que, desde su origen y a pesar de las fallas de muchos de sus miembros, no ha dejado de trabajar por su alivio, defensa y liberación"

(Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica).

ACTUALIZACION FINANCIERA

INGRESOS OPERATIVOS FRENTE A GASTOS

Las líneas de tendencia para ingresos y gastos son consistentes con nuestro pronóstico presupuestario. Nuestros ingresos de ofertorio se mantienen un 8% por debajo de los tiempos anteriores a COVID y aunque hemos reducido nuestros gastos de manera significativa, ciertos aumentos están fuera de nuestro control. (servicios públicos, impuestos, seguros)

Julio y agosto reflejan los ingresos para la matrícula anual de formación en la fe. El mes de septiembre - noviembre refleja un déficit operativo que es indicativo de lo que anticipamos para el resto del año fiscal a menos que aumenten los ingresos del ofertorio.

FINANCIAL UPDATE

OPERATING REVENUE VS EXPENDITURES

The trend lines for revenue and expenditures are consistent with our budget forecast. Our offertory income remains 8% below pre-COVID times and while we have reduced our expenditures significantly, certain increases are out of our control. (utilities, taxes, insurance)

July & August reflect income for annual Faith Formation tuition. September–November reflect an operating deficit which is indicative of what we anticipate for the remainder of the fiscal year unless the Offertory income increases.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

When Jesus traveled to Jerusalem as a 12-year-old young man, he felt completely at home in the Temple. He enjoyed talking to the teachers about his Father in heaven. His questions and his answers showed how much he loved God.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to feel at home in my church like Jesus did.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Help visitors to your church feel welcomed. As a family or as a class, make cards for visitors, asking them to come back.
