LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God, interpreting it so that all could understand what was read. (Neh 8:8)

PSALM

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life. (Ps 19)

SECOND READING

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit. (1 Cor 12:12)

GOSPEL

He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." (Lk 1:21)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

SAFETY FIRST! As the COVID-19 pandemic continues, the Red Cross will follow COVID-19 safety protocols during all Sound the Alarm events to protect the people they serve and their volunteers.

Visit SoundTheAlarm.org/SoCal or call 714-481-5334 for more information or to sign up for free smoke alarm installation

You may only have two minutes to escape your burning home during a fire. Prepare now by planning and practicing your family's escape plan. Learn more at SoundTheAlarm.org/SoCal #EndHomeFires

In a home fire, can your family safely escape in just 2 minutes?

This spring, the American Red Cross Southern California Region and partners will Sound the Alarm to help #EndHomeFires in local communities by educating people about home fire safety and installing smoke alarms. The Red Cross and partners will canvas neighborhoods to install free smoke alarms in homes, replace batteries in existing alarms and help families create home fire escape plans.

This week you should have received information about the 2022 DDF Annual Appeal. Once a year, our Bishop invites each of us to make a commitment to support the work of our diocesan programs and ministries that enhance our church by helping all of God's children build deeper and more meaningful relationships with Him. This effort is a means by which we can all work together to care for the church by sharing the gifts God has granted us. Our parish goal is 100% participation. We welcome you to join us in joyfully supporting the 2022 DDF Annual Appeal. Please take this week to reflect and pray about the blessings you are called to share with your Catholic family.

ACTUALIZACION FINANCIERA

INGRESOS OPERATIVOS FRENTE A GASTOS

Las líneas de tendencia para ingresos y gastos son consistentes con nuestro pronóstico presupuestario. Nuestros ingresos de ofertorio se mantienen un 8% por debajo de los tiempos anteriores a COVID y aunque hemos reducido nuestros gastos de manera significativa, ciertos aumentos están fuera de nuestro control. (servicios públicos, impuestos, seguros)

Si bien el mes de diciembre refleja un superávit de caja, creemos que está sesgado debido a los ingresos recibidos por una actividad cuyos gastos pagaremos en enero. Dicho esto, nuestra comunidad parroquial ha seguido respondiendo a las necesidades de nuestro Ministerio cuando se le ha pedido y ¡estaremos eternamente agradecidos!

FINANCIAL UPDATE

OPERATING REVENUE VS EXPENDITURES

The trend lines for revenue and expenditures are consistent with our budget forecast. Our offertory income remains 8% below pre-COVID times and while we have reduced our expenditures significantly, certain increases are out of our control. (utilities, taxes, insurance)

While the month of December reflects a cash surplus, we believe that it is skewed due to income received for an activity that we will pay expenses for in January. That being said, our parish community has continued to respond to our Ministry needs when asked and we are forever grateful!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

The prophet Isaiah wrote about Jesus a long time before he was even born. When Jesus read Isaiah's words, they described Jesus perfectly. Jesus did come to free people from sin, to help those in pain, and even to help blind people see.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for sending Jesus to help us.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Look up Isaiah chapter 61 and read it with your family. Then read Luke 4:14-21. Jesus kept all of those promises!
