ST. PATRICK'S COMMUNITY IS PROUD TO WELCOME
FR. OCTAVIO CORTEZ!

Father Octavio Cortez was born in Zapopan, Jalisco Mexico on October 8, 1980. He came to the United States in the late 90's. He entered the seminary in 2004 in Washington D.C. with the religious order of the Incarnate Word. After 8 years of priestly formation at the Fulton Sheen Seminary, he was ordained to the priesthood on June 8th, 2012. His first assignment was at the San Jose Sanchez del Rio Minor Seminary in Mankato Minnesota as dean of studies and vicar of Saints Peter and Paul Church. In 2016 he was named pastor of Saint Anthony of Padua Church in New Bedford, Massachusetts. He served there until September 2021. Father Octavio enjoys hiking, mountain biking, soccer, and pecan pie.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Prophets possess an intimate knowledge of God and act on their experience of God. Prophetic messages usually challenge the status quo and draw us up and out of ourselves, focusing us on the bigger picture. We often think of ourselves and our own needs first. When we listen to someone speak, we judge the merit of the message by its degree of usefulness. If the message or vision contains no personal benefit or profit but a call to stretch and grow, we can become indignant. Prophets are usually the ones whose message challenges us and calls us to see things differently and love more perfectly and deeply. God is love. When listening to St. Paul speak about love we witness the unfolding of this type of unconditional, other centered, self-sacrificial perfect God. It is an invitation to life, freedom, and happiness that can be offered to us only by God. Jesus, who is God and Love incarnate, calls us to this richer expression of love. Are we ready to listen and be challenged and stretched?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

You may be familiar with the annual “blessing of throats” that many parishes in the United States use to commemorate the beloved bishop and martyr. St. Blaise lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. Due to religious persecution, he was forced to flee and hide in a cave in the back country in order to save his life.

History has it that one day a group of hunters stumbled upon where St. Blaise was living. They found the bishop kneeling in prayer, surrounded by wolves, lions and bears that he had tamed. The legend has it that as the hunters dragged Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise’s command, the child was able to cough up the bone and thus lived.

Today we remember the saint on his feast day by taking two candles, crossing them against the throat, and saying the following prayer:

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

The word of the LORD came to me,
saying:
Before I formed you in the womb I knew
you,
before you were born I dedicated you,
a prophet to the nations I appointed
you. (Jer 1:4-5)

PSALM

I will sing of your salvation. (Ps 71)

SECOND READING

So faith, hope, love remain, these three;
but the greatest of these is love.
(1 Cor 13:13)

GOSPEL

And he said, "Amen, I say to you,
no prophet is accepted in his own native place." (Lk 4:24)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a "Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador's civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica)." As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were the ones most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life. Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day.

We may look at the example of witness of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did extraordinary things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God's message was able to shine in and through him because he was able to step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St. Oscar Romero, one's earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth.

Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. More and more the value and worth of a human being is being reduced and minimized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our whole simple humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God's love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you?

In a home fire, can your family safely escape in just 2 minutes?

This spring, the American Red Cross Southern California Region and partners will Sound the Alarm to help #EndHomeFires in local communities by educating people about home fire safety and installing smoke alarms. The Red Cross and partners will canvas neighborhoods to install free smoke alarms in homes, replace batteries in existing alarms and help families create home fire escape plans.

SAFETY FIRST! As the COVID-19 pandemic continues, the Red Cross will follow COVID-19 safety protocols during all Sound the Alarm events to protect the people they serve and their volunteers.

Visit SoundTheAlarm.org/SoCal or call 714-481-5334 for more information or to sign up for free smoke alarm installation

You may only have two minutes to escape your burning home during a fire. Prepare now by planning and practicing your family's escape plan. Learn more at SoundTheAlarm.org/SoCal #EndHomeFires

Once a year, our Bishop invites each of us to make a commitment to support the work of our diocesan programs and ministries that enhance our church by helping all of God's children build deeper and more meaningful relationships with Him. This effort is a means by which we can all work together to care for the church by sharing the gifts God has granted us. Our parish goal is 100% participation. We welcome you to join us in joyfully supporting the 2022 DDF Annual Appeal. Please take this week to reflect and pray about the blessings you are called to share with your Catholic family.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media

"Love is patient, love is kind ..." As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you've probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn't just for newlyweds. It wasn't written for married folks. It's for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It's for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I'm forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn't there?).

A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it's never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window.

As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that's an opportunity to "strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts."

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

I've heard people call Jesus' conception by the Holy Spirit being "immaculately conceived." Is that what the Immaculate Conception is?

Answer:

While these two events are often confused, they are not the same thing. We celebrated the conception of Jesus on March 25th, the feast of the Annunciation. While that was surely miraculous, it isn't what we refer to as the "immaculate conception." The Immaculate Conception is Mary's conception, and we typically celebrate it on December 8th. If the 8th happens to be a Sunday, the Church moves the feast to December 9th. It is a holy day of obligation. Why does the Church consider it so important to celebrate?

Mary's conception is immaculate because she was conceived without original sin. The angel Gabriel acknowledges this when he hails Mary as "full of grace" (Luke 1:28). Scripture scholars identify several theological ideas that confirm this. In the Old Testament, the sacred, pristine Ark of the Covenant held the presence of God. The presence of God is now held within a new "arc" — the womb of Mary. Genesis 3 also prophesies of a woman who would oppose the devil and whose child would crush the devil's head. Christ is the "New Adam." This passage sets up Mary, then, as the "New Eve." Jesus and Mary are the beginnings of a new creation, one we all can participate in through the grace of our baptism. After all, God's love is more "original" than our sin!
