A Gospel Reflection from Fr. Joe

TRUSTING GOD ON THE RAGING SEA

Dear friends in Christ,

Paul Harvey tells the beautiful story of John Newton. John Newton was the son of an English sea captain. When he was ten, his mother died and he went to sea with his father. The boy learned all about the sea from his father. At 17, however, he rebelled against his father and left his ship. Eventually John took a job on a cargo ship that carried slaves from Africa to America. Because of his knowledge of the sea he was promoted rapidly and became captain of the ship. John Newton never worried about whether the slave trade was wrong or right. He just did it to make money.

Then something happened. One night, a violent storm blew up at sea. The waves grew high tossing Newton's ship around like a toy. Everyone aboard was terribly frightened. Then Newton did something he had never done since he left his father's ship. He prayed, shouting loudly, "God, if you will only save us, I promise to be your slave forever." The ship survived and, when Newton reached land he kept his promise, left the slave trade and entered the seminary. He was eventually ordained to be pastor of a small church in England, there he won the fame as a composer of a hymn we all know, a hymn praising God for his conversion: "Amazing grace how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found, was blind but now I see."

This last week, after 17 months being locked in the dark night of Covid-19 and things that came with it, our State was re-opened. It is summer now, and everything is beautiful and vibrant, but many are still afraid. We are afraid of hangover from the pandemic. We are afraid for the Church and for the faith of people, especially young people. We are afraid of the economic, about job and health care. We are afraid of bad politic, of guns on the street, of drugs and violence in our homes and schools. We are afraid of minority persons as well as majority persons. Americans are fear-filled people these days.

In today's Gospel reading, there is a storm at sea. The Sea of Galilee is notorious of its ugly storms due to winds blowing down from the surrounding hills. That evening, Jesus' disciples are on a small boat crossing to the opposite shore when suddenly the winds come howling, big waves are breaking over the boat, and the boat is filling up with water. But Jesus is asleep. In great panic, they wake Jesus up and say to him, "Master, do you not care? We are going down!" Jesus rebukes the sea, "Quiet now! Be calm!" Then to his disciples, "Why are you so terrified? Where is your faith?"

It is easier for Jesus to calm the storm and the sea than to stir up faith in the disciples' hearts. The storm is not on the sea, it is right in their own fearful hearts. In fear they judge Jesus harshly, accusing him of not caring. What an insult! Fear can do that to us, too. It can make us strike out at everything and everyone. When we experience fear and anxiety, we tend to do the same, underestimating God's power and what he can do for us. Often we trust a great deal in ourselves and forget God's presence.

Human life is a journey across the sea of time to the shore of eternity. There is no smooth and calm crossing for anyone, all will encounter some storms. This Gospel seeks to encourage faithfulness in all of us, even when it looks like chaos are winning and we are being thrown to the ground. What calms the storm in life is not that all our problems suddenly disappear, but that, in their midst, we realize that God is near. We can go from fear to faith just when we realize that God is still in charge.

The boat is a symbol of the Church. We see the boat Church today being assaulted by evil storms of materialism and paganism, and suffering by attackers from all sides. "Fear not!" This ship, the Church, is not without its own power, because Christ is in it.

St. Paul notes that the First Christian Creed had only one line: "Jesus is Lord!" (Phil 2:11). This says enough, and says it all. Faith is a peaceful confidence that Jesus is with us and God is with us.

Like John Newton, like Jesus' disciples, we pray always for the faith to trust God to calm the storm of our times, and that of our lives.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

- Fr. Joe

The 24hr Knight Today's young man faces many commitments. From his duty to his family and to his obligation to his work place, there are constant calls on his time. Understanding that we all have commitments and responsibilities, would you be able to give 24 hours a year to the Knights of Columbus? By giving the Knights of Columbus 24 of those hours (less than .3% annually), you can make a positive impact in your community and Church, be a better Catholic, a better father, a better husband and a better person. Vivat Jesus, Grand Knight Bob Aguirre
